19TH YEAR. NO. 224. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1902. TWO CENTS.

ROBBERS EXPLORE THREE RESIDENCES ON SUNDAY MORNING

The Homes of James Logan, D. E. M'Nichol and John Wyman Ransacked by Burglars.

Robbers with nerve almost unparalleled broke into the homes of three of the most prominent families in the city at an early hour Sunday morning completely ransacking each, but strange to say made their departure with practically nothing for their daring feats.

Considering the fact that they had one of the best opportunities ever offered a band of thieves to carry away hundreds of dollars worth of jewelry and silverware the spoilation is rendered too mysterious for even a connoisseur of crime to unravel.

The homes entered were: James Logan's, located on Sixth street, two doors below Monroe; John Wyman's, next door west, and D. E. McNicol's, Monroe and Fifth streets.

From the particulars gained by a visit to the scenes yesterday afternoon, the McNicol residence was without a doubt the first one pillaged. There were at least two men connected with the depredation and possibly more. At a few minutes before nine o'clock Mamie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNicol, was aroused from her slumber by the sounds of muffled footsteps in the dining room. She, as does the entire family sleeps upstairs. Feeling certain that she was not mistaken in her hearing she went to the bedroom of her parents and awakened them. They, thinking that their daughter was simply suffering from nervousness, commanded that she again retire, but to satisfy her mind all listened closely for another sound below. They could hear nothing and all settled into sleep again until morning when, upon descending to the first floor, it became quite evident that the daughter was not mistaken in her fears but rather had been awakened in exactly the manner that she had tried to impress.

Robbers had been there, and for at least thirty minutes. Every room was turned topsy-turvy. The drawers in every cupboard, sideboard, closet, with but one exception, and there are quite a number of them in the several rooms, had been pulled out and thoroughly searched. The contents of the majority of them were distributed in heaps on the floors. A sideboard in

THE ST. LOUIS MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

A number of the bribe givers, as well as most of the bribe takers, exposed by Circuit Attorney Folk in his investigation of the St. Louis municipal frauds, have been indicted. The confession of J. K. Murrell, former speaker of the house of delegates, has enabled the authorities to clear up a good many points which they have hitherto been unable to solve.

YOUNG LADY'S FALL DOWN FRONT STEPS MAY END FATALLY

Miss Mabel Mitchell Trips Upon a Rug and Receives Very Severe Injuries.

As the result of a terrible accident, Miss Mabel Mitchell lies at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, on Third street, suffering with concussion of the brain and her life in extreme danger.

The accident occurred on last Saturday morning, and since that time Miss Mitchell's life has been hanging by a thread. Her home is located in plain view of the C. & P. railroad, and it was while endeavoring to wave a goodbye to her mother, who left on the 8 o'clock train for Cleveland to visit relatives that she met with the misfortune.

Hearing the approach of the train Miss Mitchell ran from the rear of her home to the front porch and when near its edge her feet became entangled in a rug, throwing her forward with great violence down a flight of 12 steps.

In the rapid and unexpected fall Miss Mitchell received a horrible gash over her right eye and numerous bruises over her body.

Not able to make her condition known, being unconscious as the result of the awful blow on her head, she lay at the bottom of the steps several minutes before she was noticed by a member of the household. A few neighbors were immediately called, and in a comatose condition she was removed to a bed, after which Dr. F. M. Laughlin was summoned.

The physician soon arrived at the bedside and made a hasty examination pronouncing her wounds most dangerous. The gash in the head is almost two inches in length and the frontal bone is crushed in a half inch. It required six stitches to close the cut. Her body in many other places was cut and bruised, and it is thought that she is injured internally. Dr. Laughlin stated yesterday that the gash in her head was the worst that he has ever seen in his many years of experience, and that it is possible that it will result fatally.

Miss Mitchell is 20 years of age and a girl of unusual accomplishments. For several years she has been employed as a trained nurse in an eastern hospital. She came home a week ago on a short vacation.

POLITICS IN THE POTTERY UNIONS

It Is Said the Brotherhood Constitution Forbids Consideration of Duffy Circular.

Circulars have been received in this city by secretaries of almost every trades local, and especially by the officials of all locals affiliated with the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, in which it is asked for an expression as to whether Thomas J. Duffy, secretary of the Bortherhood, shall remain a candidate for congress upon the Labor ticket, which first nominated him, or whether he shall forsake that party's wishes, and accept the nomination for congress from the Democrats.

The communications were received in this city late last week, and only those locals meeting upon Friday and Saturday evenings had a chance to have the communications presented. It has been learned, from a source that is considered most reliable, that while a communication of this sort was received by kilnmen's local No. 9, and by Packer's local No. 25, nothing was done with it.

In the case of the Kinlmen's local No. 9, it is averred that the communication was kept on the desk of the secretary during the entire evening and

CROWDS WILL BE AT AKRON MEETING

LAWS ABOUT FRANCHISES

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Sept. 22.—A large crowd will attend the Republican campaign opening at Akron next Saturday. The state capital will be fully represented. The Buckeye Republican club, of which Zach Tetlow, an attache of the deaf and dumb asylum and a former resident of Washingtonville, Columbiana county, is a member, will attend in a body. Tetlow is on the committee on arrangements. Elihu B. Root, secretary of war, has wired the Republican committee his formal acceptance of the invitation to be one of the orators at the meeting. Governor Nash will preside and addresses will also be made by Senators Foraker and Hanna. The latter's special train tour of the state will begin immediately after the opening. Foraker will likewise make a great many speeches. He has postponed his contemplated trip to Porto Rico in order to take an active part in the campaign.

The sub-committee of the house code committee, after examining the franchise laws have reached the conclusion that there should be some franchise legislation enacted at this session. A number of sections were found to be clothed in ambiguous language which might cause much litigation, and in the committee's judgment, to preclude this, the old laws should be re-enacted, with the questionable parts cut out. Republicans in the senate favor franchise at this session and think that such grants should not run beyond 21 years. Senator Hanna is said to approve the changes made in the Nash code by the house committee. These

GAMBLING ROOMS ONCE MORE RAIDED

Police Made a Big Haul at Terry Carman's Place Saturday Night.

CHUCK-LUCK PLAY ENDED

By a Raid on a Back Room in Smoky Row—Two Men Who Abused And Overdrove a Team of Horses Found It Costly.

Many are the boys that spent Sunday behind the bars of the city jail The majority of them walzed into the presence of the mayor this morning to the tune of $5.60. However, a number of them chose music of a higher class and willingly paid accordingly.

Terry Carman's gambling rooms were running at full blast on Saturday night when Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Morris quietly gained an entrance, and before the gamekeepers and the victims realized what was doing the entire bunch was under arrest. The seller of the chips and the director of the big wheel stood good for their understudies numbering 15 in all. They gave the following as their names: Henry Homer, Joe Laird, Bert Faulk, Lou Brown, George Woodward, Harry Halley, Ben Edwards, Dutch Hines, Charles Spears, George Williams, John Thorn, Richard Wright John Denny, Will Briggs and Edward Gates. Each man will contribute $3 and costs. The proprietor will be let down with $25 and costs.

Armed to the teeth Chief Thompson and Officer Dunn made a raid on a back room located on Smoky Row at about 10 o'clock on Saturday night and as a result caught a chuck-a-luck game in operation. Lou McIntosh was presiding and J. E. Mohler and Jack Horner attempting to best the game. McIntosh will ante up $10 and costs, while the two suckers will dig for $2 and costs.

Because they drove two horses belonging to J. C. McQuilken until the animals were almost ready to drop from over-exertion and because by careless driving they allow the rig to be overturned and partially smashed

YOUNG WOMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

Miss Maud Miller, Formerly of This City, Struck by a Train at Sebring.

Miss Maud Miller, aged 23 years, formerly of this city, was run down at Sebring by passenger train No. 9 this morning and instantly killed.

The train was running 2 hours late owing to the blockade at Jack's Run, and was consequently speeding at a great rate, making it impossible for the engineer to apply the brakes in time to prevent the terrible accident.

It is said that Miss Miller had started to cross the tracks when she saw the approching train and becoming bewildered stood motionless.

Her head and the entire upper part of her body were mangled horribly.

Miss Miller resided in this city for many months, working in the decalcomania department at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery. Three months ago she resigned her position and went to Sebring where she secured employment in a decorating shop.

She is survived by a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, a sister Blanche, and two brothers, George and Walter, all residing at Carrollton.

REPORTED ARREST

Simpson, Reported Suspect, Was in Steubenville Jail at Last Accounts.

According to statements made by Elmer S. Good, of Chester, this afternoon, John Simpson, supposed to be implicated in the Irondale postoffice robbery, was arrested at Middle Run shortly before noon today by a secret service officer. Good also states that Simpson was brought to this city and placed in jail and was to be taken to Irondale on the afternoon train, and that he arrived in Chester last night. Officer Good also made the statement to several other parties.

Mayor Davidson said he knew nothing of the matter, as did also Chief of Police Hiram Allison, of Chester.

James Sherwood, alias John Simpson, suspected of being implicated in the postoffice robbery at Irondale about one week ago, was arrested at Crystal park, Canton, last week, by Sergeant Riblet and Officer Patterson and lodged in the city prison. A charge of being a suspicious character was placed against him and he was sent to the Irondale authorities. The officers believe that Sherwood is one of the men wanted for the Irondale affair and that he already has a criminal record. From Irondale Simpson, who is said to have a bad record, was taken to jail at Steubenville.

He is also suspected of being the man, who, at Salineville, committed the robbery at William Burns' livery stable, also that the Slope mine, and the dastardly theft at the home of the Misses Johnson, near Summitville. Authorities are looking up his record.

Lisbon, September 22.—(Special)—John C. Dolen and Annie Stoll, East Palestine, have been licensed to wed.

CASH BOX TAKEN

Money Taken While Its Owner Was In a Second Street Store Saturday Evening.

David O'Hanlon, the Pleasant Heights dairyman, stepped into a Second street store Saturday evening, and when he returned found his cash box missing from his milk wagon and the receptacle has as yet failed to turn up.

It contained about $40 in change. O'Hanlon did his weekly collecting on Saturday and had almost finished his rounds when the robbery occured. He had not counted the money in the box and is not certain as to the exact amount it contained.

Two young boys, both of whom reside on Second street, are suspected of having committed the theft, though a third one is partially implicated. The youngsters were seen in the act of taking the cash by the lad who became connected with the matter, by accepting hush money, though he is the one who, it is said, let out the information which will in all probability lead to the apprehension of the guilty ones.

SUIT AGAIN ON

Case of McGarry Bros. Against Mrs. Hawkins Being Tried Today.

The case of McGarry Bros. against Mrs. Etta Hawkins, which was continued by 'Squire McCarron two weeks ago, came up for trial again this morning, and it is likely will command the attention of the court until late this evening.

McGarry Bros. allege that Mrs. Hawkins owes them $50 as a commission on selling a piece of her property located at the corner of West Market street and Basil avenue to Benjamin McKinnon.

CHARGED WITH THE THEFT OF A LADY'S POCKETBOOK

John Smith, a scale adjuster, who hails from Parkersburg, and who spent several days in Wellsville working at his trade, was arrested on Market street last evening at about 9 o'clock by Officer Dawson and later taken to Wellsville to answer to a charge of stealing a pocketbook containing $22 from Miss Kathleen Whitlock last Friday evening.

Smith, when arrested, swore that he was not guilty of any crime, and stated that he would have no difficulty in proving that he was not the man wanted.

It is said he was a little the worse for drink when taken in charge and his tongue flower pretty fast. "Instead of me being guilty of stealing money from any person, some one is guilty of doing that with me," said Smith. "On Saturday night I was inveigled into a saloon, Stella Mayers', I think, and after my abductors had succeeded in getting me drunk they toted me to the rear of the saloon and laid me down behind a pile of lumber. While sleeping there they went through my pockets and stole about $50. They then placed my pocketbook in my pocket, first filling it with old paper." The man's story was given no credence by the officer.

Smith was arrested by Officer Dawson and turned over to Officer Davis, of Wellsville, who placed him aboard a Wellsville car at the Diamond. When the officer and his prisoner stepped inside the car, Smith, who appeared to feel his position keenly, dropped into a rear seat. Davis ordered him to move up to the front end of the car of passengers as much as possible and the prisoner remonstrated saying that he wished to avoid the gaze Davis then seized him and dragged him through the car to the front seat.

Paul Kruger and George Pitchard will have to pay $12.50 to the liveryman and the costs attached to the arrest of Kruger. He was landed last evening by Officer Dunn and other one would have spent the night in jail had he been located. No charge was placed against either, and they were dismissed after making good with McQuilken.

In company with two noted characters of the East End they left the city early yesterday morning and drove the horses until 10 o'clock in the evening without giving them food. When the animals were returned to the stable they were exhausted and the liveryman was justly angered. He states that the next time that such treatment is given his horses he will prosecute the inhuman men to the full extent of the law.

Officers Woods and Betteridge were summoned to the old cemetery and found H. C. McDade and William Smith having a drunken fight. They were fined $2 and costs.

Harry Mensinger, a farmer of Beaver county, was arrested by Officer Fisher while helpless in his wagon bound for home. His fine was $5.60.

Thomas Ryan, arrested by Dawson; J. M. Allen, by Dunn; Samuel Martin by Saulsberry; Bill Clendenning, by Fisher; Rose Densmore, by Mahoney, and C. O. Dorrell, by Mahoney, all charged with drunkenness, were fined $1 and costs.

SADLY OUT OF GEAR

Was the C. & P. Schedule Owing to a Freight Wreck Near Allegheny.

The C. & P. schedule was thrown sadly out of gear this forenoon by a big smash of freight cars at Jack's run, near Allegheny. The wreckage covered the four tracks of the Ft. Wayne railroad. The mail train due in this city from Pittsburg at 7:51 did not arrive until after 11 o'clock.

It is reported here that nobody was hurt in the wreck.

TRIED TO BREAK IN

Were Frightened Away Before They Could Effect an Entrance.

The story of an attempted burglary which, had it been a success, would have resulted in the loss of thousands of dollars, came to light this morning.

On Thursday night of last week a bold attempt to enter the Dollar Savings bank was made. Cashier Harry T. Hall made the discovery on Friday morning. He saw a number of fine snavings laying under the door step on Broadway and upon further investigation found that some one had been tampering with the door. The screen door was broken open and the inside door, which is locked from the inside, was cut in numerous places.

The door is one that has no keyhole on the outside and no knob. It is supposed that the robber became frightened while at his work and fled.

Chief Thompson has been notified of the deed and is on the lookout for suspicious appearing persons.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEWS FROM PEORIA.

The plant of the Crown Pottery company, at Peoria, is working rather slow at present, the glost kilnmen making but seven days a pay. A few weeks ago a crown of one of the glost kilns fell in, and this damage has not been repaired. It is expected that this kiln will be ready to place inside of a week.

Walter McKeone, a dishmaker at this plant, who came here from East Liverpool several months ago, broke the thumb of his right hand, and has been unable to work. The accident happened four weeks ago, while McKeone was playing a game of baseball.

Samuel Thomas, who has been employed as a dishmaker at this plant, has taken a similar position at New Castle and will leave Peoria this week. Mr. Massey will take the position made vacant.

It is reported about the shop that Byron Foutts, who has charge of the packing shed at this plant, and who was formerly located at the Dresden, in East Liverpool, is much disappointed about Joe Farmer, whom Foutts sent for three weeks ago to come to Peoria to take a position. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Farmer, and it is believed that he does not intend to go to Peoria.

Patrick Rafferty is working out his notice, and will soon leave for Akron.

TRADE IS STRONG.

Business is unusually brisk at the potteries. Generally they are crowding manufacturing, and the most important consideration, beyond making a good grade of ware, is the prompt completion and shipment of the increasing orders upon their books. The demands for staple dinner and toilet not only continue strong, but those for specialties are enlarging from day to day, requiring a greater proportion of the pottery capacity and attention. Visiting buyers are relatively few, the mails continuing to furnish the liberal trade that is now coming in. Reports from nearly every quarter are now favorable. Crops are all practically beyond any calamity and there seems to be nothing in sight to restrict the present liberal demands for pottery and all lines of manufacture except limited capacity for production. Quite a number of large orders are reported to have been turned down the past week by various potteries here and over the west—some owing to time demand, others to price limit.

WILL BUILD A NEW KILN.

Information has been given out that an important addition will be built to the Edwin M. Knowles pottery at Chester soon. The work is to begin as soon as possible. The company has been doing such a large business during the past year that the stockholders have been compelled to increase the capacity of the plant. This will be done at once by the erection of an additional kiln. It is said that the contract for the stone for the foundation for this kiln has been let, and that the kiln will be commenced within two weeks. This will give the plant a capacity of six kilns.

INCREASING THE PLANT.

The Summit China company, of Akron, who opened with three kilns last year, have commenced a fourth and have commenced on another, to be finished within 30 days. They report business to be satisfactory this fall, giving them full regular employment. The report that Mr. Cook, who lately withdrew from the Akron China company, had bought the old burned Specialty plant and would rebuild and start another ware pottery seems to be without foundation.

AN AGRREMENT REACHED.

Committees representing the National Brotherhood of Operative potters and also the Western Manufacturing Potters' association met in joint session in the rooms of the Potters' club on Fifth street Saturday night, at which time the dispute of the dispute of the Brotherhood, relative to placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln was finally settled. An agreement was reached, and at another joint meeting which will be held later in the week, the agreement will be signed by representatives of both sides. It was stated this morning that the settlement calls for placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln, four saggers high, and if more flat ware is desired in the first ring, extra compensation shall be given. This verbal agreement will be placed in writing, and the meeting later in the week, it will be signed, and the agreement will then become a fixture. The agreement will likely become operative within a few days. A manufacturer said today that the settlement would either be approved or rejected at a meeting Wednesday night.

AGED POTTER DEAD.

The death of William C. Finney occurred at his home at 223 Johnston street, East Akron, Friday evening. About six months ago Mr. Finney suffered a stroke of paralysis and had been ill ever since. It finally, together with old age, caused his death. Mr. Finney had until recent years been engaged as a potter in the East Akron shops. He was born in Maine March 30, 1825. He has been a resident of Akron for 35 years.

HENDERSON REMAINS FIRM

He Endorses Speech Made by President Roosevelt, at Cincinnati.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—David B. Henderson, speaker of the national house of representatives, passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to Atlantic City, where he will join Mrs Henderson. Before leaving for the east Speaker Henderson reiterated his decision to retire from the congressional race in Iowa, denied any intention of "abdicating" his present position until his term of office shall have expired, and declared himself in perfect accord with the tariff views of President Roosevelt, as enunciated in his Cincinnati speech. He said in part:

"I have spent 20 years of my life fighting for protection for American industries and American labor, and I shall not be a party to any juggling at this late day. President Roosevelt's tariff views, set forth in his Cincinnati speech, coincide with my own. There is no difference in our belief. His speech was a strong one and it has my hearty indorsement."

DECIDED AGAINST HUFF.

Dauphin County, P a., Court Sustains Showalter s Protest.

Harrisburg, Sept. 22.—The contested election case from the Twenty-second congressional district, composed of Butler and Westmoreland counties was decided in favor of the contestant by the Dauphin county court Saturday night. No opinion was handed down, but the court announced that one would be written and filed later.

The contest was instituted by Congressman Joseph B. Showalter, of Butler, who claimed that the certificate of Colonel George F. Huff, of Greensburg, who claimed the Republican nomination, was invalid for the reason that the alleged compact between Butler and Westmoreland counties had not been properly ratified by the county committees, the evidence showing that there had not been a quorum of the joint committee present when the compact was alleged to have been ratified.

Huff was nominated at a conference at Pittsburg on Sept. 11, in which Butler county refused to participate because Westmoreland insisted upon eight conferees under the compact and would allow Butler but three. Showalter was the choice of Butler county, and the court's decision leaves the district without a Republican candidate.

No Charge.

A group of representatives were one day telling stories of their experience in court when one of them contributed this incident from Arizona, says a western newspaper:

Out in one of the border towns a case was in progress, one of the lawyers being an eastern man who was new to the country.

"Will you charge the jury, your honor?" he asked when the evidence had been submitted.

"Oh, no; I guess not," replied the judge. "I never charge them anything. They don't know much anyhow, and I let 'em have all they can make."

A Costly Bible.

The most costly book in the Royal library at Stockholm is a Bible. It is no wonder that it is considered precious, for there is not another like it in the world. In weight and size alone it is unique. It is said that 160 asses' skins were used for its parchment leaves. There are 309 pages of writing, and each page falls but an inch short of being a yard in length. The width of the leaves is twenty inches. The covers are solid planks four inches thick.

SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

FATHER KILLED HIS CHILD.

Abducted It From Mother and Shot It, When Close Pressed--Committed Suicide.

Springfield, Ills., Sept. 22.—Harry O. Williams, agent for the Franklin Life Insurance company, Saturday afternoon abducted his 2-year-old son Glen, from its mother at Auburn, Ills. and when pursued by officers got out of his buggy, placed the child in the road and blew out its brains and then killed himself. Williams became dissolute last spring and his wife, being ill, was taken home by her father, J. A. Harney.

Williams appeared at the Harney residence Saturday afternoon and asked his wife to take the child and go away with him. She refused, when he threatened the wife's life and took the child by force. Miss Lena Harney, his sister-in-law, caught the horse's reins and tried to prevent his leaving, but he struck her with a whip, and, as she still persisted, he drew a revolver and compelled her to let go the reins. He then drove away. Officers were called and when Williams saw them approaching he committed the double murder. Williams was short in his accounts with the insurance company and frequently had quarreled with his wife.

An Explanation.

"I suppose you will be glad to get away from congress and get a little rest."

"My friend," answered the statesman, "you misinterpret the situation. When a man goes to his own state, he has got to look after elections night and day. He goes home to hustle. If he's lucky, he gets to congress, where is a chance to rest."—Washington Star.

As to Eating Pie.

"I see Boston people eat pie in the morning and New Yorkers have it at night. Which do you think the better way, doctor?"

"Well, I should say the New York style. The longer a man puts off eating pie the better it is for him."—Yonkers Statesman.

EAST END

AGAINST THE SALOONS

REV. P. A. BAKER PREACHED IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY.

Encouraged By the Votes Thus Far Taken Under the Beal Law.

Rev. P. A. Baker, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-saloon league, presided over a union meeting of the East End churches at the Second U. P. church, at 4 o'clock yesterday evening.

The attendance was unusually large, and the address was listened to with great interest. Mr. Baker has spoken in this city on several occasions, and his efforts in the temperance cause are appreciated by East Liverpool people.

"During the last meetings of the last four general assemblages of the State of Ohio," said the speaker, "the State League has been before that body with four different and distinct local option bills.

"We have met defeat in all but the last one—the Beal law—and we are now on the way to victory. We are peculiarly fortunate in having the provisions of the Nash code modified so that it will protect this law and there is no danger that it will not be in force for the next two years."

Rev. Mr. Baker continued his address by stating the number of towns that had been voted dry under this new local option law. He said that during the four months of its enactment there had been 77 towns, of from 500 to 1100 inhabitants, voted dry. If the number of saloons that had been put out of the business were given 30 feet of space, and each placed side by side, they would reach for one and one-half miles.

"In regard to East Liverpool I am not at liberty to say just when an attempt will be made to take a vote in this city. I might say, however, that it will not be before next summer. I know that it is harder to vote the saloons out in a larger town than it is in a smaller one." Mr. Baker preached a brief sermon at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

ABSENT 20 YEARS

J. C. Orin, of New Mexico, Is Visiting His Brother in the East End.

After being absent from the city for almost 20 years; in fact, 20 years next April, J. C. Orin, of Raton, N. M., arrived in the East End this morning at 5 o'clock, where he will remain about a month visiting his brother, W. A. Orin, of First avenue. Mr. Orin is employed as a machinist in the machine shop of the Santa Fe Railway company at Raton. He left his family in Kansas City, where Mrs. Orin will remain some time visiting relatives.

Mr. Orin has a 60-days' leave of absence. When he arrived in Wellsville this morning he recognized that small town, and to his brother in the East End said that he did not notice any change in the town. As to East Liverpool, he did not know the city. Owing to the early hour of his arrival he took a walk about the business part of the city and was surprised to notice how many improvements had been made since he was last here. Mr. Orin has many friends in the city, Robert A. Orin, chief engineer at the K., T. & K. pottery, being a brother.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Befell Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, While Alighting From a Car.

Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, met with an accident Saturday evening that is causing her much pain. She had been spending a few days at Wellsburg, visiting friends, and returned to East Liverpool Saturday evening. Getting off the train at the station, she boarded an east bound car, and went to the East End. The car was stopped on Ohio avenue, and in alighting Mrs. Martin stepped into a small gully. Not thinking the distance from the step to the ground was so great, she severly sprained her right ankle, and this morning was unable to bear her weight on that foot.

It is feared that some of the smaller bones of the foot are broken, but this cannot be determined just yet. The accident was an unfortunate one, and could have been prevented if both sides of the raer platform had been open.

IN BOYS' ATTIRE

East End Girls Went Masquerading, And the Police Will Watch for Them.

Two well known young girls of the East End, thinking they would have some fun on Friday evening dressed themselves in male clothing, and for a few hours roamed about the streets of the suburb in an unsuspected manner. During their rambles they called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin on St. George street, and asked if they had room for two boarders. They were told that they could not be accommodated, but they were undaunted in their efforts to have a good time and proceeded to call at several other homes in that locality, inquiring for board.

The girls are employed in an East End pottery, and their masquerading in men's attire is known to only a very few in the East End. The affair leaked out Saturday afternoon and more than one person in the East End is talking of it. If the experiment is repeated they are likely to be arrested.

FOOTBALL ACCIDENTS

Several Players Slightly Hurt During the Progress of a Foot Ball Game.

During the foot ball game at Columbian park Saturday afternoon several of the players were more or less injured. It is evident, however, that Harry Herbert was injured the worst. He was playing with the East End team and during the game fell on his left arm and this morning he could raise his arm but a few inches.

Lewis Marsh was also injured, while Edward and John Mountford, two players on the Dixonville team were also slightly hurt. None of the injuries will prove serious.

Free Methodist Meetings.

The Free Methodists held their first meetings in the Philes' club dance rooms in the Larkins & Ferguson building Friday and Saturday evenings and two interesting meetings are said to have been held. The attendance was quite large. It cannot be told just at this time how long the meetings will continue. The officials of this church have not completed arrangements for the purchase of the lot in Helena, but it is thought the matter will be closed up this week.

The Cable Laid.

The United Power company on Saturday evening completed the task of burying alternating current cable in the Ohio river from the south side of Babb's island to the West Virginia shore. The exclusive announcement that this work was being done appeared in this paper a few days ago, and the work was completed earlier than was expected. The cable is buried about two feet under the bed of the river. The cable is armour clad and is 2,000 feet in length.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.

Members of the Prohibition Alliance, of the East End, have arranged for a large meeting tomorrow evening in the Protected Home Circle hall. An interesting musical program has been arranged, and matters of importance will be talked over. Later in the evening refreshments will be served. This is the first time the Alliance has met in a hall, the meetings being generally held in the homes of the members.

Goes to Alabama.

Two Cases of Scarlet Fever.

Two cases of scarlet fever were reported in the East End this morning, and both were from the same locality. Those who are ill with this disease are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fisher, of High street, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Putnam, also of High street. The children have been ill but a few days, and the homes are now quarantined.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Richard Chambers, of the East End has returned home after a delightful visit to Atlantic City and other eastern cities.

John Kenna, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been visiting friends in the East End for several weeks, returned to his home this morning.

A meeting of the Ladies' society of the Erie street M. E. church will be held next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. Orcutt on Boyce street.

The Ohio river is now lower than it has been during the summer and can now be forded. In fact several teams forded the river this morning, and by so doing the drivers saved money in bridge toll.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will be held this evening in the church on Virginia avenue. Matters of business is all that is to be considered.

The regular quarterly communion service was observed at the Second U. P. church yesterday morning, and during the service three persons united with the church, two by certificate and one on profession of faith. The service was largely attended and was most interesting.

Fish Proverbs.

"I have other fish to fry" one says in declining a task. "A pretty kittle of fish," says another in designating a pretty bad mess. The "kittle" is the tackle of the fish boom, which may easily get into a sad snarl. "There are other fish in the sea," says the rejected suitor. "Mute as a fish," "Dead as a herring," "As uneasy as a fish out of water," "To fish for compliments," are among the best known figurative expressions referring to the finny tribe. "Very like a whale" we may refer at least to Shakespeare's time ("Hamlet," iii, 2). "White as whalebone" was coined when walrus ivory was taken for whale's bone. "The shark flies the feather" is a sailor's saying, indicating the fact that this voracious fish will not touch a bird. The use of the term "land shark" is not confined to seamen by any means. Shakespeare makes use of another nautical expression in "Twelfth Night," i, 8.

True Literature.

We are inclined on the whole to believe that the stimulus to literary production exists within and not without the man. It is not external circumstances, poverty or riches, sickness or health, greatness or humbleness, that determine the productions or output of genius. It is the characteristics of the man that determine not what he shall learn or what he shall think, but what he shall do. A stimulus from without, such as poverty, may start production, of course, but that is merely the physical awakening of a disposition that in any circumstances would have been awakened in some way at some time. True literature is the voice of the soul calling from the windows of the house of clay in response to those things of life that touch the nature of the soul that speaks.—London Spectator.

A Languid Japanese Lady.

In a recent address in Tokyo a prominent Japanese educator said: "The indolence of Japanese ladies is something amazing. I know a daughter of a certain peer, but a brand new one, and this young lady's indolence is really beyond the idea of ordinary mortals. She will not even open her mouth of herself. As soon as the time to retire to her bed arrives she issues her order, 'Now I will retire,' and at once three or four maids spread the underquilts, help her, or, rather, make her, for she simply stands like a doll, to change her clothes, and at last the girl, swaddled in her night garment, is put to bed just like a person suffering from a serious illness, and so the poor thing goes to sleep and releases her maids from their trouble till the morning, when the daily routine is resumed. First of all she issues to the maids waiting in her anteroom this extraordinary order, 'I shall get up now,' and then the process exactly the reverse of that of the night before is forthwith commenced by the girls. Day after day this routine is gone through, and the spoiled child of the proud upstart peer forces herself from her mistaken notion as to dignity to lead the life of an invalid and to cripple the normal development of her body."—Chicago News.

Like Father, Like Son.

"I'm determined to call the dear little fellow Marion," said Mrs. Henpeck.

"But think, my dear," protested Mr. Henpeck, pere, "if he should grow up, like me, to marry a—er—strong woman and push a baby coach himself and wash dishes, how easy it would be for people to change Marion to Mary Ann."—Philadelphia Press.

Love In the Museum.

"Will nothing move you?" pleaded the ardent wild man, who was as adept at lovemaking as he was at eating raw beef.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. America has reached the highest commercial industrial development it ever had under the existing tariff laws. If this is not an argument against revision, where is one to be found? Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech, made the following statement: "We have established a vastly higher standard of living in America than in any other country on earth. Comparing class with class, American artisans with foreign artisans, American clerks with foreign clerks, and American day laborers with foreign day laborers, our people live in better homes than do the people of any other country. And the reason lies in the fact that the American toiler, in whatsoever field, receives better compensation, and, therefore, becomes a much larger consumer, and, being the largest consumer in the world, he affords his brother American toiler the best market in the world." These are truths that nobody can deny. The policy of protection has brought these conditions about. Foolish indeed would the workingmen be to put into power representatives of a party who would demorialize industries, cheapen wages and carry us back to the dark days of the Wilson tariff.

There is a congressman named Snooks who represents—or, more properly speaking, misrepresents—the Fifth Ohio district, who is trying hard to attract attention. Snooks on the stump is predicting a revolution against wealth in this country, to rival the French revolution in bloodshed and horror. What he bases his prediction upon is rather indefinite. The gentleman is simply ranting. Wealth is the foundation of our national prosperity and greatness. It is the desideratum of all who toil. There may be occasional instances where fortunes are made dishonestly, but the wealth so acquired is seldom enduring. The majority of men who become wealthy start as poor boys. If they gain millions they do so by their industry, intelligence and brains. The country contains very few misers. Those who have money keep it employed. Those who live by wages are intelligent enough to know that a war on wealth would be a blow at their own interests. A congressman who has so little sense as to thing otherwise should resign his seat and keep quiet.

Speaking of the Democratic congressional nomination of the Eighteenth district, the Mansfield News observes: "The zeal of the Democracy in the cause of union laber, it will be observed, is inversely proportional to the chances of union labor or of the Democracy to win. You never hear of the Democrats in a strongly Democratic district showing any special favors toward labor candidates, and if the Eighteenth Ohio district were strongly Democratic, instead of being normally over 6,000 Republican, the Democrats would have no use for a labor candidate." But the workingmen who will be fooled into lending aid and comfort to their enemies are few in number.

Senator Cockerell, of Missouri, who was a free silver man before Bryan could talk, said recently concerning the increased production of gold: "The effect of this increase has been a rise in prices, and industries have revived and prosperity has been brought in." He further says in his speech that it is neither wise nor judicious at present to urge the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Conservative and prominent Democrats generally are doubtless of Senator Cockerell's opinion, though very few of them have the courage to say so.

The National Dressmakers' association will hereafter endeavor to find husbands for worthy seamstresses who are unable to conclude matrimonial negotiations without help. But where does it find that sort of timid dressmakers?

The Cleveland Leader is zealously booming Congressman Burton for the speakership of the house. It has been demonstrated time and again that the right man for a prominent office can always be found in Ohio.

Democratic papers have much to say about the president's "indiscreet utterances." The president, however, continues to speak his mind. He is talking sense, and not to please Democrats.

George Fred Williams continues to support free silver in Massachusetts. Yet people laugh at some of the benighted citizens of the Tennessee hills who are still voting for Andrew Jackson.

This country is importing foreign steel in whole cargoes, and yet every steel mill in the United States is running at its fullest capacity. And the steel market is the barometer of business.

The question what to do with ex-presidents is bothering our South American friends. They find it hard to keep them from becoming revolutionists.

Kentucky law can prevent prize fights. In time it may be able to suppress the other and more deadly kind.

Congressman Cannon's speakership boom starts off with a loud report.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR

Will Be Celebrated the World Over On Wednesday Next.

The Hebrew new year, Rosh Hashono, will be celebrated Wednesday. On this day every Hebrew, rich or poor, the world over, will confess to his God his spiritual failings during the year that has gone and promise to do better during the year to come.

A prominent Hebrew of this city in speaking of the event has said:

"There is not another day given in the Jewish faith when Almighty God is so near to those of the belief as on the day of Rosh Hashbono, which means 'the head day of the year.'

"On this occasion millions of Jewish people promise their God that they have chosen the way of the truth. All worldly cares are abandoned and the Jews surrender themselves to the everlasting God, admitting their wrongdoings for the year and accepting the construction of the holy scrool for the new year.

"Let each visitor to the house of God be not a hypocrite. Think that you are seeking the Creator's endorsement for the new year. Let each Jew also know that there is not a denomination extant with more solid principles than ours. We all worship in the knowledge of our only God, to whom the richest master and the poorest beggar may kneel alike."

AT THE THEATER

The Harry Jenkins company, with Austin T. Blair's big stock company, arrived in the city yesterday and will begin a week's engagement at the Grand tonight. There will not be a stronger aggregation here this season. The company is particularly well balanced, Mr. Jenkins being one of the cleverest comedians on the American stage, while the leading man and lady are very strong. Miss Leona Leslie is an actress of great ability, having worked in leading stock companies for several years. Her stock of imported French gowns are said to have cost a fortune. The opening bill will be 'Parisian Princess,' in which the company is particularly strong.

"Two Little Waifs," Lincoln J. Carter's latest drama, was presented at the Grand Saturday night by a first class company of players. The Lambs who took the part of the waifs, were particularly clever, being among the very best juvenile actors who ever appeared here. The owners of the piece have equipped it with excellent scenery and lots of it. The audience was the largest so far of the season and it showed its appreciation in many ways.

THE RELIEF OF CROSS EYES

is a branch of the business which most opticians ignore. But there is a logical reason for this neglect on their part. Cross eyes are caused from muscular imbalance, and muscular imbalance is something the great majority of opticians do not understand. Since coming here I have straightened over a dozen pairs of crossed eyes and have not failed in a single case. I do it with glasses, too, and without pain or trouble.

Only Exclusive Optician in This City. No. 111 Sixth Street.

P. O. KENNEDY.

To give perfect relief to weak eyes of whatever character an understanding of the muscles is absolutely necessary in a large per centage of cases. Do you know what causes your head to ache when your eyes are at fault? There is some muscle or set of muscles being overworked, and to give perfect relief the optician MUST UNDERSTAND MUSCULAR TROUBLES. I examine your eyes free of charge, and examine them thoroughly, too.

the dining room was entirely emptied, when investigated, but nothing it contained was removed from the room. In it was silverware of the most valuable kind. Not a single piece of it was carried away. Had they so desired they could have easily decamped with $500 worth of valuables.

That the burglars did not take more is attributed to the fact in evidence that they were on the hunt for money and nothing else. The finding of over 100 half burnt matches on the front floors gives an idea of their nerve and the time they spent in the house. That one closet that escaped their notice was the one for which they were really looking. It is located in a small hallway. Upon entering the way, they opened a door and in order to give them an easy exit if disturbed they placed a cuspidor against it, pressing the door tightly to what they supposed was simply a wall. Had they only known it, their nights' work would have been amply repaid by the leaving of that door ajar. Behind it was a closet. In the closet, plain to view, was a big rool of money, the amount of which would have opened their eyes greatly.

They made an entrance through a window on the west side of the house, and their exit through the back kitchen door, which remained open until morning.

From the McNicol residence the men fearlessly proceeded to the Logan home. Smashing a pane of glass in the back kitchen a hand was thrust through and the latch, easily turned. The glass fell inwardly to the floor, and, although it must have made a loud crash, none of the household was disturbed. They slept upstairs and the lower part of the house was thoroughly searched without any sounds reaching the sleeping apartments.

Going first to a cupboard in the kitchen, the robbers found a pocketbook, but paid no attention to the silverware. They then went into the sitting room and, seeing a suit of clothes hanging on a clothes rack, partially rifled it. As far as is known all that they got from the whole proceeding was obtained from this suit.

A Dueber filled watch case with Elgin works and a gold chain were the only things of value that they removed. Several old coins, two Columbian half dollars and some small change laid loosely in a vest escaped their fingers. The watch and chain are valued at $25 by Mr. Logan.

After searching the remaining rooms they left by the same way that they entered, having in their possession only the watch, chain and pocketbook. The latter they opened, after making their exit, and finding two gold rings and a few receipts, laid the book on a fence and threw the contents out into the grass.

Over the back fence into the Wyman yard they jumped and entered the residence by prying open the cellar door. Many fruit cans were moved by them, but none of them taken. The door leading to the first floor of the house was wide open in the morning, but there was no evidence of them having prowled further than the cellar. It is supposed that at the time they were getting ready to go upstairs some sound scared them away.

Miss Blanche Murphy, living at the rear of the Wyman home with her parents states she heard footsteps in the yard at about 4 o'clock and arising saw several dark forms leaving the premises. She can not describe them however, and there is absolutely no clue by which the bold characters can be identified.

Chief Thompson and the entire police force were notified of the nights' doings, and immediately instituted a search for the gang, but without success, and are afraid that they will never run down the guilty parties unless perchance the watch and chain are recognized by a person who will be willing to peach.

The One Efficient Medium.

A New York advertiser says: "A man may or may not read a poster in a way to receive a distinct impression, for the mind is not always receptive. A man may read a circular or he may toss it into the scrapbasket. A daily newspaper, however, he buys voluntarily because he wants to read it. He may not read any advertisement the first day or for many days, but some day he will read it and will take it all in. That is why I regard the newspaper as the one efficient medium of publicity."—Philadelphia Record.

It Takes Time.

It takes time to extract all the juice from the advertising. That is why one cannot become successful without starting with enough capital to keep the machine in motion for a long enough time to secure the full benefit of what has been done during past months. It usually takes from six months to a year to get up a steady motion that will afterward keep things going along largely by their own momentum.—Advisor.

INSULTING REMARK

Directed at an Italian Results in a Hauf By the Police.

While sitting near a window at the home of his mother on Twelfth street yesterday afternoon, Harry Potts directed an insulting remark at a passing Italian known by the name of Maroni with disastrous results.

The Italian resented the insult and invited Harry out onto the street. Potts refused the invitation and the Italian started to bombard the house with stones. Harry and Alfred Green who boards at the Potts home, went out to chastise the Italian and were succeeding when some of his friends from the Italian quarter on Twelfth street and Officers Davis, Houser and Elliott arrived on the battle ground at the same time.

The officers escorted Potts, Green and the Italian to cells in the city bastile.

changes were submitted to him before they were acted upon by the committee. The changes provide for single head elective boards instead of a multiple board.

George B. Cox, who controls the politics of Hamilton county, is opposed to the single head plan and favors the federal or chamber of commerce bill in preference to it. The original board bill was the one he wanted adopted, but now that it has been abandoned he has come out in favor of the one mentioned. Attorney General Sheets is with him in this regard. Unlike the views of the majority of the members of the legislature, he holds that flexible boards are constitutional. He said: "The man who says the constitution will not admit of flexible boards does not read right." He takes the stand that it would be legal for cities to prescribe for either one-man boards or for boards of more than one member. Councils have had authority to fix the number of members, and if the principle is lawful in the one it is in the other. He says that Judge Davis, of the supreme court, has given him to understand that flexible boards would not violate the provisions of the constitution. This assertion will probably again draw the fire of Representative Price, of Athens, who has taken a pronounced stand against what he terms "back door decisions of the supreme court."

DREAM HAS VANISHED

The Total Amount Yet Unclaimed Amounts to a Very Small Sum.

The Whitakers and Whitakers of this county who have been looking for a fortune of several million pounds from an English estate are to be disappointed. A Washington dispatch says:

"A letter from the chief accountant of the bank of England in regard to inquiries from persons in the United States relative to alleged unclaimed estates in England, says that the bank recently has received a great number of applications respecting the Whitaker estate, the name of Whitaker being variously spelled. The original basis of these inquiries is the occurence of the name in lists of unclaimed stocks and dividends published by the bank in the early part of the last century. The total amount at present unclaimed on several accounts with which the name of Whitaker is connected is less than £100. Some time ago a person called at the bank and said he had been designated by the heirs of the Whitaker estate to investigate their claim. He was told that there was no such estate in the knowledge of the bank, but he gave the 'heirs' a different version and spurred them on to renewed efforts."

The person alluded to is no doubt Rev. William Whitaker, who has been working on the scheme at Lisbon for nearly seven years. Last summer he went to England accompanied by his secretary, ostensibly to look up matters. At different times he has written to heirs in this county, giving very encouraging accounts of his progress. Prior to going to England he made several visits here to look up records concerning the heirs of the alleged estate.

NO BIDS ON HAND

CHESTER BONDS CANNOT BE SOLD FOR 30 DAYS.

Commissioners Found Only Enquiries on Meeting to Open Bids.

No bids were on hand Saturday, when at 8 p. m., in accordance with the advertisement of $20,000 in 5 per cent bonds the bond commissioners met.

O. O. Allison, J. H. Maxwell and E. D. Marshall met, but found nothing to look over excepting inquries from financial representatives who wished to have the bonds. There were no formal bids and the advertisements will have to be let over again.

No bids can now be submitted for 30 days. Mr. Allison said: "The bond issue was not sufficiently advertised. It was advertised only in New Cumberland. While the law specifies that matters of the kind should be published in a county paper, the city should have at least advertised the proposition in East Liverpool.

"Those bonds are better than government paper, and we ought not only to have bidders for the bonds, but get a nice premium on 5 per cent paper. This city now has over $500,000 in assessed property valuations and no man of business sense who visits this city will have the slightest doubt of the rapid increase in development of this city. From letters received from financial houses in different cities we knew that we could easily turn the bonds over to them, but not legally. We shall advertise the bonds at once. The paving contractor, E. A. Freshwater, is not afraid of his money and will go right on with the work. If it comes to a pinch, local people will take up that 5 per cent paper."

PAVING WORK RUSHED

Excellent Progress Being Made in the Improvement of Chester Streets.

Though the $20,000 bond issue for the paving of the streets of Chester has not been sold, from the manner in which the work was progressing this morning this is a detail of minor importance. An army of men were working with plows, scrapers and shovels reducing the streets to the proper grade, and if the work continues at the present rate it will be completed before the bonds are sold.

MOUTHFUL OF LYE

A Chester Child Severly Burned Attempting to Drink the Stuff.

The three year old son of Joseph Kennedy, of Fairview avenue, was brought to the office of Dr. Lewis Saturday afternoon, suffering from terrible burns in the mouth and throat, caused by attempting to swallow the contents of a can of lye.

The child, unnoticed by its mother, gained possession of the can and attempted to swallow a mouthful of the powerful alkali. Its screams soon attracted the attention of its mother who hurried to the office of Dr. Lewis. After examining the injuries of the child, the doctor stated that his burns were only in the mouth and throat and that there were no serious injuries.

A new place at which to disembark the passengers was made necessary by the street improvements, which will cause the removal of the platform in front of the park entrance.

ONE HAS BEEN CAUGHT

Two Salem Boys Accused of Stealing a Horse And Buggy.

Salem, September 22.—(Special)—Ernest Phillips, aged 20, and Willie Roberts, two youths of this city on August 25, hired a horse and buggy of Liveryman S. E. Mackintosh since which time both horse and buggy have been lost. Every chief of police in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia has been notified to be on the lookout. The horse was cream colored, and it is strange that track of the horse and buggy could not be obtained. Last Wednesday Chief of Police Turner was notified by the Johnston officials that they had arrested young Roberts and had the horse and buggy in their possession.

Turner and Mackintosh at once went to Johnstown and secured the property. The harness had been traded off. Chief Turner returned Saturday evening with young Roberts, who waived requisition papers and was glad to return to Salem.

Phillips has not yet been arrested, as the instigator. Officers are on the track of Phillips. The latter has already served a term in the industrial school at Lancaster. Young Roberts is in jail at Salem, and will be given a hearing when Phillips is apprehended.

GIFT TO M'GOVERN

A Handsome Water Pitcher Bestowed on the Pugilist By Local Admirers.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "A delegation of visitors from East Liverpool, O., presented Terry McGovern with a handsome water pitcher. It was made in one of the big potteries of East Liverpool, and is painted entirely by hand. On one side is a bunch of American Beauties, and the other a set of colors representing America and Ireland. Between the two flags is a pair of boxing gloves done in fancy colors.

"It is a very neat piece of work and was presented to Terry by Hugh McDermott, Jimmy Larkins, J. F. Williams and T. L. Baker, all well known sporting men of East Liverpool. The party stopped over to see Terry on their way to Louisville. They were much disappointed when the announcement was made that the bout would not come off."

SPOKE TO VETERANS.

President Spoke to Spanish War Soldiers, at Detroit, Today.

HE WENT TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

This Afternoon President Roosevelt Will Review Veterans and Military. Canadian Soldiers to Be In the Parade—Banquet Tonight.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The president addressed the convention of Spanish war veterans at 10 a. m. today; at 11 o'clock he was driven to the steamer Tashmoo, for a ride on the river, and at 4 o'clock he will review the parade of veterans and military, a unique feature of which will be the presence of the Twenty-first regiment of Essex Fusiliers, from Canada; at 8 p. m. he will attend the banquet of the veterans in Light Guard armory, where he will make the address of the evening.

President Roosevelt arrived in the city at 8 o'clock yesterday morning over the Michigan Central railroad. He found Detroit awaiting his arrival in gala attire.

Throughout the day the president was greeted with tumultuous cheers at his every appearance.

President Attended Church.

Immediately on his arrival he was driven to the Hotel Cadillac, where he occupies the corner rooms on the parlor floor, which have been especially decorated in his honor. At 10:30 o'clock he attended services at the Fort Street Presbyterian church, driving from there to General R. A. Alger's residence, where he was entertained at luncheon. He returned to the Cadillac soon after 3 o'clock, only to leave again in a short time for a drive about the city. During the drive he called at St. Mary's hospital, on St. Antoine street, where Thomas K. Doherty, a local veteran of the Spanish war, is dying of consumption. Doherty had expressed a wish to see the president, and General Alger learned of it. Accordingly at luncheon yesterday President Roosevelt was asked if he would call on Doherty at the hospital. The president answered that he would be delighted to do so. Doherty is unable to sit up and the president remained at his bedside for some minutes, chatting with him and expressing words of cheer and hope.

Last night the president dined at the Cadillac with a party of friends.

The subject of Rev. E. H. Pence's sermon, at the church, was "A Threefold Gospel," and his text was from First Thessalonians, second chapter and second verse. During the services the president's favorite hymn, "God Guard Columbia," was sung.

Wants No Demonstration at Cleveland

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—Senator Hanna last night stated that President Roosevelt had made the request that no public demonstration be made over his visit to Cleveland as the guest of Senator Hanna, next Saturday and Sunday. The visit is not a public one and the president wishes to spend the day as quietly as possible, at Senator Hanna's home on Lake avenue.

Senator Hanna was asked what he thought of the president's speech at Cincinnati, Saturday, but declined to make any comment or statement. Neither would he make any statement as to what transpired at the conference at Oyster Bay a few days ago.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, left at noon yesterday for California, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Littlefield will make a number of speeches in that state. Later in the campaign he will return to Ohio and deliver several speeches in this county in support of the candidacy of Hon. Theodore E. Burton's re-election to congress.

Against Abolition of Tariff Duties.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt, before a great and enthusiastic audience in the Music hall Saturday night, took two more long strides in advance of his party which he is leading on the trust question. He attacked the arguments that a remodeling of the tariff duties on all trust-made articles would drive the trusts out of business and leave the field for the small and independent competitors. He declared that the abolition of these duties might ruin the trusts, but would first ruin the small corporations and cause distress to the entire country. He pointed out that two of the most successful trusts, the Standard Oil company and the anthracite coal combination, would not be affected by tariff changes because they enjoy no protection now. His naming the coal trust as a combination that "has control of the anthracite output" was the most striking paragraph in his speech.

The other notable feature of the president's speech had to do with the adoption of a constitutional amendment to give the federal government control of the trusts. He made practically a flat declaration in favor of amending the constitution.

May Arouse Other Powers.

Constantinople, Sept. 22.—The decision of the sultan to permit four Russian torpedo boats, which are in reality topedo boat destroyers, to pass the Dardanelles is considered here to be a violation of an international convention, and action in the matter is expected from the other signatory powers.

ODELL TO BE RENOMINATED.

New York Republicans Likely to Take Definite Stand Against Tariff Revision.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Not in many years had there been two nights prior to the assembling of a New York state Republican convention such placidity as existed last night. Undoubtedly this is because by far the majority of selections for the state ticket have been practically agreed upon. Governor Odell will of course be renominated. The contest for lieutenant governor practically ended last night, when it was announced that the delegations from New York, Westchester and Erie counties had decided to go into the convention pledged for George R. Sheldon.

There had not last night been anything definitely decided on the trust plank, except that while condemning certain combinations of capital there will be no appeal to congress for drastic execution. This statement is on the authority of Mr. Platt, who added that the draft of the plank was not complete. On the tariff question the indications are that a very definite stand will be taken against revision on the ground that the benefit to be gained will be infintesimal as compared with the injury that will be done among industrials and workingmen by an opening of the question of revision.

N. N. Stranahan, collector of the port of New York, said last night: "The plank in the platform endorsing President Roosevelt's administration and his candidacy to succed himself will be as strong as any close adherent of the president can wish for."

THINKS YOUNG WILL SUICIDE.

Captain Titus Believes Murderer of Mrs. Pulitzer Fled to Vicinity of Canarsie, L. I.

New York, Sept. 22.—The search for William Hooper Young, the man wanted for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, whose mutilated body was found floating in the abandoned Morris canal, near Jersey City, Thursday morning last, had, up to a late hour yesterday, been unavailing. The police forces of this and the surrounding boroughs have been bending all energies and running down all clews which come to them to locate Young.

The chief development of the day Sunday came from Brooklyn, and it leads the police to believe that the fugitive has escaped to the vicinity of Canarsie, L. I. Captain Titus, of the detective bureau, is inclined to believe that Young, finding all avenues of final escape shut off, has fled to this spot on the Long Island coast to commit suicide. The captain ordered a special force of detectives to Carnarsie to conduct a thorough search of the neighborhood.

The story of this clew is that late Saturday night a man supposed to have been Young was seen in a lodging house in Brooklyn. When he applied for a room he was told there was none vacant, and he was forced to be satisfied with a chair. Soon afterward he became nervous and arose to his feet. Some of those in the room arose simultaneously. Then the stranger dashed down the back stairs of the hotel to the yard, with some of the lodgers after him. Vaulting the back fence, closely pursued, the fugitive fled up the street. The pursuers, gaining upon him, the stranger halted, drew a revolver and brought the lodgers to a stand. Turning again, he caught sight of a Nostrand avenue car, bound for Fulton street, and raced for it. Before the lodgers came up the car with the fugitive on board was blocks away.

GUARDS AND MOB FIRED SHOTS.

General Gobin Said If There Was Any Violence at Mahonoy City, This Morning, He Would Send Regiment and Gatling Gun There. .. .. ..

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 22.—The mining town of Edwardsville, near here, was the scene of much lawlessness Saturday night and early Sunday morning. A crowd of men, said to be strikers, went in search of a man named James McGuire, who went to work in the mines last week. They fired stones at several houses, broke down the doors of the dwelling where McGuire was supposed to be harbored and committed other depredations. The mob also fired on the deputies at the Edward mine. The officers returned the fire, but no one was wounded. Early yesterday morning three men were arrested, charged with being the ringleaders who threatened the life of McGuire. They gave the names of John Sherbemah, George Streiker and Michael Mone. In default of $1,000 bail they were committed to jail.

Gobin Threatened to Send Soldiers.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 22.—Asked last night if the Eighth regiment would be sent to occupy Mahoney City, General Gobin, in command of the state troops here, replied:

"That all depends on circumstances. If there should be any further outbreaks there, not only a regiment, but a Gatling gun will be sent there. The strikers have been holding up passenger trains and trolley cars, looking for deputies, and soldiers cannot venture into the town without being insulted. The violence that has been rampant in that town for several days must cease, and if there is any disturbance there tomorrow morning a battery of artillery and perhaps a regiment will go there."

YOUNG MAN'S JEALOUS DEED.

Wounded Girl at Conemaugh, Pa., and Then Suicided.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—David M. Goughner, a well-known young man, shot and seriously wounded Miss Leorena Winnebrenner, aged 17 years, near her home in Conemaugh, near this city, Saturday night, and then sent a bullet into his own heart, dying instantly. Jealously and a desire for revenge are given as the causes for the act.

Edward Kayler, who was with her, ran when the fusilade began and escaped injury. He says Goughner fired two shots at him.

At the General hospital last night it was said while Miss Winnebrenner's condition was extremely serious, she may recover.

Dubois, Pa., Sept. 22.—Thomas Russel, of Grampian, Clearfield county, was shot dead yesterday afternoon at that place by a negro named Moses Taylor. Taylor escaped, but was being pursued by a posse of officers and citizens.

The colored man was having some trouble with a small boy and was in the act of chastising him, when Russell tried to rescue the boy. Taylor turned from the boy and pointed a revolver at Russell and fired twice. Neither struck him, however, and Russel seized the revolver, wrenched from the negro and walked away. He had gone but a few yards when Taylor drew another revolver from his pocket and shot Russell through the back.

MINISTER UNFROCKS HIMSELF.

Dramatic Ending of Trial of M. E. Minister, In Iowa—Refused to Live With Wife.

Keokuk, Ia., Sept. 22.—The case of Rev. P. J. Henness, before the Iowa conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, came very dramatically to an end early yesterday. After the trial committee, appointed by Bishop Hamilton and composed of 13 divines, had been in session far into the night, Mr. Henness himself took the stand.

He said it was evident to himself and to his attorneys that he was not to have a fair trial, and handed the parchments of his ordination to the committee, following with his resignation from membership in the church as well as from the ministry. Turning to his wife, who was present, the self-unfrocked minister exclaimed:

"Woman, behold the wreck of a man you have made."

His wife broke down at this dramatic exhibition. The committee on the trial of Mr. Henness immediately closed its session, having lost its jurisdiction of the case by his action in placing himself outside the pale of the church.

Mr. Henness, after maintaining silence stubbornly for a year, said yesterday that the reason he left his wife was because of her continual "nagging," which broke down his health and rendered it impossible for him to do ministerial work. The charge against him before the conference was separation from his wife whom he agreed to support, but refused to live with. No question of immorality was involved.

FIREMAN HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Freight Train Crashed Into Another Near Conemaugh, Pa.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—In a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Conemaugh, last night, in which two freight trains were involved, Fireman George Freeman, of Fitcairn, was instantly killed. His body was dragged for several hundred feet under the engine and horribly mangled. A westbound freight had been held just east of Conemaugh on signals and had received a clear block.

The engineer had just called in his flagman, when an extra, westbound crashed into the rear of the train. All four tracks were blocked for several hours. The wreckage took fire and at a late hour last night was still burning.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

MET DEFEAT AT SALINEVILLE

GOOD GAME AT CHESTER

The Carroll Club Easily Defeated By the Y. M. C. A. On Saturday By a Score of 22 to 2—Winners Made No Errors.

Manager Walsh's team of baseballists in a badly crippled condition left the city early Saturday morning for Salineville where they played the coal miners a rattling good game in the afternoon before an enormous crowd of fans.

The locals lost the game by a score of 5 to 1, but no wonder Maag, with his right arm in a sling, played right field. Could anything else but defeat be expected? And in the seventh Maley, who was holding the diamond hunters down at his will, met with an accident that compelled him to leave the box.

For eight innings the score stood on even terms. In the ninth a wild throw by Emmerling to second, followed by several of the players going straight in the air, gave the game to Salineville. The following lineup was in the battle: Emmerling, catcher; Maley and Barker, pitchers; Winters, first; Webb, second; Davis, third; Barker, short; Chadwick, middle; Trainor, left and Maag right.

The Carroll club base ball team fell easy marks to the second team of the Y. M. C. A. in Chester park on Saturday afternoon, losing the game by a score of 22 to 2. The Y. M. C. A. were certainly playing some and they walked away with the game putting forth scarcely an effort.

It was an errorless game on the part of the winning team and their twirler pitched one of the finest games of the season. He held the Corroll club boys down to six hits. His name is Welch and he bids fair to hold down a salaried position next year.

Groglode, pitcher for the defeated aggregation, was pounded unmercifully giving a total of 18 hits. The score:

Prevention of the Flight of Birds.

To prevent birds from flying without the barbarous and injurious system sometimes practiced of cutting their wings it will be found sufficient to tie together with a thread three or four of the largest feathers of one wing. This destroys the balance, the wings do not act symmetrically in the air, and flight is rendered impossible. Fowls, pigeons, etc., may be kept within bounds in this simple fashion.

GUIDI CONSECRATED.

Ceremonies For New Philippine Apostolic Delegate, Very Important.

WERE CONDUCTED BY RAMPOLLA

Who, Next to Pope, Is Highest Political Personage In Vatican—Prominet Prelates Assisted — Leading Clergymen Present.

Rome, Sept. 22.—The consecration yesterday of Monsignor Guidi, apostolic delegate in the Philippines, as archbishop, which occurred in the church of Santa Maria, in Aquiro, which is owned by the Somaschian fathers, his first instructors, assumed considerable importance, as it was conducted by Cardinal Rampolla, who, after the pope, is the highest political personage in the vatican.

Cardinal Rampolla was assisted by Monsignor Constantini, the papal almoner, and Monsignor Gaspardi, secretary of ecclesiastical affairs, and who also acted as secretary to the commission of cardinals which treated with Governor Taft, of the Philippines, in his negotiations with the vatican concerning the disposition of the friar property in the islands.

The entire diplomatic corps accredited to the vatican, all the generals of the religious orders and a number of prominent friars, Mgr. Macchi, the new papal nuncio in Munich; the mayor and the bisnop of Alatri, Monsignor Guidi's birthplace, were present at the ceremony. The United States was represented by the Rev. J. P. Farrelly, of Nashville, Tenn., who was recently appointed privy chamberlain to the pope.

110 DEAD BODIES COUNTED.

Gloom at Birmingham, Ala., Over Disaster—President Sends Message to Booker Washington.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 22.—A gloom has been cast over the entire community as the people begin to realize the enormity of Friday night's appalling disaster at Shiloh Baptist church. Late Saturday night 110 dead had been counted, and 90 of these have been identified.

The injured negroes are being cared for by various hospitals and private residences.

The undertaking establishments of the city, which prepare the bodies of negroes for burial, have been unable to handle the remains of the victims, and many of the bodies were still scattered over the floors of those places. As fast as the bodies could be dressed and placed in coffins they were moved to the homes of their relatives, and at least 50 funerals were held yesterday.

The Rev. L. R. Price, of New Orleans, whose name appears in the list of dead, was most worshipful grand master of the grand lodge of negro Masons of Louisiana and was well known throughout the United States. He lost his life in an effort to save several women who were being crushed to death beneath the panic stricken crowd in the church. Three times he fought his way into the building and brought out three women. The fourth time he was caught in the crush and before he could extricate himself he died of suffocation.

The following message was received from President Roosevelt Saturday:

Prof. Washington replied:

"Our people are most grateful to you for your words of sympathy in the matter of the terrible calamity which has befallen so many of our race. Everything possible is being done by both white and colored citizens to help. Birmingham city officials have been most thoughtful and generous. The crowd at the meeting was very large, but was perfectly orderly. The disaster grew out of one of those incidents which it was almost impossible to foresee."

FREIGHT STRUCK THEIR TRAIN.

Two Killed and 26 Injured by Accident, In Oklahoma.

Choctaw, O. T., Sept. 22.—An eastbound Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad freight train ran into the rear of the Sells-Downs show train here early Saturday. Two sleeping cars of the show train were completely demolished and many of its occupants were pinioned beneath the wreckage. Two persons were killed and 26 were injured, all but four seriously. All of the casualties were on the show train. The dead are:

Harry Williams.

A negro, unidentified.

The show train was standing on the main track when the accident occurred. The freight engine was not damaged badly and the freight crew was unhurt. The show people blame the freight engineer for the accident and became so demonstrative that he fled.

After the excitement had died down the freight engineer returned. He declared that the lights on the show train were out and that he was unable to see it in the rain and darkness.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Endeavor Social—The Y. P. C. E. of the First Presbyterian church is arranging for a social to be given on the evening of October 2.

Breaking the Peace—Thomas Farmer, of the West End, will be arrested this evening by Officer Aufderheide and taken before the mayor to answer to charge of breaking the peace.

Quarantine Raised—Health Officer Burgess fumigated and raised the quarantine from the homes of George Eisenhuth, Pine street, and John Homan, Fourth street, this morning. Both families have undergone a siege with scarlet fever.

Twin Boys Born—The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Headley in the West End Sunday night and twin boys were born. Despite the efforts of Dr. Hobbs, one of the babies died. The mother and her remaining child are reported as doing well.

Wedded at Oil City — Miss Emma Baker, a niece of George S. Goodwin of this city, and Willard Hall Say, of Crafton, Pa., were the central figures at a fashionable church wedding in Oil City, Pa., last week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baker, prominent in social circles of their home city, and the groom, who holds a responsible position with a large coal company, is also a leader in society.

SERIES OF THREE GAMES

To Be Played By East Liverpool And Rochester, Beginning Next Friday.

To decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and of northeastern Ohio, Manager Walsh's players and that strong team of Rochester have decided to play a series of three games. The first game is to be played in West End park on next Friday afternoon and the second at Rochester on the following day. The third game will be played at the park which receives the largest crowd the first two games. As the games will undobtedly be the hardest fought of the season they will be witnessed by all lovers of the sport in the city.

For the first time this season Manager Walsh will charge admittance to the ladies. It is perfectly right that he should do so. There is not a city east of the Mississippi that ladies are allowed to witness games every day in the week free of charge.

If the fans want to see two of the three games played on local grounds they can do so by all turning out to the game on Friday.

MINERS AND RAILROAD

Project of Developing Mineral Lands Near Guilford, Columbiana County.

A joint stock coal company has been formed which has as one of its objects the opening of the coal fields near Guilford. The officials of the company have decided to build a railroad from Teegarden to Guilford to get the product to market.

The company has purchased, leased and has options on 1,000 acres of coal land in Hanover and Center townships. H. G. Folts was a member of the stock company which was organized, but it is not thought his death will have any effect with the building of the railroad and the operation of the coal fields.

HIT BY AUTOCYCLE

A LITTLE BOY KNOCKED DOWN AND BADLY HURT.

He Was Playing of the Street When the Machine Struck Him. Him.

In the presence of at least 100 citizens, the six-year-old son of J. G. Kaufman, an employe at the Eagle Hardware store, was run down by an auto-cycle at the corner of Sixth streets and Broadway early Saturday evening.

The boy and his younger brother were enroute to their home on Forest street and playing as they walked. When nearly across the street both saw a shining object in the gutter near the sidewalk and simultaneously made a dash for it. Just as he reached down to pick up the coveted object an autocycle, ridden by Samuel McShane, struck him on the back of the head, knocking him with terrific force against the stone curbing.

The little fellow commenced screaming and the blood from a wound inflicted on the top of his head began pouring profusely. Several bystanders hurried to his side and carefully bore him to the office of Dr. E. L. Trimmer, who dressed the wound, and alleviated the suffering.

For several minutes after the accident there was much indignation displayed by the crowd of witnesses. All were up in arms against the reckless rider of the cycle, but he protested that it was not due to his carelessness and the matter was dropped.

WRECKED THE PLATFORM

Rapidly Moving Freight Car Caused Damage At the Freight Station.

Because a freight car was "kicked" down the siding at the freight station during the night, damage to the probable extent of $100 was caused. The track alongside the receiving platform at the freight station is not a long one and it is down grade. During the night a through freight crew had occasion to place a car on this siding, and in so doing the car was "kicked" on the siding at more than usual speed.

The bumper at the end of the track was damaged sometime ago, and then a lot of old ties were placed at the end of the track. The speed of the car last night was so great that it rolled up on these ties, and partially wrecked the covered platform, at the entrance to the freight station. The platform was knocked away from the building by the jar, and the watchman's shanty at the corner of Walnut street also came near being wrecked. The damage will be repaired at once.

At the meeting of the packers, it is stated that the matter was forgotten entirely.

The communication was also presented to the officials of Kilndrawers' local No. 17, which met in Brotherhood hall Saturday evening, and after it was read, it was voted upon, and it was the sense of the meeting that Mr. Duffy remain on the Labor ticket. This vote, it is learned, was unanimous.

A prominent member of one of the largest locals in the city, and a strong Brotherhood member today stated that so far as he knew, the communication was somewhat out of place, inasmuch as it related to politics. It was said by this gentleman that according to the constitution of the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, no matters of a political or religious nature shall be considered at a meeting of a local, and in this case, politics is the sole subject of the communication sent out by the Labor committee. What consideration the communication will receive from the locals meeting this week can only be surmised.

An attempt was made this morning to obtain an expression either from Mr. Duffy or President Hughes, and although several calls were made at the Brotherhood headquarters, the doors were locked, no person being there.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

J. E. Anderson Thrown From a Buggy In a Collision And Hurt.

While driving along Pennsylvania avenue this afternoon with several friends J. E. Anderson, hotelkeeper, collided with a wagon, loaded with stone. The collision was so great that Mr. Anderson was thrown from the buggy and was seriously injured about the back and head.

He was removed to the office of Dr. R. J. Marshall.

The Oldest Death Sentence.

The oldest death sentence extant is found in the Amherst papyri containing the trials of state criminals in Egypt, about 1300 B. C. The criminal in this case was found guilty of magic, which his judges state "was worthy of death, which he carried out, and he killed himself," apparently by stabbing, as in the Japanese "hari kari," which is also of very ancient origin.

Among less civilized peoples drowning would seem to have been the earliest method of legal punishment, for about 450 B. C. the Britons killed their criminals by throwing them into a quagmire. Of other than capital punishments the oldest recorded comes from Chaldea, where it was enacted some 6,000 years ago that when any one maimed a slave "the hand that thus offended should pay him each day a measure of corn."

FOOT BALL TEAM

East Liverpool Has One Composed of the Very Best Material.

East Liverpool is to have a foot ball team which, from all appearances, will equal if not excel any team in this vicinity. A glance at the lineup will show that it is to be composed of men who have devoted their time to athletics in some form, and many of them are known throughout this section as good foot ball players.

The team will be under the management of J. C. Walsh, Jr., and have engaged West End park, where they will begin practice next Wednesday.

A Couple of Local Sports Indulged in a Fight Which Was a Fierce One.

A few select lovers of the game of "hit and get away" were treated to an able exhibition of the manly art in the packing shed of a down town pottery last Saturday morning.

Two well known young amateurs have tried, vocally, for some time, to decide which was the better man, and when a party of friends hung up a purse of $50 they decided to get together.

The affair was pulled off in a purely non-professional manner, and as both parties are connected with institutions where prize fighting is not approved their names are kept very quiet.

The fight lasted but a short while and was fast and furious. Knowledge of the game was displayed by both parties and the winner earned his money.

"Old Patch," the Forger.

It was about the year 1784 that the first forgeries on a very large scale were discovered by the Bank of England, and these were done by one man, known from his favorite disguise as "Old Patch." By a large issue of notes spread over a long period he defrauded the bank of more than £200,000, and, having only one confidant, his mistress, great difficulty was experienced in tracing the source of the forgeries. "Old Patch" in his checkered career of lottery office keeper, stockbroker and gambler had given banknotes careful study and acquired a knowledge of engraving, paper making and printing. He made his own ink, manufactured the paper and printed the notes on a private press. In various disguises he hired boys from the streets to present the notes. Suspicion was at last aroused by his movements. He was thrown into prison, where he cheated the law by hanging himself in his cell.—London Chronicle.

A Telling Retort.

Fault was found, says the Christian Endeavor World, with the way in which the shorthand writers reported the speeches in a legislative body. They retaliated by giving the speech of one of the members exactly as he made it, with the following result:

"The reporters—ought not to—the reporters ought not to be the ones to judge of what is important—not to say what should be left out—but—the member can only judge of what is important. As I—as my speeches—as the reports—as what I say is reported sometimes, no one—nobody can understand from the reports—what it is—what I mean. So—it strikes me—it has struck me certain matters—things that appear of importance—are sometimes left out—omitted. The reporters—the papers—points are reported—I mean—to make a brief statement—what the paper thinks of interest—is reported."

19TH YEAR. NO. 224. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1902. TWO CENTS.

The Homes of James Logan, D. E. M'Nichol and John Wyman Ransacked by Burglars.

Robbers with nerve almost unparalleled broke into the homes of three of the most prominent families in the city at an early hour Sunday morning completely ransacking each, but strange to say made their departure with practically nothing for their daring feats.

Considering the fact that they had one of the best opportunities ever offered a band of thieves to carry away hundreds of dollars worth of jewelry and silverware the spoilation is rendered too mysterious for even a connoisseur of crime to unravel.

The homes entered were: James Logan's, located on Sixth street, two doors below Monroe; John Wyman's, next door west, and D. E. McNicol's, Monroe and Fifth streets.

From the particulars gained by a visit to the scenes yesterday afternoon, the McNicol residence was without a doubt the first one pillaged. There were at least two men connected with the depredation and possibly more. At a few minutes before nine o'clock Mamie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNicol, was aroused from her slumber by the sounds of muffled footsteps in the dining room. She, as does the entire family sleeps upstairs. Feeling certain that she was not mistaken in her hearing she went to the bedroom of her parents and awakened them. They, thinking that their daughter was simply suffering from nervousness, commanded that she again retire, but to satisfy her mind all listened closely for another sound below. They could hear nothing and all settled into sleep again until morning when, upon descending to the first floor, it became quite evident that the daughter was not mistaken in her fears but rather had been awakened in exactly the manner that she had tried to impress.

Robbers had been there, and for at least thirty minutes. Every room was turned topsy-turvy. The drawers in every cupboard, sideboard, closet, with but one exception, and there are quite a number of them in the several rooms, had been pulled out and thoroughly searched. The contents of the majority of them were distributed in heaps on the floors. A sideboard in

THE ST. LOUIS MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

A number of the bribe givers, as well as most of the bribe takers, exposed by Circuit Attorney Folk in his investigation of the St. Louis municipal frauds, have been indicted. The confession of J. K. Murrell, former speaker of the house of delegates, has enabled the authorities to clear up a good many points which they have hitherto been unable to solve.

YOUNG LADY'S FALL DOWN FRONT STEPS MAY END FATALLY

Miss Mabel Mitchell Trips Upon a Rug and Receives Very Severe Injuries.

As the result of a terrible accident, Miss Mabel Mitchell lies at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, on Third street, suffering with concussion of the brain and her life in extreme danger.

The accident occurred on last Saturday morning, and since that time Miss Mitchell's life has been hanging by a thread. Her home is located in plain view of the C. & P. railroad, and it was while endeavoring to wave a goodbye to her mother, who left on the 8 o'clock train for Cleveland to visit relatives that she met with the misfortune.

Hearing the approach of the train Miss Mitchell ran from the rear of her home to the front porch and when near its edge her feet became entangled in a rug, throwing her forward with great violence down a flight of 12 steps.

In the rapid and unexpected fall Miss Mitchell received a horrible gash over her right eye and numerous bruises over her body.

Not able to make her condition known, being unconscious as the result of the awful blow on her head, she lay at the bottom of the steps several minutes before she was noticed by a member of the household. A few neighbors were immediately called, and in a comatose condition she was removed to a bed, after which Dr. F. M. Laughlin was summoned.

The physician soon arrived at the bedside and made a hasty examination pronouncing her wounds most dangerous. The gash in the head is almost two inches in length and the frontal bone is crushed in a half inch. It required six stitches to close the cut. Her body in many other places was cut and bruised, and it is thought that she is injured internally. Dr. Laughlin stated yesterday that the gash in her head was the worst that he has ever seen in his many years of experience, and that it is possible that it will result fatally.

Miss Mitchell is 20 years of age and a girl of unusual accomplishments. For several years she has been employed as a trained nurse in an eastern hospital. She came home a week ago on a short vacation.

It Is Said the Brotherhood Constitution Forbids Consideration of Duffy Circular.

Circulars have been received in this city by secretaries of almost every trades local, and especially by the officials of all locals affiliated with the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, in which it is asked for an expression as to whether Thomas J. Duffy, secretary of the Bortherhood, shall remain a candidate for congress upon the Labor ticket, which first nominated him, or whether he shall forsake that party's wishes, and accept the nomination for congress from the Democrats.

The communications were received in this city late last week, and only those locals meeting upon Friday and Saturday evenings had a chance to have the communications presented. It has been learned, from a source that is considered most reliable, that while a communication of this sort was received by kilnmen's local No. 9, and by Packer's local No. 25, nothing was done with it.

In the case of the Kinlmen's local No. 9, it is averred that the communication was kept on the desk of the secretary during the entire evening and

CROWDS WILL BE AT AKRON MEETING

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Sept. 22.—A large crowd will attend the Republican campaign opening at Akron next Saturday. The state capital will be fully represented. The Buckeye Republican club, of which Zach Tetlow, an attache of the deaf and dumb asylum and a former resident of Washingtonville, Columbiana county, is a member, will attend in a body. Tetlow is on the committee on arrangements. Elihu B. Root, secretary of war, has wired the Republican committee his formal acceptance of the invitation to be one of the orators at the meeting. Governor Nash will preside and addresses will also be made by Senators Foraker and Hanna. The latter's special train tour of the state will begin immediately after the opening. Foraker will likewise make a great many speeches. He has postponed his contemplated trip to Porto Rico in order to take an active part in the campaign.

The sub-committee of the house code committee, after examining the franchise laws have reached the conclusion that there should be some franchise legislation enacted at this session. A number of sections were found to be clothed in ambiguous language which might cause much litigation, and in the committee's judgment, to preclude this, the old laws should be re-enacted, with the questionable parts cut out. Republicans in the senate favor franchise at this session and think that such grants should not run beyond 21 years. Senator Hanna is said to approve the changes made in the Nash code by the house committee. These

Police Made a Big Haul at Terry Carman's Place Saturday Night.

CHUCK-LUCK PLAY ENDED

By a Raid on a Back Room in Smoky Row—Two Men Who Abused And Overdrove a Team of Horses Found It Costly.

Many are the boys that spent Sunday behind the bars of the city jail The majority of them walzed into the presence of the mayor this morning to the tune of $5.60. However, a number of them chose music of a higher class and willingly paid accordingly.

Terry Carman's gambling rooms were running at full blast on Saturday night when Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Morris quietly gained an entrance, and before the gamekeepers and the victims realized what was doing the entire bunch was under arrest. The seller of the chips and the director of the big wheel stood good for their understudies numbering 15 in all. They gave the following as their names: Henry Homer, Joe Laird, Bert Faulk, Lou Brown, George Woodward, Harry Halley, Ben Edwards, Dutch Hines, Charles Spears, George Williams, John Thorn, Richard Wright, John Denny, Will Briggs and Edward Gates. Each man will contribute $3 and costs. The proprietor will be let down with $25 and costs.

Armed to the teeth Chief Thompson and Officer Dunn made a raid on a back room located on Smoky Row at about 10 o'clock on Saturday night and as a result caught a chuck-a-luck game in operation. Lou McIntosh was presiding and J. E. Mohler and Jack Horner attempting to best the game. McIntosh will ante up $10 and costs, while the two suckers will dig for $2 and costs.

Because they drove two horses belonging to J. C. McQuilken until the animals were almost ready to drop from over-exertion and because by careless driving they allow the rig to be overturned and partially smashed

YOUNG WOMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

Miss Maud Miller, Formerly of This City, Struck by a Train at Sebring.

Miss Maud Miller, aged 23 years, formerly of this city, was run down at Sebring by passenger train No. 9 this morning and instantly killed.

The train was running 2 hours late owing to the blockade at Jack's Run, and was consequently speeding at a great rate, making it impossible for the engineer to apply the brakes in time to prevent the terrible accident.

It is said that Miss Miller had started to cross the tracks when she saw the approching train and becoming bewildered stood motionless.

Her head and the entire upper part of her body were mangled horribly.

Miss Miller resided in this city for many months, working in the decalcomania department at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery. Three months ago she resigned her position and went to Sebring where she secured employment in a decorating shop.

She is survived by a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, a sister Blanche, and two brothers, George and Walter, all residing at Carrollton.

REPORTED ARREST

Simpson, Reported Suspect, Was in Steubenville Jail at Last Accounts.

According to statements made by Elmer S. Good, of Chester, this afternoon, John Simpson, supposed to be implicated in the Irondale postoffice robbery, was arrested at Middle Run shortly before noon today by a secret service officer. Good also states that Simpson was brought to this city and placed in jail and was to be taken to Irondale on the afternoon train, and that he arrived in Chester last night. Officer Good also made the statement to several other parties.

Mayor Davidson said he knew nothing of the matter, as did also Chief of Police Hiram Allison, of Chester.

James Sherwood, alias John Simpson, suspected of being implicated in the postoffice robbery at Irondale about one week ago, was arrested at Crystal park, Canton, last week, by Sergeant Riblet and Officer Patterson and lodged in the city prison. A charge of being a suspicious character was placed against him and he was sent to the Irondale authorities. The officers believe that Sherwood is one of the men wanted for the Irondale affair and that he already has a criminal record. From Irondale Simpson, who is said to have a bad record, was taken to jail at Steubenville.

He is also suspected of being the man, who, at Salineville, committed the robbery at William Burns' livery stable, also that the Slope mine, and the dastardly theft at the home of the Misses Johnson, near Summitville. Authorities are looking up his record.

Licensed to Wed.

CASH BOX TAKEN

Money Taken While Its Owner Was In a Second Street Store Saturday Evening.

David O'Hanlon, the Pleasant Heights dairyman, stepped into a Second street store Saturday evening, and when he returned found his cash box missing from his milk wagon and the receptacle has as yet failed to turn up.

It contained about $40 in change. O'Hanlon did his weekly collecting on Saturday and had almost finished his rounds when the robbery occured. He had not counted the money in the box and is not certain as to the exact amount it contained.

Two young boys, both of whom reside on Second street, are suspected of having committed the theft, though a third one is partially implicated. The youngsters were seen in the act of taking the cash by the lad who became connected with the matter, by accepting hush money, though he is the one who, it is said, let out the information which will in all probability lead to the apprehension of the guilty ones.

SUIT AGAIN ON

Case of McGarry Bros. Against Mrs. Hawkins Being Tried Today.

The case of McGarry Bros. against Mrs. Etta Hawkins, which was continued by 'Squire McCarron two weeks ago, came up for trial again this morning, and it is likely will command the attention of the court until late this evening.

McGarry Bros. allege that Mrs. Hawkins owes them $50 as a commission on selling a piece of her property located at the corner of West Market street and Basil avenue to Benjamin McKinnon.

CHARGED WITH THE THEFT OF A LADY'S POCKETBOOK

John Smith, a scale adjuster, who hails from Parkersburg, and who spent several days in Wellsville working at his trade, was arrested on Market street last evening at about 9 o'clock by Officer Dawson and later taken to Wellsville to answer to a charge of stealing a pocketbook containing $22 from Miss Kathleen Whitlock last Friday evening.

Smith, when arrested, swore that he was not guilty of any crime, and stated that he would have no difficulty in proving that he was not the man wanted.

It is said he was a little the worse for drink when taken in charge and his tongue flower pretty fast. "Instead of me being guilty of stealing money from any person, some one is guilty of doing that with me," said Smith. "On Saturday night I was inveigled into a saloon, Stella Mayers', I think, and after my abductors had succeeded in getting me drunk they toted me to the rear of the saloon and laid me down behind a pile of lumber. While sleeping there they went through my pockets and stole about $50. They then placed my pocketbook in my pocket, first filling it with old paper." The man's story was given no credence by the officer.

Smith was arrested by Officer Dawson and turned over to Officer Davis, of Wellsville, who placed him aboard a Wellsville car at the Diamond. When the officer and his prisoner stepped inside the car, Smith, who appeared to feel his position keenly, dropped into a rear seat. Davis ordered him to move up to the front end of the car of passengers as much as possible and the prisoner remonstrated saying that he wished to avoid the gaze Davis then seized him and dragged him through the car to the front seat.

Paul Kruger and George Pitchard will have to pay $12.50 to the liveryman and the costs attached to the arrest of Kruger. He was landed last evening by Officer Dunn and other one would have spent the night in jail had he been located. No charge was placed against either, and they were dismissed after making good with McQuilken.

In company with two noted characters of the East End they left the city early yesterday morning and drove the horses until 10 o'clock in the evening without giving them food. When the animals were returned to the stable they were exhausted and the liveryman was justly angered. He states that the next time that such treatment is given his horses he will prosecute the inhuman men to the full extent of the law.

Officers Woods and Betteridge were summoned to the old cemetery and found H. C. McDade and William Smith having a drunken fight. They were fined $2 and costs.

Harry Mensinger, a farmer of Beaver county, was arrested by Officer Fisher while helpless in his wagon bound for home. His fine was $5.60.

Thomas Ryan, arrested by Dawson; J. M. Allen, by Dunn; Samuel Martin by Saulsberry; Bill Clendenning, by Fisher; Rose Densmore, by Mahoney, and C. O. Dorrell, by Mahoney, all charged with drunkenness, were fined $1 and costs.

SADLY OUT OF GEAR

Was the C. & P. Schedule Owing to a Freight Wreck Near Allegheny.

The C. & P. schedule was thrown sadly out of gear this forenoon by a big smash of freight cars at Jack's run, near Allegheny. The wreckage covered the four tracks of the Ft. Wayne railroad. The mail train due in this city from Pittsburg at 7:51 did not arrive until after 11 o'clock.

It is reported here that nobody was hurt in the wreck.

TRIED TO BREAK IN

Were Frightened Away Before They Could Effect an Entrance.

The story of an attempted burglary which, had it been a success, would have resulted in the loss of thousands of dollars, came to light this morning.

On Thursday night of last week a bold attempt to enter the Dollar Savings bank was made. Cashier Harry T. Hall made the discovery on Friday morning. He saw a number of fine snavings laying under the door step on Broadway and upon further investigation found that some one had been tampering with the door. The screen door was broken open and the inside door, which is locked from the inside, was cut in numerous places.

The door is one that has no keyhole on the outside and no knob. It is supposed that the robber became frightened while at his work and fled.

Chief Thompson has been notified of the deed and is on the lookout for suspicious appearing persons.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEWS FROM PEORIA.

The plant of the Crown Pottery company, at Peoria, is working rather slow at present, the glost kilnmen making but seven days a pay. A few weeks ago a crown of one of the glost kilns fell in, and this damage has not been repaired. It is expected that this kiln will be ready to place inside of a week.

Walter McKeone, a dishmaker at this plant, who came here from East Liverpool several months ago, broke the thumb of his right hand, and has been unable to work. The accident happened four weeks ago, while McKeone was playing a game of baseball.

Samuel Thomas, who has been employed as a dishmaker at this plant, has taken a similar position at New Castle and will leave Peoria this week. Mr. Massey will take the position made vacant.

It is reported about the shop that Byron Foutts, who has charge of the packing shed at this plant, and who was formerly located at the Dresden, in East Liverpool, is much disappointed about Joe Farmer, whom Foutts sent for three weeks ago to come to Peoria to take a position. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Farmer, and it is believed that he does not intend to go to Peoria.

Patrick Rafferty is working out his notice, and will soon leave for Akron.

TRADE IS STRONG.

Business is unusually brisk at the potteries. Generally they are crowding manufacturing, and the most important consideration, beyond making a good grade of ware, is the prompt completion and shipment of the increasing orders upon their books. The demands for staple dinner and toilet not only continue strong, but those for specialties are enlarging from day to day, requiring a greater proportion of the pottery capacity and attention. Visiting buyers are relatively few, the mails continuing to furnish the liberal trade that is now coming in. Reports from nearly every quarter are now favorable. Crops are all practically beyond any calamity and there seems to be nothing in sight to restrict the present liberal demands for pottery and all lines of manufacture except limited capacity for production. Quite a number of large orders are reported to have been turned down the past week by various potteries here and over the west—some owing to time demand, others to price limit.

WILL BUILD A NEW KILN.

Information has been given out that an important addition will be built to the Edwin M. Knowles pottery at Chester soon. The work is to begin as soon as possible. The company has been doing such a large business during the past year that the stockholders have been compelled to increase the capacity of the plant. This will be done at once by the erection of an additional kiln. It is said that the contract for the stone for the foundation for this kiln has been let, and that the kiln will be commenced within two weeks. This will give the plant a capacity of six kilns.

INCREASING THE PLANT.

The Summit China company, of Akron, who opened with three kilns last year, have commenced a fourth and have commenced on another, to be finished within 30 days. They report business to be satisfactory this fall, giving them full regular employment. The report that Mr. Cook, who lately withdrew from the Akron China company, had bought the old burned Specialty plant and would rebuild and start another ware pottery seems to be without foundation.

AN AGRREMENT REACHED.

Committees representing the National Brotherhood of Operative potters and also the Western Manufacturing Potters' association met in joint session in the rooms of the Potters' club on Fifth street Saturday night, at which time the dispute of the dispute of the Brotherhood, relative to placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln was finally settled. An agreement was reached, and at another joint meeting which will be held later in the week, the agreement will be signed by representatives of both sides. It was stated this morning that the settlement calls for placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln, four saggers high, and if more flat ware is desired in the first ring, extra compensation shall be given. This verbal agreement will be placed in writing, and the meeting later in the week, it will be signed, and the agreement will then become a fixture. The agreement will likely become operative within a few days. A manufacturer said today that the settlement would either be approved or rejected at a meeting Wednesday night.

AGED POTTER DEAD.

The death of William C. Finney occurred at his home at 223 Johnston street, East Akron, Friday evening. About six months ago Mr. Finney suffered a stroke of paralysis and had been ill ever since. It finally, together with old age, caused his death. Mr. Finney had until recent years been engaged as a potter in the East Akron shops. He was born in Maine March 30, 1825. He has been a resident of Akron for 35 years.

HENDERSON REMAINS FIRM

He Endorses Speech Made by President Roosevelt, at Cincinnati.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—David B. Henderson, speaker of the national house of representatives, passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to Atlantic City, where he will join Mrs. Henderson. Before leaving for the east Speaker Henderson reiterated his decision to retire from the congressional race in Iowa, denied any intention of "abdicating" his present position until his term of office shall have expired, and declared himself in perfect accord with the tariff views of President Roosevelt, as enunciated in his Cincinnati speech. He said in part:

"I have spent 20 years of my life fighting for protection for American industries and American labor, and I shall not be a party to any juggling at this late day. President Roosevelt's tariff views, set forth in his Cincinnati speech, coincide with my own. There is no difference in our belief. His speech was a strong one and it has my hearty indorsement."

DECIDED AGAINST HUFF.

Dauphin County, P a., Court Sustains Showalter s Protest.

Harrisburg, Sept. 22.—The contested election case from the Twenty-second congressional district, composed of Butler and Westmoreland counties was decided in favor of the contestant by the Dauphin county court Saturday night. No opinion was handed down, but the court announced that one would be written and filed later.

The contest was instituted by Congressman Joseph B. Showalter, of Butler, who claimed that the certificate of Colonel George F. Huff, of Greensburg, who claimed the Republican nomination, was invalid for the reason that the alleged compact between Butler and Westmoreland counties had not been properly ratified by the county committees, the evidence showing that there had not been a quorum of the joint committee present when the compact was alleged to have been ratified.

Huff was nominated at a conference at Pittsburg on Sept. 11, in which Butler county refused to participate because Westmoreland insisted upon eight conferees under the compact and would allow Butler but three. Showalter was the choice of Butler county, and the court's decision leaves the district without a Republican candidate.

No Charge.

A group of representatives were one day telling stories of their experience in court when one of them contributed this incident from Arizona, says a western newspaper:

Out in one of the border towns a case was in progress, one of the lawyers being an eastern man who was new to the country.

"Will you charge the jury, your honor?" he asked when the evidence had been submitted.

"Oh, no; I guess not," replied the judge. "I never charge them anything. They don't know much anyhow, and I let 'em have all they can make."

A Costly Bible.

The most costly book in the Royal library at Stockholm is a Bible. It is no wonder that it is considered precious, for there is not another like it in the world. In weight and size alone it is unique. It is said that 160 asses' skins were used for its parchment leaves. There are 309 pages of writing, and each page falls but an inch short of being a yard in length. The width of the leaves is twenty inches. The covers are solid planks four inches thick.

FATHER KILLED HIS CHILD.

Abducted It From Mother and Shot It, When Close Pressed--Committed Suicide.

Springfield, Ills., Sept. 22.—Harry O. Williams, agent for the Franklin Life Insurance company, Saturday afternoon abducted his 2-year-old son Glen, from its mother at Auburn, Ills. and when pursued by officers got out of his buggy, placed the child in the road and blew out its brains and then killed himself. Williams became dissolute last spring and his wife, being ill, was taken home by her father, J. A. Harney.

Williams appeared at the Harney residence Saturday afternoon and asked his wife to take the child and go away with him. She refused, when he threatened the wife's life and took the child by force. Miss Lena Harney, his sister-in-law, caught the horse's reins and tried to prevent his leaving, but he struck her with a whip, and, as she still persisted, he drew a revolver and compelled her to let go the reins. He then drove away. Officers were called and when Williams saw them approaching he committed the double murder. Williams was short in his accounts with the insurance company and frequently had quarreled with his wife.

REV. P. A. BAKER PREACHED IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY.

Encouraged By the Votes Thus Far Taken Under the Beal Law.

Rev. P. A. Baker, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-saloon league, presided over a union meeting of the East End churches at the Second U. P. church, at 4 o'clock yesterday evening.

The attendance was unusually large, and the address was listened to with great interest. Mr. Baker has spoken in this city on several occasions, and his efforts in the temperance cause are appreciated by East Liverpool people.

"During the last meetings of the last four general assemblages of the State of Ohio," said the speaker, "the State League has been before that body with four different and distinct local option bills.

"We have met defeat in all but the last one—the Beal law—and we are now on the way to victory. We are peculiarly fortunate in having the provisions of the Nash code modified so that it will protect this law and there is no danger that it will not be in force for the next two years."

Rev. Mr. Baker continued his address by stating the number of towns that had been voted dry under this new local option law. He said that during the four months of its enactment there had been 77 towns, of from 500 to 1100 inhabitants, voted dry. If the number of saloons that had been put out of the business were given 30 feet of space, and each placed side by side, they would reach for one and one-half miles.

"In regard to East Liverpool I am not at liberty to say just when an attempt will be made to take a vote in this city. I might say, however, that it will not be before next summer. I know that it is harder to vote the saloons out in a larger town than it is in a smaller one." Mr. Baker preached a brief sermon at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

ABSENT 20 YEARS

J. C. Orin, of New Mexico, Is Visiting His Brother in the East End.

After being absent from the city for almost 20 years; in fact, 20 years next April, J. C. Orin, of Raton, N. M., arrived in the East End this morning at 5 o'clock, where he will remain about a month visiting his brother, W. A. Orin, of First avenue. Mr. Orin is employed as a machinist in the machine shop of the Santa Fe Railway company at Raton. He left his family in Kansas City, where Mrs. Orin will remain some time visiting relatives.

Mr. Orin has a 60-days' leave of absence. When he arrived in Wellsville this morning he recognized that small town, and to his brother in the East End said that he did not notice any change in the town. As to East Liverpool, he did not know the city. Owing to the early hour of his arrival he took a walk about the business part of the city and was surprised to notice how many improvements had been made since he was last here. Mr. Orin has many friends in the city, Robert A. Orin, chief engineer at the K., T. & K. pottery, being a brother.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Befell Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, While Alighting From a Car.

Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, met with an accident Saturday evening that is causing her much pain. She had been spending a few days at Wellsburg, visiting friends, and returned to East Liverpool Saturday evening. Getting off the train at the station, she boarded an east bound car, and went to the East End. The car was stopped on Ohio avenue, and in alighting Mrs. Martin stepped into a small gully. Not thinking the distance from the step to the ground was so great, she severly sprained her right ankle, and this morning was unable to bear her weight on that foot.

It is feared that some of the smaller bones of the foot are broken, but this cannot be determined just yet. The accident was an unfortunate one, and could have been prevented if both sides of the raer platform had been open.

IN BOYS' ATTIRE

East End Girls Went Masquerading, And the Police Will Watch for Them.

Two well known young girls of the East End, thinking they would have some fun on Friday evening dressed themselves in male clothing, and for a few hours roamed about the streets of the suburb in an unsuspected manner. During their rambles they called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin on St. George street, and asked if they had room for two boarders. They were told that they could not be accommodated, but they were undaunted in their efforts to have a good time and proceeded to call at several other homes in that locality, inquiring for board.

The girls are employed in an East End pottery, and their masquerading in men's attire is known to only a very few in the East End. The affair leaked out Saturday afternoon and more than one person in the East End is talking of it. If the experiment is repeated they are likely to be arrested.

FOOTBALL ACCIDENTS

Several Players Slightly Hurt During the Progress of a Foot Ball Game.

During the foot ball game at Columbian park Saturday afternoon several of the players were more or less injured. It is evident, however, that Harry Herbert was injured the worst. He was playing with the East End team and during the game fell on his left arm and this morning he could raise his arm but a few inches.

Lewis Marsh was also injured, while Edward and John Mountford, two players on the Dixonville team were also slightly hurt. None of the injuries will prove serious.

Free Methodist Meetings.

The Free Methodists held their first meetings in the Philes' club dance rooms in the Larkins & Ferguson building Friday and Saturday evenings and two interesting meetings are said to have been held. The attendance was quite large. It cannot be told just at this time how long the meetings will continue. The officials of this church have not completed arrangements for the purchase of the lot in Helena, but it is thought the matter will be closed up this week.

The Cable Laid.

The United Power company on Saturday evening completed the task of burying alternating current cable in the Ohio river from the south side of Babb's island to the West Virginia shore. The exclusive announcement that this work was being done appeared in this paper a few days ago, and the work was completed earlier than was expected. The cable is buried about two feet under the bed of the river. The cable is armour clad and is 2,000 feet in length.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.

Members of the Prohibition Alliance, of the East End, have arranged for a large meeting tomorrow evening in the Protected Home Circle hall. An interesting musical program has been arranged, and matters of importance will be talked over. Later in the evening refreshments will be served. This is the first time the Alliance has met in a hall, the meetings being generally held in the homes of the members.

Goes to Alabama.

Two Cases of Scarlet Fever.

Two cases of scarlet fever were reported in the East End this morning, and both were from the same locality. Those who are ill with this disease are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fisher, of High street, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Putnam, also of High street. The children have been ill but a few days, and the homes are now quarantined.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Richard Chambers, of the East End has returned home after a delightful visit to Atlantic City and other eastern cities.

John Kenna, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been visiting friends in the East End for several weeks, returned to his home this morning.

A meeting of the Ladies' society of the Erie street M. E. church will be held next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. Orcutt on Boyce street.

The Ohio river is now lower than it has been during the summer and can now be forded. In fact several teams forded the river this morning, and by so doing the drivers saved money in bridge toll.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will be held this evening in the church on Virginia avenue. Matters of business is all that is to be considered.

The regular quarterly communion service was observed at the Second U. P. church yesterday morning, and during the service three persons united with the church, two by certificate and one on profession of faith. The service was largely attended and was most interesting.

Fish Proverbs.

"I have other fish to fry" one says in declining a task. "A pretty kittle of fish," says another in designating a pretty bad mess. The "kittle" is the tackle of the fish boom, which may easily get into a sad snarl. "There are other fish in the sea," says the rejected suitor. "Mute as a fish," "Dead as a herring," "As uneasy as a fish out of water," "To fish for compliments," are among the best known figurative expressions referring to the finny tribe. "Very like a whale" we may refer at least to Shakespeare's time ("Hamlet," iii, 2). "White as whalebone" was coined when walrus ivory was taken for whale's bone. "The shark flies the feather" is a sailor's saying, indicating the fact that this voracious fish will not touch a bird. The use of the term "land shark" is not confined to seamen by any means. Shakespeare makes use of another nautical expression in "Twelfth Night," i, 8.

True Literature.

We are inclined on the whole to believe that the stimulus to literary production exists within and not without the man. It is not external circumstances, poverty or riches, sickness or health, greatness or humbleness, that determine the productions or output of genius. It is the characteristics of the man that determine not what he shall learn or what he shall think, but what he shall do. A stimulus from without, such as poverty, may start production, of course, but that is merely the physical awakening of a disposition that in any circumstances would have been awakened in some way at some time. True literature is the voice of the soul calling from the windows of the house of clay in response to those things of life that touch the nature of the soul that speaks.—London Spectator.

A Languid Japanese Lady.

In a recent address in Tokyo a prominent Japanese educator said: "The indolence of Japanese ladies is something amazing. I know a daughter of a certain peer, but a brand new one, and this young lady's indolence is really beyond the idea of ordinary mortals. She will not even open her mouth of herself. As soon as the time to retire to her bed arrives she issues her order, 'Now I will retire,' and at once three or four maids spread the underquilts, help her, or, rather, make her, for she simply stands like a doll, to change her clothes, and at last the girl, swaddled in her night garment, is put to bed just like a person suffering from a serious illness, and so the poor thing goes to sleep and releases her maids from their trouble till the morning, when the daily routine is resumed. First of all she issues to the maids waiting in her anteroom this extraordinary order, 'I shall get up now,' and then the process exactly the reverse of that of the night before is forthwith commenced by the girls. Day after day this routine is gone through, and the spoiled child of the proud upstart peer forces herself from her mistaken notion as to dignity to lead the life of an invalid and to cripple the normal development of her body."—Chicago News.

Like Father, Like Son.

"I'm determined to call the dear little fellow Marion," said Mrs. Henpeck.

"But think, my dear," protested Mr. Henpeck, pere, "if he should grow up, like me, to marry a—er—strong woman and push a baby coach himself and wash dishes, how easy it would be for people to change Marion to Mary Ann."—Philadelphia Press.

Love In the Museum.

"Will nothing move you?" pleaded the ardent wild man, who was as adept at lovemaking as he was at eating raw beef.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. America has reached the highest commercial industrial development it ever had under the existing tariff laws. If this is not an argument against revision, where is one to be found? Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech, made the following statement: "We have established a vastly higher standard of living in America than in any other country on earth. Comparing class with class, American artisans with foreign artisans, American clerks with foreign clerks, and American day laborers with foreign day laborers, our people live in better homes than do the people of any other country. And the reason lies in the fact that the American toiler, in whatsoever field, receives better compensation, and, therefore, becomes a much larger consumer, and, being the largest consumer in the world, he affords his brother American toiler the best market in the world." These are truths that nobody can deny. The policy of protection has brought these conditions about. Foolish indeed would the workingmen be to put into power representatives of a party who would demorialize industries, cheapen wages and carry us back to the dark days of the Wilson tariff.

There is a congressman named Snooks who represents—or, more properly speaking, misrepresents—the Fifth Ohio district, who is trying hard to attract attention. Snooks on the stump is predicting a revolution against wealth in this country, to rival the French revolution in bloodshed and horror. What he bases his prediction upon is rather indefinite. The gentleman is simply ranting. Wealth is the foundation of our national prosperity and greatness. It is the desideratum of all who toil. There may be occasional instances where fortunes are made dishonestly, but the wealth so acquired is seldom enduring. The majority of men who become wealthy start as poor boys. If they gain millions they do so by their industry, intelligence and brains. The country contains very few misers. Those who have money keep it employed. Those who live by wages are intelligent enough to know that a war on wealth would be a blow at their own interests. A congressman who has so little sense as to thing otherwise should resign his seat and keep quiet.

Speaking of the Democratic congressional nomination of the Eighteenth district, the Mansfield News observes: "The zeal of the Democracy in the cause of union laber, it will be observed, is inversely proportional to the chances of union labor or of the Democracy to win. You never hear of the Democrats in a strongly Democratic district showing any special favors toward labor candidates, and if the Eighteenth Ohio district were strongly Democratic, instead of being normally over 6,000 Republican, the Democrats would have no use for a labor candidate." But the workingmen who will be fooled into lending aid and comfort to their enemies are few in number.

Senator Cockerell, of Missouri, who was a free silver man before Bryan could talk, said recently concerning the increased production of gold: "The effect of this increase has been a rise in prices, and industries have revived and prosperity has been brought in." He further says in his speech that it is neither wise nor judicious at present to urge the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Conservative and prominent Democrats generally are doubtless of Senator Cockerell's opinion, though very few of them have the courage to say so.

The National Dressmakers' association will hereafter endeavor to find husbands for worthy seamstresses who are unable to conclude matrimonial negotiations without help. But where does it find that sort of timid dressmakers?

The Cleveland Leader is zealously booming Congressman Burton for the speakership of the house. It has been demonstrated time and again that the right man for a prominent office can always be found in Ohio.

Democratic papers have much to say about the president's "indiscreet utterances." The president, however, continues to speak his mind. He is talking sense, and not to please Democrats.

George Fred Williams continues to support free silver in Massachusetts. Yet people laugh at some of the benighted citizens of the Tennessee hills who are still voting for Andrew Jackson.

This country is importing foreign steel in whole cargoes, and yet every steel mill in the United States is running at its fullest capacity. And the steel market is the barometer of business.

The question what to do with ex-presidents is bothering our South American friends. They find it hard to keep them from becoming revolutionists.

Kentucky law can prevent prize fights. In time it may be able to suppress the other and more deadly kind.

Congressman Cannon's speakership boom starts off with a loud report.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR

Will Be Celebrated the World Over On Wednesday Next.

The Hebrew new year, Rosh Hashono, will be celebrated Wednesday. On this day every Hebrew, rich or poor, the world over, will confess to his God his spiritual failings during the year that has gone and promise to do better during the year to come.

A prominent Hebrew of this city in speaking of the event has said:

"There is not another day given in the Jewish faith when Almighty God is so near to those of the belief as on the day of Rosh Hashbono, which means 'the head day of the year.'

"On this occasion millions of Jewish people promise their God that they have chosen the way of the truth. All worldly cares are abandoned and the Jews surrender themselves to the everlasting God, admitting their wrongdoings for the year and accepting the construction of the holy scrool for the new year.

"Let each visitor to the house of God be not a hypocrite. Think that you are seeking the Creator's endorsement for the new year. Let each Jew also know that there is not a denomination extant with more solid principles than ours. We all worship in the knowledge of our only God, to whom the richest master and the poorest beggar may knee! alike."

AT THE THEATER

The Harry Jenkins company, with Austin T. Blair's big stock company, arrived in the city yesterday and will begin a week's engagement at the Grand tonight. There will not be a stronger aggregation here this season. The company is particularly well balanced, Mr. Jenkins being one of the cleverest comedians on the American stage, while the leading man and lady are very strong. Miss Leona Leslie is an actress of great ability, having worked in leading stock companies for several years. Her stock of imported French gowns are said to have cost a fortune. The opening bill will be "Parisian Princess," in which the company is particularly strong.

"Two Little Waifs," Lincoln J. Carter's latest drama, was presented at the Grand Saturday night by a first class company of players. The Lambs, who took the part of the waifs, were particularly clever, being among the very best juvenile actors who ever appeared here. The owners of the piece have equipped it with excellent scenery and lots of it. The audience was the largest so far of the season and it showed its appreciation in many ways.

is a branch of the business which most opticians ignore. But there is a logical reason for this neglect on their part. Cross eyes are caused from muscular imbalance, and muscular imbalance is something the great majority of opticians do not understand. Since coming here I have straightened over a dozen pairs of crossed eyes and have not failed in a single case. I do it with glasses, too, and without pain or trouble.

To give perfect relief to weak eyes of whatever character an understanding of the muscles is absolutely necessary in a large per centage of cases. Do you know what causes your head to ache when your eyes are at fault? There is some muscle or set of muscles being overworked, and to give perfect relief the optician MUST UNDERSTAND MUSCULAR TROUBLES. I examine your eyes free of charge, and examine them thoroughly, too.

the dining room was entirely emptied, when investigated, but nothing it contained was removed from the room. In it was silverware of the most valuable kind. Not a single piece of it was carried away. Had they so desired they could have easily decamped with $500 worth of valuables.

That the burglars did not take more is attributed to the fact in evidence that they were on the hunt for money and nothing else. The finding of over 100 half burnt matches on the front floors gives an idea of their nerve and the time they spent in the house. That one closet that escaped their notice was the one for which they were really looking. It is located in a small hallway. Upon entering the way, they opened a door and in order to give them an easy exit if disturbed they placed a cuspidor against it, pressing the door tightly to what they supposed was simply a wall. Had they only known it, their nights' work would have been amply repaid by the leaving of that door ajar. Behind it was a closet. In the closet, plain to view, was a big rool of money, the amount of which would have opened their eyes greatly.

They made an entrance through a window on the west side of the house, and their exit through the back kitchen door, which remained open until morning.

From the McNicol residence the men fearlessly proceeded to the Logan home. Smashing a pane of glass in the back kitchen a hand was thrust through and the latch, easily turned. The glass fell inwardly to the floor, and, although it must have made a loud crash, none of the household was disturbed. They slept upstairs and the lower part of the house was thoroughly searched without any sounds reaching the sleeping apartments.

Going first to a cupboard in the kitchen, the robbers found a pocketbook, but paid no attention to the silverware. They then went into the sitting room and, seeing a suit of clothes hanging on a clothes rack, partially rifled it As far as is known all that they got from the whole proceeding was obtained from this suit.

A Dueber filled watch case with Elgin works and a gold chain were the only things of value that they removed. Several old coins, two Columbian half dollars and some small change laid loosely in a vest escaped their fingers. The watch and chain are valued at $25 by Mr. Logan.

After searching the remaining rooms they left by the same way that they entered, having in their possession only the watch, chain and pocketbook. The latter they opened, after making their exit, and finding two gold rings and a few receipts, laid the book on a fence and threw the contents out into the grass.

Over the back fence into the Wyman yard they jumped and entered the residence by prying open the cellar door. Many fruit cans were moved by them, but none of them taken. The door leading to the first floor of the house was wide open in the morning, but there was no evidence of them having prowled further than the cellar. It is supposed that at the time they were getting ready to go upstairs some sound scared them away.

Miss Blanche Murphy, living at the rear of the Wyman home with her parents states she heard footsteps in the yard at about 4 o'clock and arising saw several dark forms leaving the premises. She can not describe them however, and there is absolutely no clue by which the bold characters can be identified.

Chief Thompson and the entire police force were notified of the nights' doings, and immediately instituted a search for the gang, but without success, and are afraid that they will never run down the guilty parties unless perchance the watch and chain are recognized by a person who will be willing to peach.

The One Efficient Medium.

A New York advertiser says: "A man may or may not read a poster in a way to receive a distinct impression, for the mind is not always receptive. A man may read a circular or he may toss it into the scrapbasket. A daily newspaper, however, he buys voluntarily because he wants to read it. He may not read any advertisement the first day or for many days, but some day he will read it and will take it all in. That is why I regard the newspaper as the one efficient medium of publicity."—Philadelphia Record.

It takes time to extract all the juice from the advertising. INSULTING REMARK

Directed at an Italian Results in a Haul By the Police.

While sitting near a window at the home of his mother on Twelfth street yesterday afternoon, Harry Potts directed an insulting remark at a passing Italian known by the name of Macroni with disastrous results.

The Italian resented the insult and invited Harry out onto the street. Potts refused the invitation and the Italian started to bombard the house with stones. Harry and Alfred Green who boards at the Potts home, went out to chastise the Italian and were succeeding when some of his friends from the Italian quarter on Twelfth street and Officers Davis, Houser and Elliott arrived on the battle ground at the same time.

The officers escorted Potts, Green and the Italian to cells in the city bastile.

changes were submitted to him before they were acted upon by the committee. The changes provide for single head elective boards instead of a multiple board.

George B. Cox, who controls the politics of Hamilton county, is opposed to the single head plan and favors the federal or chamber of commerce bill in preference to it. The original board bill was the one he wanted adopted, but now that it has been abandoned he has come out in favor of the one mentioned. Attorney General Sheets is with him in this regard. Unlike the views of the majority of the members of the legislature, he holds that flexible boards are constitutional. He said: "The man who says the constitution will not admit of flexible boards does not read right." He takes the stand that it would be legal for cities to prescribe for either one-man boards or for boards of more than one member. Councils have had authority to fix the number of members, and if the principle is lawful in the one it is in the other. He says that Judge Davis, of the supreme court, has given him to understand that flexible boards would not violate the provisions of the constitution. This assertion will probably again draw the fire of Representative Price, of Athens, who has taken a pronounced stand against what he terms "back door decisions of the supreme court."

The Total Amount Yet Unclaimed Amounts to a Very Small Sum.

The Whitakers and Whitakers of this county who have been looking for a fortune of several million pounds from an English estate are to be disappointed. A Washington dispatch says:

"A letter from the chief accountant of the bank of England in regard to inquiries from persons in the United States relative to alleged unclaimed estates in England, says that the bank recently has received a great number of applications respecting the Whitaker estate, the name of Whitaker being variously spelled. The original basis of these inquiries is the occurence of the name in lists of unclaimed stocks and dividends published by the bank in the early part of the last century. The total amount at present unclaimed on several accounts with which the name of Whitaker is connected is less than £100. Some time ago a person called at the bank and said he had been designated by the heirs of the Whitaker estate to investigate their claim. He was told that there was no such estate in the knowledge of the bank, but he gave the 'heirs' a different version and spurred them on to renewed efforts."

The person alluded to is no doubt Rev. William Whitaker, who has been working on the scheme at Lisbon for nearly seven years. Last summer he went to England accompanied by his secretary, ostensibly to look up matters. At different times he has written to heirs in this county, giving very encouraging accounts of his progress. Prior to going to England he made several visits here to look up records concerning the heirs of the alleged estate.

NO BIDS ON HAND

Commissioners Found Only Enquiries on Meeting to Open Bids.

No bids were on hand Saturday, when at 8 p. m., in accordance with the advertisement of $20,000 in 5 per cent bonds the bond commissioners met.

O. O. Allison, J. H. Maxwell and E. D. Marshall met, but found nothing to look over excepting inquries from financial representatives who wished to have the bonds. There were no formal bids and the advertisements will have to be let over again.

No bids can now be submitted for 30 days. Mr. Allison said: "The bond issue was not sufficiently advertised. It was advertised only in New Cumberland. While the law specifies that matters of the kind should be published in a county paper, the city should have at least advertised the proposition in East Liverpool.

"Those bonds are better than government paper, and we ought not only to have bidders for the bonds, but get a nice premium on 5 per cent paper. This city now has over $500,000 in assessed property valuations and no man of business sense who visits this city will have the slightest doubt of the rapid increase in development of this city. From letters received from financial houses in different cities we knew that we could easily turn the bonds over to them, but not legally. We shall advertise the bonds at once. The paving contractor, E. A. Freshwater, is not afraid of his money and will go right on with the work. If it comes to a pinch, local people will take up that 5 per cent paper."

PAVING WORK RUSHED

Excellent Progress Being Made in the Improvement of Chester Streets.

Though the $20,000 bond issue for the paving of the streets of Chester has not been sold, from the manner in which the work was progressing this morning this is a detail of minor importance. An army of men were working with plows, scrapers and shovels reducing the streets to the proper grade, and if the work continues at the present rate it will be completed before the bonds are sold.

MOUTHFUL OF LYE

A Chester Child Severly Burned Attempting to Drink the Stuff.

The three year old son of Joseph Kennedy, of Fairview avenue, was brought to the office of Dr. Lewis Saturday afternoon, suffering from terrible burns in the mouth and throat, caused by attempting to swallow the contents of a can of lye.

The child, unnoticed by its mother, gained possession of the can and attempted to swallow a mouthful of the powerful alkali. Its screams soon attracted the attention of its mother who hurried to the office of Dr. Lewis. After examining the injuries of the child, the doctor stated that his burns were only in the mouth and throat and that there were no serious injuries.

ONE HAS BEEN CAUGHT

Two Salem Boys Accused of Stealing a Horse And Buggy.

Salem, September 22.—(Special)—Ernest Phillips, aged 20, and Willie Roberts, two youths of this city on August 25, hired a horse and buggy of Liveryman S. E. Mackintosh since which time both horse and buggy have been lost. Every chief of police in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia has been notified to be on the lookout. The horse was cream colored, and it is strange that track of the horse and buggy could not be obtained. Last Wednesday Chief of Police Turner was notified by the Johnston officials that they had arrested young Roberts and had the horse and buggy in their possession.

Turner and Mackintosh at once went to Johnstown and secured the property. The harness had been traded off. Chief Turner returned Saturday evening with young Roberts, who waived requisition papers and was glad to return to Salem.

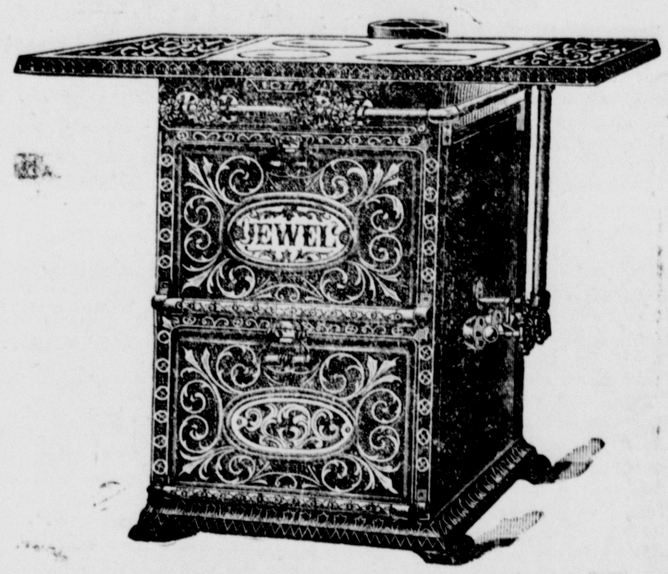

Phillips has not yet been arrested, as the instigator. Officers are on the track of Phillips. The latter has already served a term in the industrial school at Lancaster. Young Roberts is in jail at Salem, and will be given a hearing when Phillips is apprehended.

A Handsome Water Pitcher Bestowed on the Pugilist By Local Admirers.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "A delegation of visitors from East Liverpool, O., presented Terry McGovern with a handsome water pitcher. It was made in one of the big potteries of East Liverpool, and is painted entirely by hand. On one side is a bunch of American Beauties, and the other a set of colors representing America and Ireland. Between the two flags is a pair of boxing gloves done in fancy colors.

"It is a very neat piece of work and was presented to Terry by Hugh McDermott, Jimmy Larkins, J. F. Williams and T. L. Baker, all well known sporting men of East Liverpool. The party stopped over to see Terry on their way to Louisville. They were much disappointed when the announcement was made that the bout would not come off."

President Spoke to Spanish War Soldiers, at Detroit, Today.

HE WENT TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

This Afternoon President Roosevelt Will Review Veterans and Military. Canadian Soldiers to Be In the Parade—Banquet Tonight.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The president addressed the convention of Spanish war veterans at 10 a. m. today; at 11 o'clock he was driven to the steamer Tashmoo, for a ride on the river, and at 4 o'clock he will review the parade of veterans and military, a unique feature of which will be the presence of the Twenty-first regiment of Essex Fusiliers, from Canada; at 8 p. m. he will attend the banquet of the veterans in Light Guard armory, where he will make the address of the evening.

President Roosevelt arrived in the city at 8 o'clock yesterday morning over the Michigan Central railroad. He found Detroit awaiting his arrival in gala attire.

Throughout the day the president was greeted with tumultuous cheers at his every appearance.

President Attended Church.

Immediately on his arrival he was driven to the Hotel Cadillac, where he occupies the corner rooms on the parlor floor, which have been especially decorated in his honor. At 10:30 o'clock he attended services at the Fort Street Presbyterian church, driving from there to General R. A. Alger's residence, where he was entertained at luncheon. He returned to the Cadillac soon after 3 o'clock, only to leave again in a short time for a drive about the city. During the drive he called at St. Mary's hospital, on St. Antoine street, where Thomas K. Doherty, a local veteran of the Spanish war, is dying of consumption. Doherty had expressed a wish to see the president, and General Alger learned of it. Accordingly at luncheon yesterday President Roosevelt was asked if he would call on Doherty at the hospital. The president answered that he would be delighted to do so. Doherty is unable to sit up and the president remained at his bedside for some minutes, chatting with him and expressing words of cheer and hope.

Last night the president dined at the Cadillac with a party of friends.

The subject of Rev. E. H. Pence's sermon, at the church, was "A Threefold Gospel," and his text was from First Thessalonians, second chapter and second verse. During the services the president's favorite hymn, "God Guard Columbia," was sung.

Wants No Demonstration at Cleveland

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—Senator Hanna last night stated that President Roosevelt had made the request that no public demonstration be made over his visit to Cleveland as the guest of Senator Hanna, next Saturday and Sunday. The visit is not a public one and the president wishes to spend the day as quietly as possible, at Senator Hanna's home on Lake avenue.

Senator Hanna was asked what he thought of the president's speech at Cincinnati, Saturday, but declined to make any comment or statement. Neither would he make any statement as to what transpired at the conference at Oyster Bay a few days ago.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, left at noon yesterday for California, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Littlefield will make a number of speeches in that state. Later in the campaign he will return to Ohio and deliver several speeches in this county in support of the candidacy of Hon. Theodore E. Burton's re-election to congress.

Against Abolition of Tariff Duties.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt, before a great and enthusiastic audience in the Music hall Saturday night, took two more long strides in advance of his party which he is leading on the trust question. He attacked the arguments that a remodeling of the tariff duties on all trust-made articles would drive the trusts out of business and leave the field for the small and independent competitors. He declared that the abolition of these duties might ruin the trusts, but would first ruin the small corporations and cause distress to the entire country. He pointed out that two of the most successful trusts, the Standard Oil company and the anthracite coal combination, would not be affected by tariff changes because they enjoy no protection now. His naming the coal trust as a combination that "has control of the anthracite output" was the most striking paragraph in his speech.

The other notable feature of the president's speech had to do with the adoption of a constitutional amendment to give the federal government control of the trusts. He made practically a flat declaration in favor of amending the constitution.

May Arouse Other Powers.

Constantinople, Sept. 22.—The decision of the sultan to permit four Russian torpedo boats, which are in reality topedo boat destroyers, to pass the Dardanelles is considered here to be a violation of an international convention, and action in the matter is expected from the other signatory powers.

ODELL TO BE RENOMINATED.

New York Republicans Likely to Take Definite Stand Against Tariff Revision.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Not in many years had there been two nights prior to the assembling of a New York state Republican convention such placidity as existed last night. Undoubtedly this is because by far the majority of selections for the state ticket have been practically agreed upon. Governor Odell will of course be renominated. The contest for lieutenant governor practically ended last night, when it was announced that the delegations from New York, Westchester and Erie counties had decided to go into the convention pledged for George R. Sheldon.

There had not last night been anything definitely decided on the trust plank, except that while condemning certain combinations of capital there will be no appeal to congress for drastic execution. This statement is on the authority of Mr. Platt, who added that the draft of the plank was not complete. On the tariff question the indications are that a very definite stand will be taken against revision on the ground that the benefit to be gained will be infintesimal as compared with the injury that will be done among industrials and workingmen by an opening of the question of revision.

N. N. Stranahan, collector of the port of New York, said last night: "The plank in the platform endorsing President Roosevelt's administration and his candidacy to succed himself will be as strong as any close adherent of the president can wish for."

THINKS YOUNG WILL SUICIDE.

Captain Titus Believes Murderer of Mrs. Pulitzer Fled to Vicinity of Canarsie, L. I.

New York, Sept. 22.—The search for William Hooper Young, the man wanted for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, whose mutilated body was found floating in the abandoned Morris canal, near Jersey City, Thursday morning last, had, up to a late hour yesterday, been unavailing. The police forces of this and the surrounding boroughs have been bending all energies and running down all clews which come to them to locate Young.

The chief development of the day Sunday came from Brooklyn, and it leads the police to believe that the fugitive has escaped to the vicinity of Canarsie, L. I. Captain Titus, of the detective bureau, is inclined to believe that Young, finding all avenues of final escape shut off, has fled to this spot on the Long Island coast to commit suicide. The captain ordered a special force of detectives to Carnarsie to conduct a thorough search of the neighborhood.

The story of this clew is that late Saturday night a man supposed to have been Young was seen in a lodging house in Brooklyn. When he applied for a room he was told there was none vacant, and he was forced to be satisfied with a chair. Soon afterward he became nervous and arose to his feet. Some of those in the room arose simultaneously. Then the stranger dashed down the back stairs of the hotel to the yard, with some of the lodgers after him. Vaulting the back fence, closely pursued, the fugitive fled up the street. The pursuers, gaining upon him, the stranger halted, drew a revolver and brought the lodgers to a stand. Turning again, he caught sight of a Nostrand avenue car, bound for Fulton street, and raced for it. Before the lodgers came up the car with the fugitive on board was blocks away.

Man Thought to Be Young Caught.

Derby, Conn., Sept. 22.—A man who tallies exactly with the description of Hooper Young, who is wanted by the New York police for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, was arrested by the local police last night. The man is held here awaiting instructions from Captain Titus.

Coghlan to Command at Panama.

Boston, Sept. 22.—Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coghlan has raised his flag on the Olympia and awaits orders to proceed to the isthmus of Panama, to assume charge of the affairs in that vicinity and to command the fleet of American warships assembling there. The Olympia is provisioned and coaled for three months.

GUARDS AND MOB FIRED SHOTS.

General Gobin Said If There Was Any Violence at Mahonoy City, This Morning, He Would Send Regiment and Gatling Gun There. .. .. ..

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 22.—The mining town of Edwardsville, near here, was the scene of much lawlessness Saturday night and early Sunday morning. A crowd of men, said to be strikers, went in search of a man named James McGuire, who went to work in the mines last week. They fired stones at several houses, broke down the doors of the dwelling where McGuire was supposed to be harbored and committed other depredations. The mob also fired on the deputies at the Edward mine. The officers returned the fire, but no one was wounded. Early yesterday morning three men were arrested, charged with being the ringleaders who threatened the life of McGuire. They gave the names of John Sherbemah, George Streiker and Michael Mone. In default of $1,000 bail they were committed to jail.

Gobin Threatened to Send Soldiers.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 22.—Asked last night if the Eighth regiment would be sent to occupy Mahoney City, General Gobin, in command of the state troops here, replied:

"That all depends on circumstances. If there should be any further outbreaks there, not only a regiment, but a Gatling gun will be sent there. The strikers have been holding up passenger trains and trolley cars, looking for deputies, and soldiers cannot venture into the town without being insulted. The violence that has been rampant in that town for several days must cease, and if there is any disturbance there tomorrow morning a battery of artillery and perhaps a regiment will go there."

YOUNG MAN'S JEALOUS DEED.

Wounded Girl at Conemaugh, Pa., and Then Suicided.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—David M. Goughner, a well-known young man, shot and seriously wounded Miss Leorena Winnebrenner, aged 17 years, near her home in Conemaugh, near this city, Saturday night, and then sent a bullet into his own heart, dying instantly. Jealously and a desire for revenge are given as the causes for the act.

Edward Kayler, who was with her, ran when the fusilade began and escaped injury. He says Goughner fired two shots at him.

At the General hospital last night it was said while Miss Winnebrenner's condition was extremely serious, she may recover.

NEGRO MURDERER PURSUED.

Killed a Man In Clearfield County, Pa., Who Took a Boy's Part.

Dubois, Pa., Sept. 22.—Thomas Russel, of Grampian, Clearfield county, was shot dead yesterday afternoon at that place by a negro named Moses Taylor. Taylor escaped, but was being pursued by a posse of officers and citizens.

The colored man was having some trouble with a small boy and was in the act of chastising him, when Russell tried to rescue the boy. Taylor turned from the boy and pointed a revolver at Russell and fired twice. Neither struck him, however, and Russel seized the revolver, wrenched from the negro and walked away. He had gone but a few yards when Taylor drew another revolver from his pocket and shot Russell through the back.

BOOTH SAYS FAREWELL.

To Visit America—Message In Behalf of Humanity.

London, Sept. 22.—General Booth conducted three farewell services at the Clapton Congress hall Sunday. Three thousand Salvationists bade the general godspeed at the evening service, when he expressed a desire to convey messages of affectionate regard from them to Canada and the United States. The general asked those present to send a message that their American brethren, with the people of Great Britain, might stand up before the world as friends of the human family, and that these two great nations should work shoulder to shoulder for the peace and happiness of the world.

Corbett and McGovern Agree to Fight.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—C. E. Lambertson, stakeholder of the McGovern-Corbett contest, which was to have taken place at Louisville tonight, paid over the forfeit money Saturday night. McGovern and Corbett receiving $1,250 each. Both McGovern and Corbett left their forfeit of $2,500 in the hands of Mr. Lambertson, and made a verbal agreement that they would fight in December, before the club offering the largest prize.

MINISTER UNFROCKS HIMSELF.

Dramatic Ending of Trial of M. E. Minister, In Iowa—Refused to Live With Wife.

Keokuk, Ia., Sept. 22.—The case of Rev. P. J. Henness, before the Iowa conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, came very dramatically to an end early yesterday. After the trial committee, appointed by Bishop Hamilton and composed of 13 divines, had been in session far into the night, Mr. Henness himself took the stand.

He said it was evident to himself and to his attorneys that he was not to have a fair trial, and handed the parchments of his ordination to the committee, following with his resignation from membership in the church as well as from the ministry. Turning to his wife, who was present, the self-unfrocked minister exclaimed:

"Woman, behold the wreck of a man you have made."

His wife broke down at this dramatic exhibition. The committee on the trial of Mr. Henness immediately closed its session, having lost its jurisdiction of the case by his action in placing himself outside the pale of the church.

Mr. Henness, after maintaining silence stubbornly for a year, said yesterday that the reason he left his wife was because of her continual "nagging," which broke down his health and rendered it impossible for him to do ministerial work. The charge against him before the conference was separation from his wife whom he agreed to support, but refused to live with. No question of immorality was involved.

FIREMAN HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Freight Train Crashed Into Another Near Conemaugh, Pa.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—In a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Conemaugh, last night, in which two freight trains were involved, Fireman George Freeman, of Fitcairn, was instantly killed. His body was dragged for several hundred feet under the engine and horribly mangled. A westbound freight had been held just east of Conemaugh on signals and had received a clear block.

The engineer had just called in his flagman, when an extra, westbound crashed into the rear of the train. All four tracks were blocked for several hours. The wreckage took fire and at a late hour last night was still burning.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

MET DEFEAT AT SALINEVILLE

GOOD GAME AT CHESTER

The Carroll Club Easily Defeated By the Y. M. C. A. On Saturday By a Score of 22 to 2—Winners Made No Errors.

Manager Walsh's team of baseballists in a badly crippled condition left the city early Saturday morning for Salineville where they played the coal miners a rattling good game in the afternoon before an enormous crowd of fans.

The locals lost the game by a score of 5 to 1, but no wonder Maag, with his right arm in a sling, played right field. Could anything else but defeat be expected? And in the seventh Maley, who was holding the diamond hunters down at his will, met with an accident that compelled him to leave the box.

For eight innings the score stood on even terms. In the ninth a wild throw by Emmerling to second, followed by several of the players going straight in the air, gave the game to Salineville. The following lineup was in the battle: Emmerling, catcher; Maley and Barker, pitchers; Winters, first; Webb, second; Davis, third; Barker, short; Chadwick, middle; Trainor, left and Maag right.

The Carroll club base ball team fell easy marks to the second team of the Y. M. C. A. in Chester park on Saturday afternoon, losing the game by a score of 22 to 2. The Y. M. C. A. were certainly playing some and they walked away with the game putting forth scarcely an effort.

It was an errorless game on the part of the winning team and their twirler pitched one of the finest games of the season. He held the Corroll club boys down to six hits. His name is Welch and he bids fair to hold down a salaried position next year.

Groglode, pitcher for the defeated aggregation, was pounded unmercifully giving a total of 18 hits. The score:

Katipunan Society Again Active.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Manila papers received at the war department say that the Katipunan, the society which is secretly pledged to oppose American sovereignty, is again active in Manila, and General Guillermo, one of the most prominent insurgent leaders, is still in the field at its head. The police, the constabulary and the secret service are combined in an effort to suppress the society, and over 100 arrests have been made, with more in prospect.

Boxerism Not Subdued.

London, Sept. 22.—In a dispatch from Shanghai the correspondent of the Standard declares that Boxerism in the province of Sze-Chur has not been subdued. The premises of the China Island mission, at Mei-Chou, has been destroyed, but no lives were lost. The Boxers, according to the correspondent, are now threatening three cities, Tan-Lien, Hung-Yen and Kaiting-Fu.

Prevention of the Flight of Birds.

To prevent birds from flying without the barbarous and injurious system sometimes practiced of cutting their wings it will be found sufficient to tie together with a thread three or four of the largest feathers of one wing. This destroys the balance, the wings do not act symmetrically in the air, and flight is rendered impossible. Fowls, pigeons, etc., may be kept within bounds in this simple fashion.

Merely Misplaced.

GUIDI CONSECRATED.

Who, Next to Pope, Is Highest Political Personage In Vatican—Prominet Prelates Assisted — Leading Clergymen Present.

Rome, Sept. 22.—The consecration yesterday of Monsignor Guidi, apostolic delegate in the Philippines, as archbishop, which occurred in the church of Santa Maria, in Aquiro, which is owned by the Somaschian fathers, his first instructors, assumed considerable importance, as it was conducted by Cardinal Rampolla, who, after the pope, is the highest political personage in the vatican.

Cardinal Rampolla was assisted by Monsignor Constantini, the papal almoner, and Monsignor Gaspardi, secretary of ecclesiastical affairs, and who also acted as secretary to the commission of cardinals which treated with Governor Taft, of the Philippines, in his negotiations with the vatican concerning the disposition of the friar property in the islands.

The entire diplomatic corps accredited to the vatican, all the generals of the religious orders and a number of prominent friars, Mgr. Macchi, the new papal nuncio in Munich; the mayor and the bisnop of Alatri, Monsignor Guidi's birthplace, were present at the ceremony. The United States was represented by the Rev. J. P. Farrelly, of Nashville, Tenn., who was recently appointed privy chamberlain to the pope.

110 DEAD BODIES COUNTED.

Gloom at Birmingham, Ala., Over Disaster—President Sends Message to Booker Washington.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 22.—A gloom has been cast over the entire community as the people begin to realize the enormity of Friday night's appalling disaster at Shiloh Baptist church. Late Saturday night 110 dead had been counted, and 90 of these have been identified.

The injured negroes are being cared for by various hospitals and private residences.

The undertaking establishments of the city, which prepare the bodies of negroes for burial, have been unable to handle the remains of the victims, and many of the bodies were still scattered over the floors of those places. As fast as the bodies could be dressed and placed in coffins they were moved to the homes of their relatives, and at least 50 funerals were held yesterday.

The Rev. L. R. Price, of New Orleans, whose name appears in the list of dead, was most worshipful grand master of the grand lodge of negro Masons of Louisiana and was well known throughout the United States. He lost his life in an effort to save several women who were being crushed to death beneath the panic stricken crowd in the church. Three times he fought his way into the building and brought out three women. The fourth time he was caught in the crush and before he could extricate himself he died of suffocation.

The following message was received from President Roosevelt Saturday:

Prof. Washington replied:

"Our people are most grateful to you for your words of sympathy in the matter of the terrible calamity which has befallen so many of our race. Everything possible is being done by both white and colored citizens to help. Birmingham city officials have been most thoughtful and generous. The crowd at the meeting was very large, but was perfectly orderly. The disaster grew out of one of those incidents which it was almost impossible to foresee."

FREIGHT STRUCK THEIR TRAIN.

Two Killed and 26 Injured by Accident, In Oklahoma.

Choctaw, O. T., Sept. 22.—An eastbound Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad freight train ran into the rear of the Sells-Downs show train here early Saturday. Two sleeping cars of the show train were completely demolished and many of its occupants were pinioned beneath the wreckage. Two persons were killed and 26 were injured, all but four seriously. All of the casualties were on the show train. The dead are:

Harry Williams.

A negro, unidentified.

The show train was standing on the main track when the accident occurred. The freight engine was not damaged badly and the freight crew was unhurt. The show people blame the freight engineer for the accident and became so demonstrative that he fled.

After the excitement had died down the freight engineer returned. He declared that the lights on the show train were out and that he was unable to see it in the rain and darkness.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Endeavor Social—The Y. P. C. E. of the First Presbyterian church is arranging for a social to be given on the evening of October 2.

Breaking the Peace—Thomas Farmer, of the West End, will be arrested this evening by Officer Aufderheide and taken before the mayor to answer to charge of breaking the peace.

Quarantine Raised—Health Officer Burgess fumigated and raised the quarantine from the homes of George Eisenhuth, Pine street, and John Homan, Fourth street, this morning. Both families have undergone a siege with scarlet fever.

Twin Boys Born—The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Headley in the West End Sunday night and twin boys were born. Despite the efforts of Dr. Hobbs, one of the babies died. The mother and her remaining child are reported as doing well.

Wedded at Oil City — Miss Emma Baker, a niece of George S. Goodwin of this city, and Willard Hall Say, of Crafton, Pa., were the central figures at a fashionable church wedding in Oil City, Pa., last week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baker, prominent in social circles of their home city, and the groom, who holds a responsible position with a large coal company, is also a leader in society.

SERIES OF THREE GAMES

To Be Played By East Liverpool And Rochester, Beginning Next Friday.

To decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and of northeastern Ohio, Manager Walsh's players and that strong team of Rochester have decided to play a series of three games. The first game is to be played in West End park on next Friday afternoon and the second at Rochester on the following day. The third game will be played at the park which receives the largest crowd the first two games. As the games will undobtedly be the hardest fought of the season they will be witnessed by all lovers of the sport in the city.

For the first time this season Manager Walsh will charge admittance to the ladies. It is perfectly right that he should do so. There is not a city east of the Mississippi that ladies are allowed to witness games every day in the week free of charge.

If the fans want to see two of the three games played on local grounds they can do so by all turning out to the game on Friday.

MINERS AND RAILROAD

Project of Developing Mineral Lands Near Guilford, Columbiana County.

A joint stock coal company has been formed which has as one of its objects the opening of the coal fields near Guilford. The officials of the company have decided to build a railroad from Teegarden to Guilford to get the product to market.

The company has purchased, leased and has options on 1,000 acres of coal land in Hanover and Center townships. H. G. Folts was a member of the stock company which was organized, but it is not thought his death will have any effect with the building of the railroad and the operation of the coal fields.

HIT BY AUTOCYCLE

A LITTLE BOY KNOCKED DOWN AND BADLY HURT.

He Was Playing of the Street When the Machine Struck Him. Him.

In the presence of at least 100 citizens, the six-year-old son of J. G. Kaufman, an employe at the Eagle Hardware store, was run down by an auto-cycle at the corner of Sixth streets and Broadway early Saturday evening.

The boy and his younger brother were enroute to their home on Forest street and playing as they walked. When nearly across the street both saw a shining object in the gutter near the sidewalk and simultaneously made a dash for it. Just as he reached down to pick up the coveted object an autocycle, ridden by Samuel McShane, struck him on the back of the head, knocking him with terrific force against the stone curbing.

The little fellow commenced screaming and the blood from a wound inflicted on the top of his head began pouring profusely. Several bystanders hurried to his side and carefully bore him to the office of Dr. E. L. Trimmer, who dressed the wound, and alleviated the suffering.

For several minutes after the accident there was much indignation displayed by the crowd of witnesses. All were up in arms against the reckless rider of the cycle, but he protested that it was not due to his carelessness and the matter was dropped.

WRECKED THE PLATFORM

Rapidly Moving Freight Car Caused Damage At the Freight Station.

Because a freight car was "kicked" down the siding at the freight station during the night, damage to the probable extent of $100 was caused. The track alongside the receiving platform at the freight station is not a long one and it is down grade. During the night a through freight crew had occasion to place a car on this siding, and in so doing the car was "kicked" on the siding at more than usual speed.

The bumper at the end of the track was damaged sometime ago, and then a lot of old ties were placed at the end of the track. The speed of the car last night was so great that it rolled up on these ties, and partially wrecked the covered platform, at the entrance to the freight station. The platform was knocked away from the building by the jar, and the watchman's shanty at the corner of Walnut street also came near being wrecked. The damage will be repaired at once.

At the meeting of the packers, it is stated that the matter was forgotten entirely.

The communication was also presented to the officials of Kilndrawers' local No. 17, which met in Brotherhood hall Saturday evening, and after it was read, it was voted upon, and it was the sense of the meeting that Mr. Duffy remain on the Labor ticket. This vote, it is learned, was unanimous.

A prominent member of one of the largest locals in the city, and a strong Brotherhood member today stated that so far as he knew, the communication was somewhat out of place, inasmuch as it related to politics. It was said by this gentleman that according to the constitution of the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, no matters of a political or religious nature shall be considered at a meeting of a local, and in this case, politics is the sole subject of the communication sent out by the Labor committee. What consideration the communication will receive from the locals meeting this week can only be surmised.

An attempt was made this morning to obtain an expression either from Mr. Duffy or President Hughes, and although several calls were made at the Brotherhood headquarters, the doors were locked, no person being there.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

J. E. Anderson Thrown From a Buggy In a Collision And Hurt.

While driving along Pennsylvania avenue this afternoon with several friends J. E. Anderson, hotelkeeper, collided with a wagon, loaded with stone. The collision was so great that Mr. Anderson was thrown from the buggy and was seriously injured about the back and head.

He was removed to the office of Dr. R. J. Marshall.

The Oldest Death Sentence.

The oldest death sentence extant is found in the Amherst papyri containing the trials of state criminals in Egypt, about 1300 B. C. The criminal in this case was found guilty of magic, which his judges state "was worthy of death, which he carried out, and he killed himself," apparently by stabbing, as in the Japanese "hari kari," which is also of very ancient origin.

Among less civilized peoples drowning would seem to have been the earliest method of legal punishment, for about 450 B. C. the Britons killed their criminals by throwing them into a quagmire. Of other than capital punishments the oldest recorded comes from Chaldea, where it was enacted some 6,000 years ago that when any one maimed a slave "the hand that thus offended should pay him each day a measure of corn."

Lisbon, September 22.—(Special)—In the estate of William Weir, late of Hanover township, the exceptions to the inventory were sustained and the case dismissed.

FOOT BALL TEAM

East Liverpool Has One Composed of the Very Best Material.

East Liverpool is to have a foot ball team which, from all appearances, will equal if not excel any team in this vicinity. A glance at the lineup will show that it is to be composed of men who have devoted their time to athletics in some form, and many of them are known throughout this section as good foot ball players.

The team will be under the management of J. C. Walsh, Jr., and have engaged West End park, where they will begin practice next Wednesday.

A Couple of Local Sports Indulged in a Fight Which Was a Fierce One.

A few select lovers of the game of "hit and get away" were treated to an able exhibition of the manly art in the packing shed of a down town pottery last Saturday morning.

Two well known young amateurs have tried, vocally, for some time, to decide which was the better man, and when a party of friends hung up a purse of $50 they decided to get together.

The affair was pulled off in a purely non-professional manner, and as both parties are connected with institutions where prize fighting is not approved their names are kept very quiet.

The fight lasted but a short while and was fast and furious. Knowledge of the game was displayed by both parties and the winner earned his money.

"Old Patch," the Forger.

It was about the year 1784 that the first forgeries on a very large scale were discovered by the Bank of England, and these were done by one man, known from his favorite disguise as "Old Patch." By a large issue of notes spread over a long period he defrauded the bank of more than £200,000, and, having only one confidant, his mistress, great difficulty was experienced in tracing the source of the forgeries. "Old Patch" in his checkered career of lottery office keeper, stockbroker and gambler had given banknotes careful study and acquired a knowledge of engraving, paper making and printing. He made his own ink, manufactured the paper and printed the notes on a private press. In various disguises he hired boys from the streets to present the notes. Suspicion was at last aroused by his movements. He was thrown into prison, where he cheated the law by hanging himself in his cell.—London Chronicle.

A Telling Retort.

Fault was found, says the Christian Endeavor World, with the way in which the shorthand writers reported the speeches in a legislative body. They retaliated by giving the speech of one of the members exactly as he made it, with the following result:

"The reporters—ought not to—the reporters ought not to be the ones to judge of what is important—not to say what should be left out—but—the member can only judge of what is important. As I—as my speeches—as the reports—as what I say is reported sometimes, no one—nobody can understand from the reports—what it is—what I mean. So—it strikes me—it has struck me certain matters—things that appear of importance—are sometimes left out—omitted. The reporters—the papers—points are reported—I mean—to make a brief statement—what the paper thinks of interest—is reported."

19TH YEAR. NO. 224. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1902. TWO CENTS.

The Homes of James Logan, D. E. M'Nichol and John Wyman Ransacked by Burglars.

Robbers with nerve almost unparalleled broke into the homes of three of the most prominent families in the city at an early hour Sunday morning completely ransacking each, but strange to say made their departure with practically nothing for their daring feats.

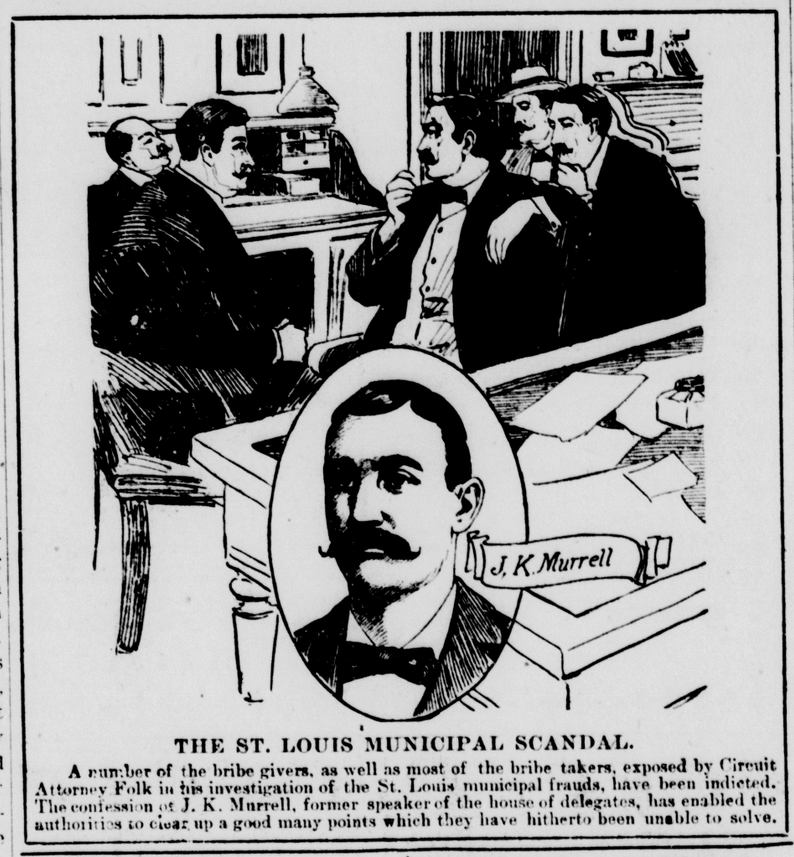

Considering the fact that they had one of the best opportunities ever offered a band of thieves to carry away hundreds of dollars worth of jewelry and silverware the spoilation is rendered too mysterious for even a connoisseur of crime to unravel.

The homes entered were: James Logan's, located on Sixth street, two doors below Monroe; John Wyman's, next door west, and D. E. McNicol's, Monroe and Fifth streets.

From the particulars gained by a visit to the scenes yesterday afternoon, the McNicol residence was without a doubt the first one pillaged. There were at least two men connected with the depredation and possibly more. At a few minutes before nine o'clock Mamie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNicol, was aroused from her slumber by the sounds of muffled footsteps in the dining room. She, as does the entire family sleeps upstairs. Feeling certain that she was not mistaken in her hearing she went to the bedroom of her parents and awakened them. They, thinking that their daughter was simply suffering from nervousness, commanded that she again retire, but to satisfy her mind all listened closely for another sound below. They could hear nothing and all settled into sleep again until morning when, upon descending to the first floor, it became quite evident that the daughter was not mistaken in her fears but rather had been awakened in exactly the manner that she had tried to impress.

Robbers had been there, and for at least thirty minutes. Every room was turned topsy-turvy. The drawers in every cupboard, sideboard, closet, with but one exception, and there are quite a number of them in the several rooms, had been pulled out and thoroughly searched. The contents of the majority of them were distributed in heaps on the floors. A sideboard in

THE ST. LOUIS MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

A number of the bribe givers, as well as most of the bribe takers, exposed by Circuit Attorney Folk in his investigation of the St. Louis municipal frauds, have been indicted. The confession of J. K. Murrell, former speaker of the house of delegates, has enabled the authorities to clear up a good many points which they have hitherto been unable to solve.

YOUNG LADY'S FALL DOWN FRONT STEPS MAY END FATALLY

Miss Mabel Mitchell Trips Upon a Rug and Receives Very Severe Injuries.

As the result of a terrible accident, Miss Mabel Mitchell lies at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, on Third street, suffering with concussion of the brain and her life in extreme danger.

The accident occurred on last Saturday morning, and since that time Miss Mitchell's life has been hanging by a thread. Her home is located in plain view of the C. & P. railroad, and it was while endeavoring to wave a goodbye to her mother, who left on the 8 o'clock train for Cleveland to visit relatives that she met with the misfortune.

Hearing the approach of the train Miss Mitchell ran from the rear of her home to the front porch and when near its edge her feet became entangled in a rug, throwing her forward with great violence down a flight of 12 steps.

In the rapid and unexpected fall Miss Mitchell received a horrible gash over her right eye and numerous bruises over her body.

Not able to make her condition known, being unconscious as the result of the awful blow on her head, she lay at the bottom of the steps several minutes before she was noticed by a member of the household. A few neighbors were immediately called, and in a comatose condition she was removed to a bed, after which Dr. F. M. Laughlin was summoned.

The physician soon arrived at the bedside and made a hasty examination pronouncing her wounds most dangerous. The gash in the head is almost two inches in length and the frontal bone is crushed in a half inch. It required six stitches to close the cut. Her body in many other places was cut and bruised, and it is thought that she is injured internally. Dr. Laughlin stated yesterday that the gash in her head was the worst that he has ever seen in his many years of experience, and that it is possible that it will result fatally.

Miss Mitchell is 20 years of age and a girl of unusual accomplishments. For several years she has been employed as a trained nurse in an eastern hospital. She came home a week ago on a short vacation.

Circulars have been received in this city by secretaries of almost every trades local, and especially by the officials of all locals affiliated with the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, in which it is asked for an expression as to whether Thomas J. Duffy, secretary of the Bortherhood, shall remain a candidate for congress upon the Labor ticket, which first nominated him, or whether he shall forsake that party's wishes, and accept the nomination for congress from the Democrats.

The communications were received in this city late last week, and only those locals meeting upon Friday and Saturday evenings had a chance to have the communications presented. It has been learned, from a source that is considered most reliable, that while a communication of this sort was received by kilnmen's local No. 9, and by Packer's local No. 25, nothing was done with it.

In the case of the Kinlmen's local No. 9, it is averred that the communication was kept on the desk of the secretary during the entire evening and

CROWDS WILL BE AT AKRON MEETING

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, Sept. 22.—A large crowd will attend the Republican campaign opening at Akron next Saturday. The state capital will be fully represented. The Buckeye Republican club, of which Zach Tetlow, an attache of the deaf and dumb asylum and a former resident of Washingtonville, Columbiana county, is a member, will attend in a body. Tetlow is on the committee on arrangements. Elihu B. Root, secretary of war, has wired the Republican committee his formal acceptance of the invitation to be one of the orators at the meeting. Governor Nash will preside and addresses will also be made by Senators Foraker and Hanna. The latter's special train tour of the state will begin immediately after the opening. Foraker will likewise make a great many speeches. He has postponed his contemplated trip to Porto Rico in order to take an active part in the campaign.

The sub-committee of the house code committee, after examining the franchise laws have reached the conclusion that there should be some franchise legislation enacted at this session. A number of sections were found to be clothed in ambiguous language which might cause much litigation, and in the committee's judgment, to preclude this, the old laws should be re-enacted, with the questionable parts cut out. Republicans in the senate favor franchise at this session and think that such grants should not run beyond 21 years. Senator Hanna is said to approve the changes made in the Nash code by the house committee. These

Police Made a Big Haul at Terry Carman's Place Saturday Night.

CHUCK-LUCK PLAY ENDED

Many are the boys that spent Sunday behind the bars of the city jail The majority of them walzed into the presence of the mayor this morning to the tune of $5.60. However, a number of them chose music of a higher class and willingly paid accordingly.

Terry Carman's gambling rooms were running at full blast on Saturday night when Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Morris quietly gained an entrance, and before the gamekeepers and the victims realized what was doing the entire bunch was under arrest. The seller of the chips and the director of the big wheel stood good for their understudies numbering 15 in all. They gave the following as their names: Henry Homer, Joe Laird, Bert Faulk, Lou Brown, George Woodward, Harry Halley, Ben Edwards, Dutch Hines, Charles Spears, George Williams, John Thorn, Richard Wright John Denny, Will Briggs and Edward Gates. Each man will contribute $3 and costs. The proprietor will be let down with $25 and costs.

Armed to the teeth Chief Thompson and Officer Dunn made a raid on a back room located on Smoky Row at about 10 o'clock on Saturday night and as a result caught a chuck-a-luck game in operation. Lou McIntosh was presiding and J. E. Mohler and Jack Horner attempting to best the game. McIntosh will ante up $10 and costs, while the two suckers will dig for $2 and costs.

Because they drove two horses belonging to J. C. McQuilken until the animals were almost ready to drop from over-exertion and because by careless driving they allow the rig to be overturned and partially smashed

YOUNG WOMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

Miss Maud Miller, Formerly of This City, Struck by a Train at Sebring.

Miss Maud Miller, aged 23 years, formerly of this city, was run down at Sebring by passenger train No. 9 this morning and instantly killed.

The train was running 2 hours late owing to the blockade at Jack's Run, and was consequently speeding at a great rate, making it impossible for the engineer to apply the brakes in time to prevent the terrible accident.

It is said that Miss Miller had started to cross the tracks when she saw the approching train and becoming bewildered stood motionless.

Her head and the entire upper part of her body were mangled horribly.

Miss Miller resided in this city for many months, working in the decalcomania department at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery. Three months ago she resigned her position and went to Sebring where she secured employment in a decorating shop.

She is survived by a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, a sister Blanche, and two brothers, George and Walter, all residing at Carrollton.

REPORTED ARREST

Simpson, Reported Suspect, Was in Steubenville Jail at Last Accounts.

According to statements made by Elmer S. Good, of Chester, this afternoon, John Simpson, supposed to be implicated in the Irondale postoffice robbery, was arrested at Middle Run shortly before noon today by a secret service officer. Good also states that Simpson was brought to this city and placed in jail and was to be taken to Irondale on the afternoon train, and that he arrived in Chester last night. Officer Good also made the statement to several other parties.

Mayor Davidson said he knew nothing of the matter, as did also Chief of Police Hiram Allison, of Chester.

James Sherwood, alias John Simpson, suspected of being implicated in the postoffice robbery at Irondale about one week ago, was arrested at Crystal park, Canton, last week, by Sergeant Riblet and Officer Patterson and lodged in the city prison. A charge of being a suspicious character was placed against him and he was sent to the Irondale authorities. The officers believe that Sherwood is one of the men wanted for the Irondale affair and that he already has a criminal record. From Irondale Simpson, who is said to have a bad record, was taken to jail at Steubenville.

He is also suspected of being the man, who, at Salineville, committed the robbery at William Burns' livery stable, also that the Slope mine, and the dastardly theft at the home of the Misses Johnson, near Summitville. Authorities are looking up his record.

Licensed to Wed.

CASH BOX TAKEN

Money Taken While Its Owner Was In a Second Street Store Saturday Eveneing.

David O'Hanlon, the Pleasant Heights dairyman, stepped into a Second street store Saturday evening, and when he returned found his cash box missing from his milk wagon and the receptacle has as yet failed to turn up.

It contained about $40 in change. O'Hanlon did his weekly collecting on Saturday and had almost finished his rounds when the robbery occured. He had not counted the money in the box and is not certain as to the exact amount it contained.

Two young boys, both of whom reside on Second street, are suspected of having committed the theft, though a third one is partially implicated. The youngsters were seen in the act of taking the cash by the lad who became connected with the matter, by accepting hush money, though he is the one who, it is said, let out the information which will in all probability lead to the apprehension of the guilty ones.

SUIT AGAIN ON

Case of McGarry Bros. Against Mrs. Hawkins Being Tried Today.

The case of McGarry Bros. against Mrs. Etta Hawkins, which was continued by 'Squire McCarron two weeks ago, came up for trial again this morning, and it is likely will command the attention of the court until late this evening.

McGarry Bros. allege that Mrs. Hawkins owes them $50 as a commission on selling a piece of her property located at the corner of West Market street and Basil avenue to Benjamin McKinnon.

CHARGED WITH THE THEFT OF A LADY'S POCKETBOOK

John Smith, a scale adjuster, who hails from Parkersburg, and who spent several days in Wellsville working at his trade, was arrested on Market street last evening at about 9 o'clock by Officer Dawson and later taken to Wellsville to answer to a charge of stealing a pocketbook containing $22 from Miss Kathleen Whitlock last Friday evening.

Smith, when arrested, swore that he was not guilty of any crime, and stated that he would have no difficulty in proving that he was not the man wanted.

It is said he was a little the worse for drink when taken in charge and his tongue flower pretty fast. "Instead of me being guilty of stealing money from any person, some one is guilty of doing that with me," said Smith. "On Saturday night I was inveigled into a saloon, Stella Mayers', I think, and after my abductors had succeeded in getting me drunk they toted me to the rear of the saloon and laid me down behind a pile of lumber. While sleeping there they went through my pockets and stole about $50. They then placed my pocketbook in my pocket, first filling it with old paper." The man's story was given no credence by the officer.

Smith was arrested by Officer Dawson and turned over to Officer Davis, of Wellsville, who placed him aboard a Wellsville car at the Diamond. When the officer and his prisoner stepped inside the car, Smith, who appeared to feel his position keenly, dropped into a rear seat. Davis ordered him to move up to the front end of the car of passengers as much as possible and the prisoner remonstrated saying that he wished to avoid the gaze Davis then seized him and dragged him through the car to the front seat.

Paul Kruger and George Pitchard will have to pay $12.50 to the liveryman and the costs attached to the arrest of Kruger. He was landed last evening by Officer Dunn and other one would have spent the night in jail had he been located. No charge was placed against either, and they were dismissed after making good with McQuilken.

In company with two noted characters of the East End they left the city early yesterday morning and drove the horses until 10 o'clock in the evening witnout giving them food. When the animals were returned to the stable they were exhausted and the liveryman was justly angered. He states that the next time that such treatment is given his horses he will prosecute the inhuman men to the full extent of the law.

Officers Woods and Betteridge were summoned to the old cemetery and found H. C. McDade and William Smith having a drunken fight. They were fined $2 and costs.

Harry Mensinger, a farmer of Beaver county, was arrested by Officer Fisher while helpless in his wagon bound for home. His fine was $5.60.

Thomas Ryan, arrested by Dawson; J. M. Allen, by Dunn; Samuel Martin by Saulsberry; Bill Clendenning, by Fisher; Rose Densmore, by Mahoney, and C. O. Dorrell, by Mahoney, all charged with drunkenness, were fined $1 and costs.

SADLY OUT OF GEAR

Was the C. & P. Schedule Owing to a Freight Wreck Near Allegheny.

The C. & P. schedule was thrown sadly out of gear this forenoon by a big smash of freight cars at Jack's run, near Allegheny. The wreckage covered the four tracks of the Ft. Wayne railroad. The mail train due in this city from Pittsburg at 7:51 did not arrive until after 11 o'clock.

It is reported here that nobody was hurt in the wreck.

TRIED TO BREAK IN

Were Frightened Away Before They Could Effect an Entrance.

The story of an attempted burglary which, had it been a success, would have resulted in the loss of thousands of dollars, came to light this morning.

On Thursday night of last week a bold attempt to enter the Dollar Savings bank was made. Cashier Harry T. Hall made the discovery on Friday morning. He saw a number of fine snavings laying under the door step on Broadway and upon further investigation found that some one had been tampering with the door. The screen door was broken open and the inside door, which is locked from the inside, was cut in numerous places.

The door is one that has no keyhole on the outside and no knob. It is supposed that the robber became frightened while at his work and fled.

DEFEATED THE SIRIUS

West End Rovers Victorious at Football in the First Game of the Season.

The West End Rovers defeated the Sirius club in an exciting game of football at the West End park Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0.

It was the opening game of the season and quite a crowd was in attendance. Hardy, full back for the Sirius club, made the star plays. His punting and line bucking was appladuded vociferously.

Another game will likely be played by these teams this week.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEWS FROM PEORIA.

The plant of the Crown Pottery company, at Peoria, is working rather slow at present, the glost kilnmen making but seven days a pay. A few weeks ago a crown of one of the glost kilns fell in, and this damage has not been repaired. It is expected that this kiln will be ready to place inside of a week.

Walter McKeene, a dishmaker at this plant, who came here from East Liverpool several months ago, broke the thumb of his right hand, and has been unable to work. The accident happened four weeks ago, while McKeone was playing a game of baseball.

Samuel Thomas, who has been employed as a dishmaker at this plant, has taken a similar position at New Castle and will leave Peoria this week. Mr. Massey will take the position made vacant.

It is reported about the shop that Byron Foutts, who has charge of the packing shed at this plant, and who was formerly located at the Dresden, in East Liverpool, is much disappointed about Joe Farmer, whom Foutts sent for three weeks ago to come to Peoria to take a position. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Farmer, and it is believed that he does not intend to go to Peoria.

Patrick Rafferty is working out his notice, and will soon leave for Akron.

TRADE IS STRONG.

Business is unusually brisk at the potteries. Generally they are crowding manufacturing, and the most important consideration, beyond making a good grade of ware, is the prompt completion and shipment of the increasing orders upon their books. The demands for staple dinner and toilet not only continue strong, but those for specialties are enlarging from day to day, requiring a greater proportion of the pottery capacity and attention. Visiting buyers are relatively few, the mails continuing to furnish the liberal trade that is now coming in. Reports from nearly every quarter are now favorable. Crops are all practically beyond any calamity and there seems to be nothing in sight to restrict the present liberal demands for pottery and all lines of manufacture except limited capacity for production. Quite a number of large orders are reported to have been turned down the past week by various potteries here and over the west—some owing to time demand, others to price limit.

WILL BUILD A NEW KILN.

Information has been given out that an important addition will be built to the Edwin M. Knowles pottery at Chester soon. The work is to begin as soon as possible. The company has been doing such a large business during the past year that the stockholders have been compelled to increase the capacity of the plant. This will be done at once by the erection of an additional kiln. It is said that the contract for the stone for the foundation for this kiln has been let, and that the kiln will be commenced within two weeks. This will give the plant a capacity of six kilns.

INCREASING THE PLANT.

The Summit China company, of Akron, who opened with three kilns last year, have commenced a fourth and have commenced on another, to be finished within 30 days. They report business to be satisfactory this fall, giving them full regular employment. The report that Mr. Cook, who lately withdrew from the Akron China company, had bought the old burned Specialty plant and would rebuild and start another ware pottery seems to be without foundation.

AN AGRREMENT REACHED.

Committees representing the National Brotherhood of Operative potters and also the Western Manufacturing Potters' association met in joint session in the rooms of the Potters' club on Fifth street Saturday night, at which time the dispute of the dispute of the Brotherhood, relative to placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln was finally settled. An agreement was reached, and at another joint meeting which will be held later in the week, the agreement will be signed by representatives of both sides. It was stated this morning that the settlement calls for placing flat ware in the first ring of the biscuit kiln, four saggers high, and if more flat ware is desired in the first ring, extra compensation shall be given. This verbal agreement will be placed in writing, and the meeting later in the week, it will be signed, and the agreement will then become a fixture. The agreement will likely become operative within a few days. A manufacturer said today that the settlement would either be approved or rejected at a meeting Wednesday night.

AGED POTTER DEAD.

The death of William C. Finney occurred at his home at 223 Johnston street, East Akron, Friday evening. About six months ago Mr. Finney suffered a stroke of paralysis and had been ill ever since. It finally, together with old age, caused his death. Mr. Finney had until recent years been engaged as a potter in the East Akron shops. He was born in Maine March 30, 1825. He has been a resident of Akron for 35 years.

HENDERSON REMAINS FIRM

He Endorses Speech Made by President Roosevelt, at Cincinnati.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—David B. Henderson, speaker of the national house of representatives, passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to Atlantic City, where he will join Mrs Henderson. Before leaving for the east Speaker Henderson reiterated his decision to retire from the congressional race in Iowa, denied any intention of "abdicating" his present position until his term of office shall have expired, and declared himself in perfect accord with the tariff views of President Roosevelt, as enunciated in his Cincinnati speech. He said in part:

"I have spent 20 years of my life fighting for protection for American industries and American labor, and I shall not be a party to any juggling at this late day. President Roosevelt's tariff views, set forth in his Cincinnati speech, coincide with my own. There is no difference in our belief. His speech was a strong one and it has my hearty indorsement."

DECIDED AGAINST HUFF.

Dauphin County, Pa., Court Sustains Showalter's Protest.

Harrisburg, Sept. 22.—The contested election case from the Twenty-second congressional district, composed of Butler and Westmoreland counties was decided in favor of the contestant by the Dauphin county court Saturday night. No opinion was handed down, but the court announced that one would be written and filed later.

The contest was instituted by Congressman Joseph B. Showalter, of Butler, who claimed that the certificate of Colonel George F. Huff, of Greensburg, who claimed the Republican nomination, was invalid for the reason that the alleged compact between Butler and Westmoreland counties had not been properly ratified by the county committees, the evidence showing that there had not been a quorum of the joint committee present when the compact was alleged to have been ratified.

Huff was nominated at a conference at Pittsburg on Sept. 11, in which Butler county refused to participate because Westmoreland insisted upon eight conferees under the compact and would allow Butler but three. Showalter was the choice of Butler county, and the court's decision leaves the district without a Republican candidate.

No Charge.

A group of representatives were one day telling stories of their experience in court when one of them contributed this incident from Arizona, says a western newspaper:

Out in one of the border towns a case was in progress, one of the lawyers being an eastern man who was new to the country.

"Will you charge the jury, your honor?" he asked when the evidence had been submitted.

"Oh, no; I guess not," replied the judge. "I never charge them anything. They don't know much anyhow, and I let 'em have all they can make."

A Costly Bible.

The most costly book in the Royal library at Stockholm is a Bible. It is no wonder that it is considered precious, for there is not another like it in the world. In weight and size alone it is unique. It is said that 160 asses' skins were used for its parchment leaves. There are 309 pages of writing, and each page falls but an inch short of being a yard in length. The width of the leaves is twenty inches. The covers are solid planks four inches thick.

FATHER KILLED HIS CHILD.

Abducted It From Mother and Shot It, When Close Pressed--Committed Suicide.

Springfield, Ills., Sept. 22.—Harry O. Williams, agent for the Franklin Life Insurance company, Saturday afternoon abducted his 2-year-old son Glen, from its mother at Auburn, Ills. and when pursued by officers got out of his buggy, placed the child in the road and blew out its brains and then killed himself. Williams became dissolute last spring and his wife, being ill, was taken home by her father, J. A. Harney.

Williams appeared at the Harney residence Saturday afternoon and asked his wife to take the child and go away with him. She refused, when he threatened the wife's life and took the child by force. Miss Lena Harney, his sister-in-law, caught the horse's reins and tried to prevent his leaving, but he struck her with a whip, and, as she still persisted, he drew a revolver and compelled her to let go the reins. He then drove away. Officers were called and when Williams saw them approaching he committed the double murder. Williams was short in his accounts with the insurance company and frequently had quarreled with his wife.

An Explanation.

EAST END

REV. P. A. BAKER PREACHED IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY.

Encouraged By the Votes Thus Far Taken Under the Beal Law.

Rev. P. A. Baker, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-saloon league, presided over a union meeting of the East End churches at the Second U. P. church, at 4 o'clock yesterday evening.

The attendance was unusually large, and the address was listened to with great interest. Mr. Baker has spoken in this city on several occasions, and his efforts in the temperance cause are appreciated by East Liverpool people.

"During the last meetings of the last four general assemblages of the State of Ohio," said the speaker, "the State League has been before that body with four different and distinct local option bills.

"We have met defeat in all but the last one—the Beal law—and we are now on the way to victory. We are peculiarly fortunate in having the provisions of the Nash code modified so that it will protect this law and there is no danger that it will not be in force for the next two years."

Rev. Mr. Baker continued his address by stating the number of towns that had been voted dry under this new local option law. He said that during the four months of its enactment there had been 77 towns, of from 500 to 1100 inhabitants, voted dry. If the number of saloons that had been put out of the business were given 30 feet of space, and each placed side by side, they would reach for one and one-half miles.

"In regard to East Liverpool I am not at liberty to say just when an attempt will be made to take a vote in this city. I might say, however, that it will not be before next summer. I know that it is harder to vote the saloons out in a larger town than it is in a smaller one." Mr. Baker preached a brief sermon at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

ABSENT 20 YEARS

J. C. Orin, of New Mexico, Is Visiting His Brother in the East End.

After being absent from the city for almost 20 years; in fact, 20 years next April, J. C. Orin, of Raton, N. M., arrived in the East End this morning at 5 o'clock, where he will remain about a month visiting his brother, W. A. Orin, of First avenue. Mr. Orin is employed as a machinist in the machine shop of the Santa Fe Railway company at Raton. He left his family in Kansas City, where Mrs. Orin will remain some time visiting relatives.

Mr. Orin has a 60-days' leave of absence. When he arrived in Wellsville this morning he recognized that small town, and to his brother in the East End said that he did not notice any change in the town. As to East Liverpool, he did not know the city. Owing to the early hour of his arrival he took a walk about the business part of the city and was surprised to notice how many improvements had been made since he was last here. Mr. Orin has many friends in the city, Robert A. Orin, chief engineer at the K., T. & K. pottery, being a brother.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Befell Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, While Alighting From a Car.

Mrs. George Martin, of the East End, met with an accident Saturday evening that is causing her much pain. She had been spending a few days at Wellsburg, visiting friends, and returned to East Liverpool Saturday evening. Getting off the train at the station, she boarded an east bound car, and went to the East End. The car was stopped on Ohio avenue, and in alighting Mrs. Martin stepped into a small gully. Not thinking the distance from the step to the ground was so great, she severly sprained her right ankle, and this morning was unable to bear her weight on that foot.

It is feared that some of the smaller bones of the foot are broken, but this cannot be determined just yet. The accident was an unfortunate one, and could have been prevented if both sides of the raer platform had been open.

IN BOYS' ATTIRE

East End Girls Went Masquerading, And the Police Will Watch for Them.

Two well known young girls of the East End, thinking they would have some fun on Friday evening dressed themselves in male clothing, and for a few hours roamed about the streets of the suburb in an unsuspected manner. During their rambles they called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin on St. George street, and asked if they had room for two boarders. They were told that they could not be accommodated, but they were undaunted in their efforts to have a good time and proceeded to call at several other homes in that locality, inquiring for board.

The girls are employed in an East End pottery, and their masquerading in men's attire is known to only a very few in the East End. The affair leaked out Saturday afternoon and more than one person in the East End is talking of it. If the experiment is repeated they are likely to be arrested.

FOOTBALL ACCIDENTS

Several Players Slightly Hurt During the Progress of a Foot Ball Game.

During the foot ball game at Columbian park Saturday afternoon several of the players were more or less injured. It is evident, however, that Harry Herbert was injured the worst. He was playing with the East End team and during the game fell on his left arm and this morning he could raise his arm but a few inches.

Lewis Marsh was also injured, while Edward and John Mountford, two players on the Dixonville team were also slightly hurt. None of the injuries will prove serious.

Free Methodist Meetings.

The Free Methodists held their first meetings in the Philes' club dance rooms in the Larkins & Ferguson building Friday and Saturday evenings and two interesting meetings are said to have been held. The attendance was quite large. It cannot be told just at this time how long the meetings will continue. The officials of this church have not completed arrangements for the purchase of the lot in Helena, but it is thought the matter will be closed up this week.

The Cable Laid.

The United Power company on Saturday evening completed the task of burying alternating current cable in the Ohio river from the south side of Babb's island to the West Virginia shore. The exclusive announcement that this work was being done appeared in this paper a few days ago, and the work was completed earlier than was expected. The cable is buried about two feet under the bed of the river. The cable is armour clad and is 2,000 feet in length.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.

Members of the Prohibition Alliance, of the East End, have arranged for a large meeting tomorrow evening in the Protected Home Circle hall. An interesting musical program has been arranged, and matters of importance will be talked over. Later in the evening refreshments will be served. This is the first time the Alliance has met in a hall, the meetings being generally held in the homes of the members.

Fish Proverbs.

"I have other fish to fry" one says in declining a task. "A pretty kittle of fish," says another in designating a pretty bad mess. The "kittle" is the tackle of the fish boom, which may easily get into a sad snarl. "There are other fish in the sea," says the rejected suitor. "Mute as a fish," "Dead as a herring," "As uneasy as a fish out of water," "To fish for compliments," are among the best known figurative expressions referring to the finny tribe. "Very like a whale" we may refer at least to Shakespeare's time ("Hamlet," iii, 2). "White as whalebone" was coined when walrus ivory was taken for whale's bone. "The shark flies the feather" is a sailor's saying, indicating the fact that this voracious fish will not touch a bird. The use of the term "land shark" is not confined to seamen by any means. Shakespeare makes use of another nautical expression in "Twelfth Night," i, 8.

True Literature.

We are inclined on the whole to believe that the stimulus to literary production exists within and not without the man. It is not external circumstances, poverty or riches, sickness or health, greatness or humbleness, that determine the productions or output of genius. It is the characteristics of the man that determine not what he shall learn or what he shall think, but what he shall do. A stimulus from without, such as poverty, may start production, of course, but that is merely the physical awakening of a disposition that in any circumstances would have been awakened in some way at some time. True literature is the voice of the soul calling from the windows of the house of clay in response to those things of life that touch the nature of the soul that speaks.—London Spectator.

A Languid Japanese Lady.

In a recent address in Tokyo a prominent Japanese educator said: "The indolence of Japanese ladies is something amazing. I know a daughter of a certain peer, but a brand new one, and this young lady's indolence is really beyond the idea of ordinary mortals. She will not even open her mouth of herself. As soon as the time to retire to her bed arrives she issues her order, 'Now I will retire,' and at once three or four maids spread the underquilts, help her, or, rather, make her, for she simply stands like a doll, to change her clothes, and at last the girl, swaddled in her night garment, is put to bed just like a person suffering from a serious illness, and so the poor thing goes to sleep and releases her maids from their trouble till the morning, when the daily routine is resumed. First of all she issues to the maids waiting in her anteroom this extraordinary order, 'I shall get up now,' and then the process exactly the reverse of that of the night before is forthwith commenced by the girls. Day after day this routine is gone through, and the spoiled child of the proud upstart peer forces herself from her mistaken notion as to dignity to lead the life of an invalid and to cripple the normal development of her body."—Chicago News.

Like Father, Like Son.

"I'm determined to call the dear little fellow Marion," said Mrs. Henpeck.

"But think, my dear," protested Mr. Henpeck, pere, "if he should grow up, like me, to marry a—er—strong woman and push a baby coach himself and wash dishes, how easy it would be for people to change Marion to Mary Ann."—Philadelphia Press.

Love In the Museum.

"Will nothing move you?" pleaded the ardent wild man, who was as adept at lovemaking as he was at eating raw beef.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. America has reached the highest commercial industrial development it ever had under the existing tariff laws. If this is not an argument against revision, where is one to be found? Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech, made the following statement: "We have established a vastly higher standard of living in America than in any other country on earth. Comparing class with class, American artisans with foreign artisans, American clerks with foreign clerks, and American day laborers with foreign day laborers, our people live in better homes than do the people of any other country. And the reason lies in the fact that the American toiler, in whatsoever field, receives better compensation, and, therefore, becomes a much larger consumer, and, being the largest consumer in the world, he affords his brother American toiler the best market in the world." These are truths that nobody can deny. The policy of protection has brought these conditions about. Foolish indeed would the workingmen be to put into power representatives of a party who would demorialize industries, cheapen wages and carry us back to the dark days of the Wilson tariff.

There is a congressman named Snooks who represents—or, more properly speaking, misrepresents—the Fifth Ohio district, who is trying hard to attract attention. Snooks on the stump is predicting a revolution against wealth in this country, to rival the French revolution in bloodshed and horror. What he bases his prediction upon is rather indefinite. The gentleman is simply ranting. Wealth is the foundation of our national prosperity and greatness. It is the desideratum of all who toil. There may be occasional instances where fortunes are made dishonestly, but the wealth so acquired is seldom enduring. The majority of men who become wealthy start as poor boys. If they gain millions they do so by their industry, intelligence and brains. The country contains very few misers. Those who have money keep it employed. Those who live by wages are intelligent enough to know that a war on wealth would be a blow at their own interests. A congressman who has so little sense as to thing otherwise should resign his seat and keep quiet.

Speaking of the Democratic congressional nomination of the Eighteenth district, the Mansfield News observes: "The zeal of the Democracy in the cause of union laber, it will be observed, is inversely proportional to the chances of union labor or of the Democracy to win. You never hear of the Democrats in a strongly Democratic district showing any special favors toward labor candidates, and if the Eighteenth Ohio district were strongly Democratic, instead of being normally over 6,000 Republican, the Democrats would have no use for a labor candidate." But the workingmen who will be fooled into lending aid and comfort to their enemies are few in number.

Senator Cockerell, of Missouri, who was a free silver man before Bryan could talk, said recently concerning the increased production of gold: "The effect of this increase has been a rise in prices, and industries have revived and prosperity has been brought in." He further says in his speech that it is neither wise nor judicious at present to urge the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Conservative and prominent Democrats generally are doubtless of Senator Cockerell's opinion, though very few of them have the courage to say so.

The National Dressmakers' association will hereafter endeavor to find husbands for worthy seamstresses who are unable to conclude matrimonial negotiations without help. But where does it find that sort of timid dressmakers?

The Cleveland Leader is zealously booming Congressman Burton for the speakership of the house. It has been demonstrated time and again that the right man for a prominent office can always be found in Ohio.

Democratic papers have much to say about the president's "indiscreet utterances." The president, however, continues to speak his mind. He is talking sense, and not to please Democrats.

George Fred Williams continues to support free silver in Massachusetts. Yet people laugh at some of the benighted citizens of the Tennessee hills who are still voting for Andrew Jackson.

This country is importing foreign steel in whole cargoes, and yet every steel mill in the United States is running at its fullest capacity. And the steel market is the barometer of business.

The question what to do with ex-presidents is bothering our South American friends. They find it hard to keep them from becoming revolutionists.

Kentucky law can prevent prize fights. In time it may be able to suppress the other and more deadly kind.

Will Be Celebrated the World Over On Wednesday Next.

The Hebrew new year, Rosh Hashono, will be celebrated Wednesday. On this day every Hebrew, rich or poor, the world over, will confess to his God his spiritual failings during the year that has gone and promise to do better during the year to come.

A prominent Hebrew of this city in speaking of the event has said:

"There is not another day given in the Jewish faith when Almighty God is so near to those of the belief as on the day of Rosh Hashbono, which means 'the head day of the year.'

"On this occasion millions of Jewish people promise their God that they have chosen the way of the truth. All worldly cares are abandoned and the Jews surrender themselves to the everlasting God, admitting their wrongdoings for the year and accepting the construction of the holy scrool for the new year.

"Let each visitor to the house of God be not a hypocrite. Think that you are seeking the Creator's endorsement for the new year. Let each Jew also know that there is not a denomination extant with more solid principles than ours. We all worship in the knowledge of our only God, to whom the richest master and the poorest beggar may kneel alike."

AT THE THEATER

The Harry Jenkins company, with Austin T. Blair's big stock company, arrived in the city yesterday and will begin a week's engagement at the Grand tonight. There will not be a stronger aggregation here this season. The company is particularly well balanced, Mr. Jenkins being one of the cleverest comedians on the American stage, while the leading man and lady are very strong. Miss Leona Leslie is an actress of great ability, having worked in leading stock companies for several years. Her stock of imported French gowns are said to have cost a fortune. The opening bill will be 'Parisian Princess,' in which the company is particularly strong.

"Two Little Waifs," Lincoln J. Carter's latest drama, was presented at the Grand Saturday night by a first class company of players. The Lambs who took the part of the waifs, were particularly clever, being among the very best juvenile actors who ever appeared here. The owners of the piece have equipped it with excellent scenery and lots of it. The audience was the largest so far of the season and it showed its appreciation in many ways.

is a branch of the business which most opticians ignore. But there is a logical reason for this neglect on their part. Cross eyes are caused from muscular imbalance, and muscular imbalance is something the great majority of opticians do not understand. Since coming here I have straightened over a dozen pairs of crossed eyes and have not failed in a single case. I do it with glasses, too, and without pain or trouble.

Only Exclusive Optician in This City. No. 111 Sixth Street.

P. O. KENNEDY.

To give perfect relief to weak eyes of whatever character an understanding of the muscles is absolutely necessary in a large per centage of cases. Do you know what causes your head to ache when your eyes are at fault? There is some muscle or set of muscles being overworked, and to give perfect relief the optician MUST UNDERSTAND MUSCULAR TROUBLES. I examine your eyes free of charge, and examine them thoroughly, too.

the dining room was entirely emptied, when investigated, but nothing it contained was removed from the room. In it was silverware of the most valuable kind. Not a single piece of it was carried away. Had they so desired they could have easily decamped with $500 worth of valuables.

That the burglars did not take more is attributed to the fact in evidence that they were on the hunt for money and nothing else. The finding of over 100 half burnt matches on the front floors gives an idea of their nerve and the time they spent in the house. That one closet that escaped their notice was the one for which they were really looking. It is located in a small hallway. Upon entering the way, they opened a door and in order to give them an easy exit if disturbed they placed a cuspidor against it, pressing the door tightly to what they supposed was simply a wall. Had they only known it, their nights' work would have been amply repaid by the leaving of that door ajar. Behind it was a closet. In the closet, plain to view, was a big rool of money, the amount of which would have opened their eyes greatly.

They made an entrance through a window on the west side of the house, and their exit through the back kitchen door, which remained open until morning.

From the McNicol residence the men fearlessly proceeded to the Logan home. Smashing a pane of glass in the back kitchen a hand was thrust through and the latch, easily turned. The glass fell inwardly to the floor, and, although it must have made a loud crash, none of the household was disturbed. They slept upstairs and the lower part of the house was thoroughly searched without any sounds reaching the sleeping apartments.

Going first to a cupboard in the kitchen, the robbers found a pocketbook, but paid no attention to the silverware. They then went into the sitting room and, seeing a suit of clothes hanging on a clothes rack, partially rifled it. As far as is known all that they got from the whole proceeding was obtained from this suit.

A Dueber filled watch case with Elgin works and a gold chain were the only things of value that they removed. Several old coins, two Columbian half dollars and some small change laid loosely in a vest escaped their fingers. The watch and chain are valued at $25 by Mr. Logan.

After searching the remaining rooms they left by the same way that they entered, having in their possession only the watch, chain and pocketbook. The latter they opened, after making their exit, and finding two gold rings and a few receipts, laid the book on a fence and threw the contents out into the grass.

Over the back fence into the Wyman yard they jumped and entered the residence by prying open the cellar door. Many fruit cans were moved by them, but none of them taken. The door leading to the first floor of the house was wide open in the morning, but there was no evidence of them having prowled further than the cellar. It is supposed that at the time they were getting ready to go upstairs some sound scared them away.

Miss Blanche Murphy, living at the rear of the Wyman home with her parents states she heard footsteps in the yard at about 4 o'clock and arising saw several dark forms leaving the premises. She can not describe them however, and there is absolutely no clue by which the bold characters can be identified.

Chief Thompson and the entire police force were notified of the nights' doings, and immediately instituted a search for the gang, but without success, and are afraid that they will never run down the guilty parties unless perchance the watch and chain are recognized by a person who will be willing to peach.

While sitting near a window at the home of his mother on Twelfth street yesterday afternoon, Harry Potts directed an insulting remark at a passing Italian known by the name of Macroni with disastrous results.

The Italian resented the insult and invited Harry out onto the street. Potts refused the invitation and the Italian started to bombard the house with stones. Harry and Alfred Green who boards at the Potts home, went out to chastise the Italian and were succeeding when some of his friends from the Italian quarter on Twelfth street and Officers Davis, Houser and Elliott arrived on the battle ground at the same time.

CROWDS WILL BE AT AKRON MEETING

changes were submitted to him before they were acted upon by the committee. The changes provide for single head elective boards instead of a multiple board.

George B. Cox, who controls the politics of Hamilton county, is opposed to the single head plan and favors the federal or chamber of commerce bill in preference to it. The original board bill was the one he wanted adopted, but now that it has been abandoned he has come out in favor of the one mentioned. Attorney General Sheets is with him in this regard. Unlike the views of the majority of the members of the legislature, he holds that flexible boards are constitutional. He said: "The man who says the constitution will not admit of flexible boards does not read right." He takes the stand that it would be legal for cities to prescribe for either one-man boards or for boards of more than one member. Councils have had authority to fix the number of members, and if the principle is lawful in the one it is in the other. He says that Judge Davis, of the supreme court, has given him to understand that flexible boards would not violate the provisions of the constitution. This assertion will probably again draw the fire of Representative Price, of Athens, who has taken a pronounced stand against what he terms "back door decisions of the supreme court."

Scott Bonham, president of the Ohio Republican league, is sending out notices of the biennial convention of the National Republican league, to be held in Chicago October 2 and 3. The official call for the gathering has been issued. The American College leagues will be represented. President Bonham is striving to secure a greater representation from Ohio at this convention than at any preceding one. The delegates selected from the Eighteenth district are Congressman R. W. Tayler, Lisbon; ex-Lieutenant Governor A. W. Jones, Youngstown; Senator George W. Wilhelm, Justus, and S. S. Shilling, Salem.

John A. Kennedy, a former resident of East Liverpool, who has been in the employ of the Warwick China company, Wheeling, during the past 18 months, passed through Columbus Saturday for Cincinnati, where he may take a position with a glass and crockery firm. If he does not locate in that city he will go to St. Louis.

DREAM HAS VANISHED

The Total Amount Yet Unclaimed Amounts to a Very Small Sum.

The Whitakers and Whitakers of this county who have been looking for a fortune of several million pounds from an English estate are to be disappointed. A Washington dispatch says:

"A letter from the chief accountant of the bank of England in regard to inquiries from persons in the United States relative to alleged unclaimed estates in England, says that the bank recently has received a great number of applications respecting the Whitaker estate, the name of Whitaker being variously spelled. The original basis of these inquiries is the occurence of the name in lists of unclaimed stocks and dividends published by the bank in the early part of the last century. The total amount at present unclaimed on several accounts with which the name of Whitaker is connected is less than £100. Some time ago a person called at the bank and said he had been designated by the heirs of the Whitaker estate to investigate their claim. He was told that there was no such estate in the knowledge of the bank, but he gave the 'heirs' a different version and spurred them on to renewed efforts."

The person alluded to is no doubt Rev. William Whitaker, who has been working on the scheme at Lisbon for nearly seven years. Last summer he went to England accompanied by his secretary, ostensibly to look up matters. At different times he has written to heirs in this county, giving very encouraging accounts of his progress. Prior to going to England he made several visits here to look up records concerning the heirs of the alleged estate.

NO BIDS ON HAND

Commissioners Found Only Enquiries on Meeting to Open Bids.

No bids were on hand Saturday, when at 8 p. m., in accordance with the advertisement of $20,000 in 5 per cent bonds the bond commissioners met.

O. O. Allison, J. H. Maxwell and E. D. Marshall met, but found nothing to look over excepting inquries from financial representatives who wished to have the bonds. There were no formal bids and the advertisements will have to be let over again.

No bids can now be submitted for 30 days. Mr. Allison said: "The bond issue was not sufficiently advertised. It was advertised only in New Cumberland. While the law specifies that matters of the kind should be published in a county paper, the city should have at least advertised the proposition in East Liverpool.

"Those bonds are better than government paper, and we ought not only to have bidders for the bonds, but get a nice premium on 5 per cent paper. This city now has over $500,000 in assessed property valuations and no man of business sense who visits this city will have the slightest doubt of the rapid increase in development of this city. From letters received from financial houses in different cities we knew that we could easily turn the bonds over to them, but not legally. We shall advertise the bonds at once. The paving contractor, E. A. Freshwater, is not afraid of his money and will go right on with the work. If it comes to a pinch, local people will take up that 5 per cent paper."

PAVING WORK RUSHED

Excellent Progress Being Made in the Improvement of Chester Streets.

Though the $20,000 bond issue for the paving of the streets of Chester has not been sold, from the manner in which the work was progressing this morning this is a detail of minor importance. An army of men were working with plows, scrapers and shovels reducing the streets to the proper grade, and if the work continues at the present rate it will be completed before the bonds are sold.

MOUTHFUL OF LYE

A Chester Child Severly Burned Attempting to Drink the Stuff.

The three year old son of Joseph Kennedy, of Fairview avenue, was brought to the office of Dr. Lewis Saturday afternoon, suffering from terrible burns in the mouth and throat, caused by attempting to swallow the contents of a can of lye.

The child, unnoticed by its mother, gained possession of the can and attempted to swallow a mouthful of the powerful alkali. Its screams soon attracted the attention of its mother who hurried to the office of Dr. Lewis. After examining the injuries of the child, the doctor stated that his burns were only in the mouth and throat and that there were no serious injuries.

NEARLY COMPLETED

The Loop at the Park Will Greatly Help in Handling Crowds.

The loop, which is being constructed by the street railway company, is nearing completion and will add greatly to the company's facilities for handling the large crowds who attend the picnics at the parks.

A new place at which to disembark the passengers was made necessary by the street improvements, which will cause the removal of the platform in front of the park entrance.

ONE HAS BEEN CAUGHT

Two Salem Boys Accused of Stealing a Horse And Buggy.

Salem, September 22.—(Special)—Ernest Phillips, aged 20, and Willie Roberts, two youths of this city on August 25, hired a horse and buggy of Liveryman S. E. Mackintosh since which time both horse and buggy have been lost. Every chief of police in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia has been notified to be on the lookout. The horse was cream colored, and it is strange that track of the horse and buggy could not be obtained. Last Wednesday Chief of Police Turner was notified by the Johnston officials that they had arrested young Roberts and had the horse and buggy in their possession.

Turner and Mackintosh at once went to Johnstown and secured the property. The harness had been traded off. Chief Turner returned Saturday evening with young Roberts, who waived requisition papers and was glad to return to Salem.

Phillips has not yet been arrested, as the instigator. Officers are on the track of Phillips. The latter has already served a term in the industrial school at Lancaster. Young Roberts is in jail at Salem, and will be given a hearing when Phillips is apprehended.

GIFT TO M'COVERN

A Handsome Water Pitcher Bestowed on the Pugilist By Local Admirers.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "A delegation of visitors from East Liverpool, O., presented Terry McGovern with a handsome water pitcher. It was made in one of the big potteries of East Liverpool, and is painted entirely by hand. On one side is a bunch of American Beauties, and the other a set of colors representing America and Ireland. Between the two flags is a pair of boxing gloves done in fancy colors.

"It is a very neat piece of work and was presented to Terry by Hugh McDermott, Jimmy Larkins, J. F. Williams and T. L. Baker, all well known sporting men of East Liverpool. The party stopped over to see Terry on their way to Louisville. They were much disappointed when the announcement was made that the bout would not come off."

President Spoke to Spanish War Soldiers, at Detroit, Today.

HE WENT TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

This Afternoon President Roosevelt Will Review Veterans and Military. Canadian Soldiers to Be In the Parade—Banquet Tonight.

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The president addressed the convention of Spanish war veterans at 10 a. m. today; at 11 o'clock he was driven to the steamer Tashmoo, for a ride on the river, and at 4 o'clock he will review the parade of veterans and military, a unique feature of which will be the presence of the Twenty-first regiment of Essex Fusiliers, from Canada; at 8 p. m. he will attend the banquet of the veterans in Light Guard armory, where he will make the address of the evening.

President Roosevelt arrived in the city at 8 o'clock yesterday morning over the Michigan Central railroad. He found Detroit awaiting his arrival in gala attire.

Throughout the day the president was greeted with tumultuous cheers at his every appearance.

President Attended Church.

Immediately on his arrival he was driven to the Hotel Cadillac, where he occupies the corner rooms on the parlor floor, which have been especially decorated in his honor. At 10:30 o'clock he attended services at the Fort Street Presbyterian church, driving from there to General R. A. Alger's residence, where he was entertained at luncheon. He returned to the Cadillac soon after 3 o'clock, only to leave again in a short time for a drive about the city. During the drive he called at St. Mary's hospital, on St. Antoine street, where Thomas K. Doherty, a local veteran of the Spanish war, is dying of consumption. Doherty had expressed a wish to see the president, and General Alger learned of it. Accordingly at luncheon yesterday President Roosevelt was asked if he would call on Doherty at the hospital. The president answered that he would be delighted to do so. Doherty is unable to sit up and the president remained at his bedside for some minutes, chatting with him and expressing words of cheer and hope.

Last night the president dined at the Cadillac with a party of friends.

The subject of Rev. E. H. Pence's sermon, at the church, was "A Threefold Gospel," and his text was from First Thessalonians, second chapter and second verse. During the services the president's favorite hymn, "God Guard Columbia," was sung.

Wants No Demonstration at Cleveland

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—Senator Hanna last night stated that President Roosevelt had made the request that no public demonstration be made over his visit to Cleveland as the guest of Senator Hanna, next Saturday and Sunday. The visit is not a public one and the president wishes to spend the day as quietly as possible, at Senator Hanna's home on Lake avenue.

Senator Hanna was asked what he thought of the president's speech at Cincinnati, Saturday, but declined to make any comment or statement. Neither would he make any statement as to what transpired at the conference at Oyster Bay a few days ago.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, left at noon yesterday for California, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Littlefield will make a number of speeches in that state. Later in the campaign he will return to Ohio and deliver several speeches in this county in support of the candidacy of Hon. Theodore E. Burton's re-election to congress.

Against Abolition of Tariff Duties.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt, before a great and enthusiastic audience in the Music hall Saturday night, took two more long strides in advance of his party which he is leading on the trust question. He attacked the arguments that a remodeling of the tariff duties on all trust-made articles would drive the trusts out of business and leave the field for the small and independent competitors. He declared that the abolition of these duties might ruin the trusts, but would first ruin the small corporations and cause distress to the entire country. He pointed out that two of the most successful trusts, the Standard Oil company and the anthracite coal combination, would not be affected by tariff changes because they enjoy no protection now. His naming the coal trust as a combination that "has control of the anthracite output" was the most striking paragraph in his speech.

The other notable feature of the president's speech had to do with the adoption of a constitutional amendment to give the federal government control of the trusts. He made practically a flat declaration in favor of amending the constitution.

May Arouse Other Powers.

Constantinople, Sept. 22.—The decision of the sultan to permit four Russian torpedo boats, which are in reality topedo boat destroyers, to pass the Dardanelles is considered here to be a violation of an international convention, and action in the matter is expected from the other signatory powers.

ODELL TO BE RENOMINATED.

New York Republicans Likely to Take Definite Stand Against Tariff Revision.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Not in many years had there been two nights prior to the assembling of a New York state Republican convention such placidity as existed last night. Undoubtedly this is because by far the majority of selections for the state ticket have been practically agreed upon. Governor Odell will of course be renominated. The contest for lieutenant governor practically ended last night, when it was announced that the delegations from New York, Westchester and Erie counties had decided to go into the convention pledged for George R. Sheldon.

There had not last night been anything definitely decided on the trust plank, except that while condemning certain combinations of capital there will be no appeal to congress for drastic execution. This statement is on the authority of Mr. Platt, who added that the draft of the plank was not complete. On the tariff question the indications are that a very definite stand will be taken against revision on the ground that the benefit to be gained will be infintesimal as compared with the injury that will be done among industrials and workingmen by an opening of the question of revision.

N. N. Stranahan, collector of the port of New York, said last night: "The plank in the platform endorsing President Roosevelt's administration and his candidacy to succed himself will be as strong as any close adherent of the president can wish for."

THINKS YOUNG WILL SUICIDE.

Captain Titus Believes Murderer of Mrs. Pulitzer Fled to Vicinity of Canarsie, L. I.

New York, Sept. 22.—The search for William Hooper Young, the man wanted for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, whose mutilated body was found floating in the abandoned Morris canal, near Jersey City, Thursday morning last, had, up to a late hour yesterday, been unavailing. The police forces of this and the surrounding boroughs have been bending all energies and running down all clews which come to them to locate Young.

The chief development of the day Sunday came from Brooklyn, and it leads the police to believe that the fugitive has escaped to the vicinity of Canarsie, L. I. Captain Titus, of the detective bureau, is inclined to believe that Young, finding all avenues of final escape shut off, has fled to this spot on the Long Island coast to commit suicide. The captain ordered a special force of detectives to Carnarsie to conduct a thorough search of the neighborhood.

The story of this clew is that late Saturday night a man supposed to have been Young was seen in a lodging house in Brooklyn. When he applied for a room he was told there was none vacant, and he was forced to be satisfied with a chair. Soon afterward he became nervous and arose to his feet. Some of those in the room arose simultaneously. Then the stranger dashed down the back stairs of the hotel to the yard, with some of the lodgers after him. Vaulting the back fence, closely pursued, the fugitive fled up the street. The pursuers, gaining upon him, the stranger halted, drew a revolver and brought the lodgers to a stand. Turning again, he caught sight of a Nostrand avenue car, bound for Fulton street, and raced for it. Before the lodgers came up the car with the fugitive on board was blocks away.

Man Thought to Be Young Caught.

Derby, Conn., Sept. 22.—A man who tallies exactly with the description of Hooper Young, who is wanted by the New York police for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, was arrested by the local police last night. The man is held here awaiting instructions from Captain Titus.

Coghlan to Command at Panama.

Boston, Sept. 22.—Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coghlan has raised his flag on the Olympia and awaits orders to proceed to the isthmus of Panama, to assume charge of the affairs in that vicinity and to command the fleet of American warships assembling there. The Olympia is provisioned and coaled for three months.

GUARDS AND MOB FIRED SHOTS.

General Gobin Said If There Was Any Violence at Mahonoy City, This Morning, He Would Send Regiment and Gatling Gun There. .. .. ..

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 22.—The mining town of Edwardsville, near here, was the scene of much lawlessness Saturday night and early Sunday morning. A crowd of men, said to be strikers, went in search of a man named James McGuire, who went to work in the mines last week. They fired stones at several houses, broke down the doors of the dwelling where McGuire was supposed to be harbored and committed other depredations. The mob also fired on the deputies at the Edward mine. The officers returned the fire, but no one was wounded. Early yesterday morning three men were arrested, charged with being the ringleaders who threatened the life of McGuire. They gave the names of John Sherbemah, George Streiker and Michael Mone. In default of $1,000 bail they were committed to jail.

Gobin Threatened to Send Soldiers.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 22.—Asked last night if the Eighth regiment would be sent to occupy Mahoney City, General Gobin, in command of the state troops here, replied:

"That all depends on circumstances. If there should be any further outbreaks there, not only a regiment, but a Gatling gun will be sent there. The strikers have been holding up passenger trains and trolley cars, looking for deputies, and soldiers cannot venture into the town without being insulted. The violence that has been rampant in that town for several days must cease, and if there is any disturbance there tomorrow morning a battery of artillery and perhaps a regiment will go there."

YOUNG MAN'S JEALOUS DEED.

Wounded Girl at Conemaugh, Pa., and Then Suicided.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—David M. Goughner, a well-known young man, shot and seriously wounded Miss Leorena Winnebrenner, aged 17 years, near her home in Conemaugh, near this city, Saturday night, and then sent a bullet into his own heart, dying instantly. Jealously and a desire for revenge are given as the causes for the act.

Edward Kayler, who was with her, ran when the fusilade began and escaped injury. He says Goughner fired two shots at him.

At the General hospital last night it was said while Miss Winnebrenner's condition was extremely serious, she may recover.

NEGRO MURDERER PURSUED.

Killed a Man In Clearfield County, Pa., Who Took a Boy's Part.

Dubois, Pa., Sept. 22.—Thomas Russel, of Grampian, Clearfield county, was shot dead yesterday afternoon at that place by a negro named Moses Taylor. Taylor escaped, but was being pursued by a posse of officers and citizens.

The colored man was having some trouble with a small boy and was in the act of chastising him, when Russell tried to rescue the boy. Taylor turned from the boy and pointed a revolver at Russell and fired twice. Neither struck him, however, and Russel seized the revolver, wrenched from the negro and walked away. He had gone but a few yards when Taylor drew another revolver from his pocket and shot Russell through the back.

BOOTH SAYS FAREWELL.

To Visit America—Message In Behalf of Humanity.

London, Sept. 22.—General Booth conducted three farewell services at the Clapton Congress hall Sunday. Three thousand Salvationists bade the general godspeed at the evening service, when he expressed a desire to convey messages of affectionate regard from them to Canada and the United States. The general asked those present to send a message that their American brethren, with the people of Great Britain, might stand up before the world as friends of the human family, and that these two great nations should work shoulder to shoulder for the peace and happiness of the world.

Corbett and McGovern Agree to Fight.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—C. E. Lambertson, stakeholder of the McGovern-Corbett contest, which was to have taken place at Louisville tonight, paid over the forfeit money Saturday night. McGovern and Corbett receiving $1,250 each. Both McGovern and Corbett left their forfeit of $2,500 in the hands of Mr. Lambertson, and made a verbal agreement that they would fight in December, before the club offering the largest prize.

MINISTER UNFROCKS HIMSELF.

Dramatic Ending of Trial of M. E. Minister, In Iowa—Refused to Live With Wife.

Keokuk, Ia., Sept. 22.—The case of Rev. P. J. Henness, before the Iowa conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, came very dramatically to an end early yesterday. After the trial committee, appointed by Bishop Hamilton and composed of 13 divines, had been in session far into the night, Mr. Henness himself took the stand.

He said it was evident to himself and to his attorneys that he was not to have a fair trial, and handed the parchments of his ordination to the committee, following with his resignation from membership in the church as well as from the ministry. Turning to his wife, who was present, the self-unfrocked minister exclaimed:

"Woman, behold the wreck of a man you have made."

His wife broke down at this dramatic exhibition. The committee on the trial of Mr. Henness immediately closed its session, having lost its jurisdiction of the case by his action in placing himself outside the pale of the church.

Mr. Henness, after maintaining silence stubbornly for a year, said yesterday that the reason he left his wife was because of her continual "nagging," which broke down his health and rendered it impossible for him to do ministerial work. The charge against him before the conference was separation from his wife whom he agreed to support, but refused to live with. No question of immorality was involved.

FIREMAN HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Freight Train Crashed Into Another Near Conemaugh, Pa.

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.—In a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Conemaugh, last night, in which two freight trains were involved, Fireman George Freeman, of Fitcairn, was instantly killed. His body was dragged for several hundred feet under the engine and horribly mangled. A westbound freight had been held just east of Conemaugh on signals and had received a clear block.

The engineer had just called in his flagman, when an extra, westbound crashed into the rear of the train. All four tracks were blocked for several hours. The wreckage took fire and at a late hour last night was still burning.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

MET DEFEAT AT SALINEVILLE

GOOD GAME AT CHESTER

The Carroll Club Easily Defeated By the Y. M. C. A. On Saturday By a Score of 22 to 2—Winners Made No Errors.

Manager Walsh's team of baseballists in a badly crippled condition left the city early Saturday morning for Salineville where they played the coal miners a rattling good game in the afternoon before an enormous crowd of fans.

The locals lost the game by a score of 5 to 1, but no wonder Maag, with his right arm in a sling, played right field. Could anything else but defeat be expected? And in the seventh Maley, who was holding the diamond hunters down at his will, met with an accident that compelled him to leave the box.

For eight innings the score stood on even terms. In the ninth a wild throw by Emmerling to second, followed by several of the players going straight in the air, gave the game to Salineville. The following lineup was in the battle: Emmerling, catcher; Maley and Barker, pitchers; Winters, first; Webb, second; Davis, third; Barker, short; Chadwick, middle; Trainor, left and Maag right.

The Carroll club base ball team fell easy marks to the second team of the Y. M. C. A. in Chester park on Saturday afternoon, losing the game by a score of 22 to 2. The Y. M. C. A. were certainly playing some and they walked away with the game putting forth scarcely an effort.

It was an errorless game on the part of the winning team and their twirler pitched one of the finest games of the season. He held the Corroll club boys down to six hits. His name is Welch and he bids fair to hold down a salaried position next year.

Katipunan Society Again Active.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Manila papers received at the war department say that the Katipunan, the society which is secretly pledged to oppose American sovereignty, is again active in Manila, and General Guillermo, one of the most prominent insurgent leaders, is still in the field at its head. The police, the constabulary and the secret service are combined in an effort to suppress the society, and over 100 arrests have been made, with more in prospect.

Boxerism Not Subdued.

London, Sept. 22.—In a dispatch from Shanghai the correspondent of the Standard declares that Boxerism in the province of Sze-Chur has not been subdued. The premises of the China Island mission, at Mei-Chou, has been destroyed, but no lives were lost. The Boxers, according to the correspondent, are now threatening three cities, Tan-Lien, Hung-Yen and Kaiting-Fu.

Prevention of the Flight of Birds.

To prevent birds from flying without the barbarous and injurious system sometimes practiced of cutting their wings it will be found sufficient to tie together with a thread three or four of the largest feathers of one wing. This destroys the balance, the wings do not act symmetrically in the air, and flight is rendered impossible. Fowls, pigeons, etc., may be kept within bounds in this simple fashion.

Merely Misplaced.

GUIDI CONSECRATED.

Who, Next to Pope, Is Highest Political Personage In Vatican—Prominet Prelates Assisted — Leading Clergymen Present.

Rome, Sept. 22.—The consecration yesterday of Monsignor Guidi, apostolic delegate in the Philippines, as archbishop, which occurred in the church of Santa Maria, in Aquiro, which is owned by the Somaschian fathers, his first instructors, assumed considerable importance, as it was conducted by Cardinal Rampolla, who, after the pope, is the highest political personage in the vatican.

Cardinal Rampolla was assisted by Monsignor Constantini, the papal almoner, and Monsignor Gaspardi, secretary of ecclesiastical affairs, and who also acted as secretary to the commission of cardinals which treated with Governor Taft, of the Philippines, in his negotiations with the vatican concerning the disposition of the friar property in the islands.

The entire diplomatic corps accredited to the vatican, all the generals of the religious orders and a number of prominent friars, Mgr. Macchi, the new papal nuncio in Munich; the mayor and the bisnop of Alatri, Monsignor Guidi's birthplace, were present at the ceremony. The United States was represented by the Rev. J. P. Farrelly, of Nashville, Tenn., who was recently appointed privy chamberlain to the pope.

110 DEAD BODIES COUNTED.

Gloom at Birmingham, Ala., Over Disaster—President Sends Message to Booker Washington.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 22.—A gloom has been cast over the entire community as the people begin to realize the enormity of Friday night's appalling disaster at Shiloh Baptist church. Late Saturday night 110 dead had been counted, and 90 of these have been identified.

The injured negroes are being cared for by various hospitals and private residences.

The undertaking establishments of the city, which prepare the bodies of negroes for burial, have been unable to handle the remains of the victims, and many of the bodies were still scattered over the floors of those places. As fast as the bodies could be dressed and placed in coffins they were moved to the homes of their relatives, and at least 50 funerals were held yesterday.

The Rev. L. R. Price, of New Orleans, whose name appears in the list of dead, was most worshipful grand master of the grand lodge of negro Masons of Louisiana and was well known throughout the United States. He lost his life in an effort to save several women who were being crushed to death beneath the panic stricken crowd in the church. Three times he fought his way into the building and brought out three women. The fourth time he was caught in the crush and before he could extricate himself he died of suffocation.

The following message was received from President Roosevelt Saturday:

Prof. Washington replied:

"Our people are most grateful to you for your words of sympathy in the matter of the terrible calamity which has befallen so many of our race. Everything possible is being done by both white and colored citizens to help. Birmingham city officials have been most thoughtful and generous. The crowd at the meeting was very large, but was perfectly orderly. The disaster grew out of one of those incidents which it was almost impossible to foresee."

FREIGHT STRUCK THEIR TRAIN.

Two Killed and 26 Injured by Accident, In Oklahoma.

Choctaw, O. T., Sept. 22.—An eastbound Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad freight train ran into the rear of the Sells-Downs show train here early Saturday. Two sleeping cars of the show train were completely demolished and many of its occupants were pinioned beneath the wreckage. Two persons were killed and 26 were injured, all but four seriously. All of the casualties were on the show train. The dead are:

Harry Williams.

A negro, unidentified.

The show train was standing on the main track when the accident occurred. The freight engine was not damaged badly and the freight crew was unhurt. The show people blame the freight engineer for the accident and became so demonstrative that he fled.

After the excitement had died down the freight engineer returned. He declared that the lights on the show train were out and that he was unable to see it in the rain and darkness.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Endeavor Social—The Y. P. C. E. of the First Presbyterian church is arranging for a social to be given on the evening of October 2.

Breaking the Peace—Thomas Farmer, of the West End, will be arrested this evening by Officer Aufderheide and taken before the mayor to answer to charge of breaking the peace.

Quarantine Raised—Health Officer Burgess fumigated and raised the quarantine from the homes of George Eisenhuth, Pine street, and John Homan, Fourth street, this morning. Both families have undergone a siege with scarlet fever.

Twin Boys Born—The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Headley in the West End Sunday night and twin boys were born. Despite the efforts of Dr. Hobbs, one of the babies died. The mother and her remaining child are reported as doing well.

Wedded at Oil City — Miss Emma Baker, a niece of George S. Goodwin of this city, and Willard Hall Say, of Crafton, Pa., were the central figures at a fashionable church wedding in Oil City, Pa., last week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baker, prominent in social circles of their home city, and the groom, who holds a responsible position with a large coal company, is also a leader in society.

SERIES OF THREE GAMES

To Be Played By East Liverpool And Rochester, Beginning Next Friday.

To decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and of northeastern Ohio, Manager Walsh's players and that strong team of Rochester have decided to play a series of three games. The first game is to be played in West End park on next Friday afternoon and the second at Rochester on the following day. The third game will be played at the park which receives the largest crowd the first two games. As the games will undobtedly be the hardest fought of the season they will be witnessed by all lovers of the sport in the city.

For the first time this season Manager Walsh will charge admittance to the ladies. It is perfectly right that he should do so. There is not a city east of the Mississippi that ladies are allowed to witness games every day in the week free of charge.

If the fans want to see two of the three games played on local grounds they can do so by all turning out to the game on Friday.

MINERS AND RAILROAD

A joint stock coal company has been formed which has as one of its objects the opening of the coal fields near Guilford. The officials of the company have decided to build a railroad from Teegarden to Guilford to get the product to market.

The company has purchased, leased and has options on 1,000 acres of coal land in Hanover and Center townships. H. G. Folts was a member of the stock company which was organized, but it is not thought his death will have any effect with the building of the railroad and the operation of the coal fields.

HIT BY AUTOCYCLE

A LITTLE BOY KNOCKED DOWN AND BADLY HURT.

He Was Playing of the Street When the Machine Struck Him. Him.

In the presence of at least 100 citizens, the six-year-old son of J. G. Kaufman, an employe at the Eagle Hardware store, was run down by an auto-cycle at the corner of Sixth streets and Broadway early Saturday evening.

The boy and his younger brother were enroute to their home on Forest street and playing as they walked. When nearly across the street both saw a shining object in the gutter near the sidewalk and simultaneously made a dash for it. Just as he reached down to pick up the coveted object an auto-cycle, ridden by Samuel McShane, struck him on the back of the head, knocking him with terrific force against the stone curbing.

The little fellow commenced screaming and the blood from a wound inflicted on the top of his head began pouring profusely. Several bystanders hurried to his side and carefully bore him to the office of Dr. E. L. Trimmer, who dressed the wound, and alleviated the suffering.

For several minutes after the accident there was much indignation displayed by the crowd of witnesses. All were up in arms against the reckless rider of the cycle, but he protested that it was not due to his carelessness and the matter was dropped.

WRECKED THE PLATFORM

Because a freight car was "kicked" down the siding at the freight station during the night, damage to the probable extent of $100 was caused. The track alongside the receiving platform at the freight station is not a long one and it is down grade. During the night a through freight crew had occasion to place a car on this siding, and in so doing the car was "kicked" on the siding at more than usual speed.

The bumper at the end of the track was damaged sometime ago, and then a lot of old ties were placed at the end of the track. The speed of the car last night was so great that it rolled up on these ties, and partially wrecked the covered platform, at the entrance to the freight station. The platform was knocked away from the building by the jar, and the watchman's shanty at the corner of Walnut street also came near being wrecked. The damage will be repaired at once.

At the meeting of the packers, it is stated that the matter was forgotten entirely.

The communication was also presented to the officials of Kilndrawers' local No. 17, which met in Brotherhood hall Saturday evening, and after it was read, it was voted upon, and it was the sense of the meeting that Mr. Duffy remain on the Labor ticket. This vote, it is learned, was unanimous.

A prominent member of one of the largest locals in the city, and a strong Brotherhood member today stated that so far as he knew, the communication was somewhat out of place, inasmuch as it related to politics. It was said by this gentleman that according to the constitution of the National Brotherhood of Operative potters, no matters of a political or religious nature shall be considered at a meeting of a local, and in this case, politics is the sole subject of the communication sent out by the Labor committee. What consideration the communication will receive from the locals meeting this week can only be surmised.

An attempt was made this morning to obtain an expression either from Mr. Duffy or President Hughes, and although several calls were made at the Brotherhood headquarters, the doors were locked, no person being there.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

J. E. Anderson Thrown From a Buggy In a Collision And Hurt.

While driving along Pennsylvania avenue this afternoon with several friends J. E. Anderson, hotelkeeper, collided with a wagon, loaded with stone. The collision was so great that Mr. Anderson was thrown from the buggy and was seriously injured about the back and head.

He was removed to the office of Dr. R. J. Marshall.

The Oldest Death Sentence.

The oldest death sentence extant is found in the Amherst papyri containing the trials of state criminals in Egypt, about 1300 B. C. The criminal in this case was found guilty of magic, which his judges state "was worthy of death, which he carried out, and he killed himself," apparently by stabbing, as in the Japanese "hari kari," which is also of very ancient origin.

Among less civilized peoples drowning would seem to have been the earliest method of legal punishment, for about 450 B. C. the Britons killed their criminals by throwing them into a quagmire. Of other than capital punishments the oldest recorded comes from Chaldea, where it was enacted some 6,000 years ago that when any one maimed a slave "the hand that thus offended should pay him each day a measure of corn."

FOOT BALL TEAM

East Liverpool Has One Composed of the Very Best Material.

East Liverpool is to have a foot ball team which, from all appearances, will equal if not excel any team in this vicinity. A glance at the lineup will show that it is to be composed of men who have devoted their time to athletics in some form, and many of them are known throughout this section as good foot ball players.

The team will be under the management of J. C. Walsh, Jr., and have engaged West End park, where they will begin practice next Wednesday.

A Couple of Local Sports Indulged in a Fight Which Was a Fierce One.

A few select lovers of the game of "hit and get away" were treated to an able exhibition of the manly art in the packing shed of a down town pottery last Saturday morning.

Two well known young amateurs have tried, vocally, for some time, to decide which was the better man, and when a party of friends hung up a purse of $50 they decided to get together.

The affair was pulled off in a purely non-professional manner, and as both parties are connected with institutions where prize fighting is not approved their names are kept very quiet.

The fight lasted but a short while and was fast and furious. Knowledge of the game was displayed by both parties and the winner earned his money.

"Old Patch," the Forger.

It was about the year 1784 that the first forgeries on a very large scale were discovered by the Bank of England, and these were done by one man, known from his favorite disguise as "Old Patch." By a large issue of notes spread over a long period he defrauded the bank of more than £200,000, and, having only one confidant, his mistress, great difficulty was experienced in tracing the source of the forgeries. "Old Patch" in his checkered career of lottery office keeper, stockbroker and gambler had given banknotes careful study and acquired a knowledge of engraving, paper making and printing. He made his own ink, manufactured the paper and printed the notes on a private press. In various disguises he hired boys from the streets to present the notes. Suspicion was at last aroused by his movements. He was thrown into prison, where he cheated the law by hanging himself in his cell.—London Chronicle.

A Telling Retort.

Fault was found, says the Christian Endeavor World, with the way in which the shorthand writers reported the speeches in a legislative body. They retaliated by giving the speech of one of the members exactly as he made it, with the following result:

"The reporters—ought not to—the reporters ought not to be the ones to judge of what is important—not to say what should be left out—but—the member can only judge of what is important. As I—as my speeches—as the reports—as what I say is reported sometimes, no one—nobody can understand from the reports—what it is—what I mean. So—it strikes me—it has struck me certain matters—things that appear of importance—are sometimes left out—omitted. The reporters—the papers—points are reported—I mean—to make a brief statement—what the paper thinks of interest—is reported."
